7 Live using HERITAGE Live!®
Auctions designated as "Heritage Live Enabled" have

Auctions designated as "Heritage Live Enabled" have continuous bidding from the time the auction is posted on our site through the live event. When normal Internet bidding ends, visit HA.com/Live and continue to place Live Proxy bids. When the item hits the auction block, you can continue to bid live against the floor and other live bidders.

Because of the many avenues by which bids may be submitted, there is the real possibility of a tie for the high bid. In the event of a tie, Internet bidders, within their credit limit, will win by default.

Cataloged by: Mark Borckardt, Senior Numismatist;
Brian Koller, Denis Loring

Dear Bidder:

Welcome to this special catalog of The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection, to be sold in conjunction with the Official Auction of the 2014 FUN Annual Convention.

Assembling a complete set of the 295 Sheldon-numbered varieties, with the nine additional sub-varieties, is among the greatest achievements of large cent collecting, a feat accomplished by only a handful of masters in the field. Adam Mervis accomplished that goal and then some; this catalog is the testimony.

Not only did Adam Mervis collect all the Sheldon varieties, including the legendary and extremely rare 1795 S-79 Reeded Edge cent, he also assembled a fine array of the Non-Collectibles as well, 39 coins representing 35 of the 53 NC varieties. How many collectors can claim to have owned two Strawberry Leaf cents at once? The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection contains both the unique NC-2 variety and the second-finest NC-3, one of just three known examples. The 1794 NC-10, a Head of 1794 variety, is another unique piece within these pages. In fact, the 1794 large cents include every variety and sub-variety, both numbered and NC. This is only the third time that a complete set of the 69 coins has appeared in a single auction.

The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection continues with a magnificent run of Middle Date and Large Date pieces, circulation and proof alike, including some of the rarest Newcomb varieties. Highlights here include the finest known 1818 N-4 Coronet cent, a Condition Census-worthy proof 1838 N-11 cent, and the finest of seven known 1849 N-25 cents. A handful of special error coins also are present, including a twice-struck 1798 S-149 cent that also happens to be Condition Census-worthy for the die pair.

As always, you have seven ways to bid and win in this Heritage event. Before the auction, we accept bids through HA.com, e-mail, postal mail, and fax. Real-time remote bidding is available by telephone and through our award-winning proprietary online platform, Heritage LIVE!™ Should you be at FUN, we hope to see you at our booth on the Bourse, our on-site lot viewing, and the auction floor.

Good luck!

Sincerely,

Greg Rohan

SESSION ONE

LARGE CENTS

2001 1816 MS63 Brown NGC. N-2, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS63. Ex: Mervis Collection. The obverse of this Randall Hoard die marriage also appears on N-1 and N-3, both currently rated R.4. Rim crumbling from 1 to 4 o'clock first appears in late states of N-1, and is present on all examples of N-2 and N-3. This example is a late die state with cracks through the tops of ST and OF. The reverse is rotated about 30 degrees clockwise. Both sides of this sharply defined cent have strong border dentils and frosty luster. The obverse has faded red intermingled with bluish-brown, while the reverse is similar with brighter mint red. Trivial marks are evident inside stars 1 and 2, at the C of CENT, and below the wreath. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 224Z, PCGS# 1591

2002 1816 — 50 Degree Clockwise Rotated Reverse — MS64 Brown PCGS. N-2, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU55. The reverse is rotated about 50 degrees clockwise as often the case on this plentiful Randall Hoard variety. This late die state is similar to the previous lot with cracks through the tops of ST and OF. The left side stars are flat and the strike is blunt over the forehead and on the ribbon bow. Both sides have considerable satin luster with nearly full cartwheels. Medium brown toning is blended with faded mint red on this attractive cent. The Randall Hoard varieties of 1816 to 1820 are ideal candidates for date or type collections. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 224Z, PCGS# 1591

1816 N-2 Cent, MS64 Red and Brown
Lovely Randall Hoard Cent

2003 1816 MS64 Red and Brown PCGS. N-2, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS63. A late die state with the reverse rotated about 50 degrees clockwise, as on the other two examples of the 1816 N-2 cent in the present sale. Slight differences in the appearance of the rim break and the underlying dentils are noted on the three examples offered here. This lovely Choice Mint State specimen has considerable brilliant orange luster with tiny handling marks in the upper left obverse field. Population: 15 in 64 (2 in 64+) Red and Brown, 3 finer (10/13). From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 224Z, PCGS# 1592

2004 1816 — Improperly Cleaned — NGC Details. XF. N-3, R.4. Our EAC grade VF25. Ex: Mervis Collection. Pale bluish-steel toning appears over the light olive and tan surfaces of this lightly marked cent. Both sides have scattered marks consistent with the grade, although there are none worth individual mention. This is a pleasing piece that ranks among the 20 finest known examples. Ex: Del Bland (5/1978), later, Goldberg Coins (2/2008), lot 1409; Goldberg Coins (2/2009), lot 704. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection.

1816 N-3 Cent, AU Details
Eighth Finest Known

2005 1816 — Improperly Cleaned — NGC Details. AU. N-3, R.4. Our EAC grade XF40. Ex: Mervis Collection. The N-3 cent is an intermediate state of the obverse with the rim break less advanced than on N-2, confirming the emission sequence of N-1, N-3, and N-2. The reverse die of N-3, also appearing on N-9, is misaligned on all examples of this variety with an outer border visible over UNITED. This splendid mahogany and olive-brown example has trivial handling marks on each side. Traces of frosty luster are evident on this pleasing cent. Bland and Noyes each call this XF40, and both rank the piece just outside their census. Ex: Jonathan Kern; Chris Victor-McCawley; Manuel Ahumada (McCawley and Grellman, 6/1998), lot 144; later, Chris McCawley (4/22/2005); Daniel W. Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 5/2010), lot 7. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 224Z, PCGS# 1591

1816 N-4 Cent, MS63 Brown
The John Wright Plate Coin

2006 1816 MS63 Brown PCGS. N-4, High R.2. Our EAC Grade AU58. This early die state example has bold details with crisp border dentils on both sides. The surfaces are pleasing chocolate and dark brown with flashes of lighter tan, faded from mint red, in the protected areas. Each side exhibits only a trace of high point wear and a few slight nicks of no consequence. Called AU58 in the Holmes sale and graded higher by Noyes who lists it as tied for fifth finest in his census. Ex: Jim Frans (Holland, Michigan, 1/1977); John D. Wright (1/18/2006); Bob Grellman and Chris McCawley, 4/3/2006; Daniel W. Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 5/2010), lot 8. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. PCGS# 36532

2007 1816 AU55 NGC. N-5, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Mervis Collection. Flowlines draw the stars and letters toward the edge on this late die state example. Clear repunching appears under the left foot of N in CENT. Both sides show partial border details. Recolored with intermingled olive, steel, and medium brown color on both sides. A small planchet chip appears on the jaw, and scattered marks are evident on both sides. We concur with Bob Grellman's XF40 grade in the Holmes offering. Ex: John D. Wright (6/30/1986); Richard V. Punched (7/30/1989); Daniel W. Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 5/2010), lot 10. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 224Z, PCGS# 1591

1816 N-6 Cent, MS63 Brown
Early Die State

2008 1816 MS63 Brown PCGS. N-6, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Dan Holmes. A small projection on the upper loop of the 6 appears on early die states. A nice strike from crisp dies, showing nearly full cartwheels, and frosty luster in the protected areas. Lovely chocolate-brown surfaces exhibit dapples of dark bluish-steel on each side. This splendid specimen ranks among the top dozen examples known of the variety. The grade suggests a trace of light wear on the high points.

Ex: Daniel W. Holmes; Richard V. Punchard; Chris Victor-McCawley (6/1993); Manuel Ahumada (McCawley & Grellman, 1/1997), lot 283; March Wells (M & G Auctions, 2/2000), lot 1733; Daniel W. Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 5/2010), lot 12.

From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. PCGS# 36538

2009 1816 MS62 Brown NGC. N-7, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU58. Ex: Mervis Collection. A late die state, the projection on the upper loop of the 6 obscured by lapping and die wear. Both sides of this lovely cent have satin surfaces with cartwheel luster. The medium chocolate obverse retains lighter tan, faded from mint red, in the protected areas, while the blue-steel and olive reverse has a glossy appearance. A lovely cent, and an important opportunity for the specialist. A trace of rub prevents a full MS60 grade, although Bob Grellman graded this piece MS60 Plus in the Holmes catalog. Although expert opinions differ, this piece is likely among the 10 finest known of the variety.

Ex: Superior (1/1989), lot 3115; J.R. Frankenfield (Superior, 2/2001), lot 630; Daniel W. Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 5/2010), lot 16.

From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 224Z, PCGS# 1591

2010 1816 AU53 NGC. N-8, R.1. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Mervis Collection. A late die state example with a rim break in the dentils over stars 3 and 4, and a crack through the tops of UNITED ST. Attractive surfaces with medium olive color and splashes of lighter tan.

Ex: George Ramont (8/3/1972); Jules Reiver (Heritage, 1/2006), lot 19690; later EAC Convention (Annapolis, 5/2010).

From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 224Z, PCGS# 1591

1816 N-9 Cent, MS64 Brown
Tied for Fourth Finest Known

2011 1816 MS64 Brown NGC. N-9, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU58. Ex: Mervis Collection. Strong flowlines draw the stars and letters to the edge on this late die state example. A lovely specimen, showing frosty luster on its olive surfaces with traces of faded mint color. An exceptional, highly appealing example of a scarce variety.

Ex: John Nicholas (Superior, 2/1992), lot 490; later, EAC Convention (Annapolis, 5/2010).

From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 224Z, PCGS# 1591

1817 N-1 Cent, AU55
From the Jules Reiver Collection

2012 1817 13 Stars AU55 NGC. N-1, R.4. Our EAC Grade XF40.

Ex: Mervis Collection. A late die state with advanced die cracks, although these are somewhat obscured by rather heavy flowlines in the fields. Deep olive-brown surfaces with some pinkish-red color resulting from the removal of light corrosion. A small area of raised corrosion is visible at ES of STATES. Otherwise, the surfaces are pleasing and attractive, with only a few minor nicks or abrasions. Although not a Condition Census coin, this lovely copper easily ranks in among the top two dozen known examples.

Ex: George Ramont; Jules Reiver (Heritage, 1/2006), lot 19697; EAC Convention (Annapolis, 5/2010).

From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 2252, PCGS# 1594

2013 1817 13 Stars MS61 Brown NGC. N-2, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU55.

Ex: Mervis Collection. This middle die state specimen has a light radial crack through the first S, with a continuation to the wreath. No obverse die cracks are evident. Traces of faded mint color are evident on dark olive and steel surfaces. A small spot resides near the chin and a tiny planchet chip is noted below star 13. This lovely example falls at the low end of the Condition Census.

From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 2252, PCGS# 1594

1817 N-2 Cent, MS64 Brown
Third Finest Known

2014 1817 13 Stars MS64 Brown PCGS. N-2, R.3. Our EAC Grade MS61.

There is no evidence of the die crack from the rim to the bust tip that appears in later states, although that feature may be obscured by light flowlines. The reverse, seen earlier on the Randall Hoard 1816 N-2, now exhibits a radial die crack through the first S in STATES to the wreath. This splendid Choice Mint State 1817 N-2 cent had frosty olive mint luster with splashes of steel toning at the lower left obverse. A few small spots are noted on the obverse, along with light tan that is faded from mint red. Bill Noyes and Del Bland call this piece MS61, while Bob Grellman grades it MS62. We agree with Noyes and Bland.

Ex: Milton A. Holmes (Stack's, 10/1960), lot 1479; C. Douglas Smith; Herman Halpern (Stack's, 3/1988), lot 299; Anthony Terranova (3/1988); R.E. Naftzger, Jr. (Goldberg Coins, 2/2009), lot 18.

1817 N-3 Cent, MS65 Brown

The Peeking Mouse

Extensive Provenance

- 2015 1817 13 Stars MS65 Brown PCGS. N-3, R.2. Our EAC Grade MS62. Ex: Naftzger Collection. The "Peeking Mouse" die state has only a trace of the die break on top of the head that later expands to a large lump known as the Mouse die state. Moderate flowlines bring the stars and legend to the border. This fully lustrous cent has lovely steel-blue and olive-brown toning nicely intermingled with hints of faded mint color that shows on both sides. Both sides are choice, although the reverse has a small dark patch of very slight roughness at the lower left.

Ex: J.P. Hale Jenkins (Henry Chapman, 7/1922), lot 1658; Floyd T. Starr (Stack's, 12/1984), lot 1562; C. Douglas Smith; Herman Halpern (Stack's, 3/1988), lot 301; Anthony Terranova (3/1988); R.E. Naftzger, Jr. (Goldberg Coins, 2/2009), lot 21.

From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. PCGS# 36556

- 2016 1817 13 Stars Fine 15 NGC. N-4, R.3. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Ex: Mervis Collection. This early die state example has a crack through the base of the date to star 13, but extending no further. There is also no trace of the reverse crack through ATES, although it may be obscured by slight surface roughness in that area. This attractive steel and olive brown example has pleasing surfaces showing only trivial scratches and marks on the obverse.

Ex: Tom Reynolds (9/1985); John D. Wright (1/18/2006); Bob Grellman and Chris McCawley (4/3/2006); Dan Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 5/2010), lot 32.

1817 N-4 Cent, MS64 Red and Brown

The John Wright Plate Coin

- 2017 1817 13 Stars MS64 Red and Brown PCGS. N-4, R.3. Our EAC Grade MS63. Ex: Dan Holmes. This is the 1817 N-4 plate coin in John Wright's reference. The obverse has heavy cracks through the base of the date, joining the lower stars. The reverse has a delicate crack through ATES. This is an attractive middle die state specimen with considerable original mint red, about 30% on the obverse and 10% on the reverse. The balance of the surfaces are mostly steel-blue with a few old obverse spots. This is a census level example, although Noyes and Bland disagree regarding its grade and actual rank.

Ex: New Hampshire Coins (1/1979); John D. Wright (1/18/2006); Bob Grellman and Chris McCawley (4/2006); Dan Holmes (Goldberg Coin, 5/2010), lot 34.

'Swap my Horse and Dog' Provenance

- 2018 1817 13 Stars MS64 Brown PCGS. N-5, R.3. Our EAC Grade MS60. Ex: Naftzger Collection. An early die state, this piece has a delicate crack through the tops of TATES. A lovely cent with olive-brown toning, and hints of green and steel overtones. Small splashes of dark toning are noted on both sides, but mostly on the obverse. The Naftzger envelope notes this piece has a "beautiful combination of rose and light olive."

This coin was part of a famous coin trading session that took place between C. Douglas Smith and R.E. Naftzger, Jr., dubbed the "Swap my horse and dog for you" coin trade, conducted on March 7 at the 1977 EAC Convention.

A later die state with flowlines pulling the stars and legend to the border, but with most denticles still visible. Frosty mint luster remains on the olive-brown surfaces of this piece, with light high-point rub and a small planchet lamination on Liberty's neck.

1817 N-7 Cent, Fine 15

Perfect Obverse Die

Pre-Mouse State

- 2020 1817 13 Stars Fine 15 NGC. N-7, R.3. Our EAC Grade VG10. Ex: Mervis Collection. This perfect obverse die state has no evidence of the mouse that is normally seen on top of the head, and this variety is likely R.7 in this die state. Pleasing steel-brown surfaces exhibit fine roughness, especially on the reverse. A tiny rim bruise is noted over the first S in STATES. Bland rates this piece Fine 12 and second best of the early die state examples. Noyes suggests that it is fifth finest of only six early die state coins in his record.

Ex: Julian Leidman (2/1972); Del Bland; Darwin B. Palmer (8/1974); C.F. Gordon (12/1985); John D. Wright (1/18/2006); Bob Grellman and Chris Victor-McCawley (5/5/2006); later, Goldberg Coins (1/2012), lot 374.

2021 1817 13 Stars MS62 Brown PCGS. N-8, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Dan Holmes. This late die state example has a full mouse on top of the head, and this is the usual state for the variety. The surfaces are lustrous olive-brown, intermingled with steel and tan. A minor patch of roughness is evident in the left obverse field. Grellman calls this piece AU58 and Noyes says AU55. 2022 1817 13 Stars MS62 Brown NGC. N-9, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Mervis Collection. A middle die state with no evidence of the mouse break on the obverse, but with a die crack through the tops of ES OF AMERICA. Deep reddish steel-brown with nearly full luster and a trace of rub on the high points. A small mark on the cheek and a few other trivial marks are evident. Ex: Goldberg Coins (5/2008), lot 3689 where it was misattributed as 1817 N-11. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 2252, PCGS# 1594

2023 1817 13 Stars MS63 Brown NGC. N-9, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Mervis Collection. A middle die state without the mouse break on top of the head, and with the reverse cracked through ES OF AMERICA. Both sides have nearly full cartwheel luster with olive-brown and steel surfaces, showing splashes of light copper color on the reverse. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. 2024 1817 13 Stars MS63 Brown NGC. N-10, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU58. Ex: Mervis Collection. A late die state with a small rim break outside of star 3, and with the denticles no longer visible, except on the reverse from 5 to 10 o'clock. Only a trace of wear is evident on the olive and reddish-brown surfaces. Trivial marks include a couple small dents on Liberty's jaw. 1817 N-12 Cent, MS63 Brown John Wright Plate Coin

2025 1817 13 Stars MS63 Brown PCGS. N-12, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU58. Ex: Dan Holmes. The John Wright 1817 N-12 plate coin. This middle die state piece has heavy cracks around much of the obverse, with a small die break between the tops of the 1 and 7 that appears to extend the crossbar of the 7 to the top of the 1. Grellman and Bland grade this piece MS60, and Bland considers it tied for finest known. Noyes assigns an AU50 grade and suggests it is fifth finest. While clearly not Mint State, this piece is far finer than Noyes suggests. A lovely cent with distinctive deep steel-blue toning on golden-tan surfaces. Ex: Jerry Harp (4/1981); John D. Wright (1/18/2006); Bob Grellman and Chris Victor-McCawley (4/3/2006); Dan Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 5/2010), lot 54. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. PCGS# 36583

2026 1817 13 Stars MS65 Brown NGC. N-13, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS62. Ex: Mervis Collection. A crisp strike from perfect dies, this early die state piece has exceptional eye appeal with full cartwheel luster. Both sides have deep steel-brown toning with substantial faded mint red on the reverse. Ex: *Charles Williams (A. Kosoff, 11/1950), lot 273; later, Jerry Bobbe; C. 1817 N-14 Cent, MS64 Red and Brown

2027 1817 13 Stars MS64 Red and Brown PCGS. CAC. N-14, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS63. Flowlines and peripheral weakness blur the die crack through stars 1, 2, and 3 on the obverse of this pleasing cent. Original mint red is visible on both sides, especially on the reverse, with a few spots of dark patina, especially on either side of CENT. Trivial, grade-consistent marks are noted on the obverse and reverse. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 2252, PCGS# 1595

1817 N-15 Cent, XF45 Struck 30% Off Center

2028 1817 13 Stars — 30% Off Center — XF45 NGC. N-15, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF30. Ex: Mervis Collection. While NGC calls this piece 30% off center, Bob Grellman said 40% off center at 1:30 in the Holmes catalog, and we agree with his estimate. This piece has smooth mahogany surfaces with trivial marks, mostly confined to the unstruck portion and substantially left over from the planchet before this piece was misstruck. A spectacular mint error. Ex: Del Bland; Dr. Robert J. Shalowitz; Natalie Halpern (7/11/1984); Jim Corrado; Goldberg Coins (2/2007), lot 420; Dan Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 9/2010), lot 447. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. 2029 1817 13 Stars MS61 Brown NGC. N-15, R.4. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Mervis Collection. The obverse has a delicate crack through the outer points of stars 1, 2, and 3, with strong details. Some denticles are weakened by flowlines. Pleasing chocolate-brown surfaces and a few spots of lighter tan, with considerable luster and minimal handling marks. This splendid cent is a condition census example. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 2252, PCGS# 1594

1817 N-16 Brockage Cent, VF20
Amazing 30-Star Cent

- 2030 1817 15 Stars VF20 NGC. N-16, R.1. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Ex: Mervis Collection. Full brockage coins are this cataloger's favorite error type, and here is an incredible example, a full mirror brockage of the obverse of 1817 N-16, the famous 15 Star cent. Therefore, this example is a 30 Star cent and each of those stars is bold on both images. A few small rim bumps, some minor scratches, and a trivial verdigris spot are evident, but none are of any consequence. Ex: Richard Picker (Coin Galleries, 5/1989), lot 1083 (via Anthony Terranova); Dan Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 9/2010), lot 448. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. Famous 15 Stars Obverse

- 2031 1817 15 Stars AU58 NGC. N-16, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Mervis Collection. This pleasing late die state piece has a rim break over AM of AMERICA. Frosty surfaces exhibit mahogany and chestnut-brown with darker steel toning on the high points. A few marks on the chin and others near the C in CENT are the only blemishes. Grellman assigned a conservative XF45+ grade in the Holmes sale. Ex: Jack Robinson and Chris Victor-McCawley (RVM, 4/16/1988); Dan Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 5/2010), lot 66. 1818 N-1 Cent, MS64 Brown

- 2033 1818 MS64 Brown PCGS. N-1, R.2. Our EAC Grade MS60. Housed in an old green-label PCGS holder. Rim crumbling is evident outside stars 3 and 4. This example has dark chocolate-brown and bluish-steel toning on both sides with a few freckles of orange-tan on each side. An attractive middle-date cent that likely ranks among the top half dozen survivors. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 2253, PCGS# 1600

1818 N-3 Cent, VF Details
Struck 30% Off Center

- 2034 1818 — Struck 30% Off Center — Whizzed — NGC Details. VF. N-3, R.3. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Ex: Mervis Collection. Struck 30% off center to 12:30, and with the reverse rotated almost 90 degrees counterclockwise. Cleaned and retoned to a pleasing reddish steel-brown with faint blue overtones. Glossy but slightly rough surfaces, although not whizzed as described by NGC. A few minor rim bruises are evident on the unstruck portion, with myriad planchet marks also on the unstruck portion. An attractive large cent error. Ex: Michael Arconti (Superior, 7/2003), lot 87; Dan Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 9/2010), lot 450. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection.

- 2035 1818 AU58 NGC. N-3, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF45. Ex: Mervis Collection. Both sides of this piece have minor flowlines. Attractive mahogany and olive-brown surfaces are smooth with a small nick close to the hair in the right obverse field. The reverse is rotated about 30 degrees counterclockwise. This example ranks among the top dozen known for the N-3 die pair. Purchased at the 2008 ANA Convention. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 2253, PCGS# 1600

Tied for Finest Known

2036 1818 AU55 NGC. N-4, R.4. Our EAC Grade XF45. Ex: Mervis Collection. Extensive sinking and die cracks appear on the obverse of this late die state specimen. A heavy crack bisects star 3, and a prominent die chip is located between stars 6 and 7. The O in ONE is nearly absent as a result of the obverse die sinking. Prominent spalling appears in the sunken areas of the obverse, and the combination of die defects explains the rarity of this die marriage.

Previously certified AU58 NGC when it was offered as part of our sale of the Jules Reiver Collection. This is certainly one of the stars of the Mervis middle date large cent collection. The variety is considered just Rarity-4 today, but it was not long ago that a Rarity-5 rating was assigned to the 1818 N-4. This example from the Adam Mervis Collection, and previously part of the Jules Reiver and Dan Holmes collections, is tied with the Naftzger specimen (Goldberg Coins, 2/2009, lot 60) for finest known honors. The condition census falls dramatically with four VF examples and four other Fine grade coins. The remaining population grades less than Fine 12.

This die marriage was first recorded by Frank Andrews in 1881, but it was not until the 1940s that a second had been found. In 1991, when John Wright had completed the manuscript for his middle date reference, he was aware of about 80 coins, and today there are possibly 100 in existence.

This is an outstanding example with deep olive and chocolate-brown color, blended with considerable lighter tan, probably faded from original red. It is highly unusual to find such an attractive specimen of this variety, as most are dark and on rough planchets. A prize cent.

- 2037 1818 MS62 Brown NGC. N-5, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF45. Ex: Mervis Collection. A crack begins at a denticle left of the date and joins the first three stars. Another crack joins stars 10,11, and 12. Graded XF40 in the Holmes sale, but we feel that it should be called XF45. Possibly cleaned and retoned, but attractively toned in golden-brown, olive, and steel, with a faint hairline inside the wreath above ONE.

- 2038 1818 VF25 NGC. N-6, R.1. Our EAC Grade Fine 15. Ex: Mervis Collection. Slight strike doubling is noted on peripheral details on the obverse of this moderately circulated cent. Error collectors should take a careful look at this piece. Both sides are golden and steel-brown with splashes of tan, and a few darker toning spots. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 2253, PCGS# 1600

- 2039 1818 MS64 Brown NGC. N-6, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Mervis Collection. A bold double profile is evident on the lower bust line, chin, and nose. This full Mint State specimen has been lightly cleaned and retoned with attractive olive, sea-green, and tan colors on both sides. A dark toning spot is located near the F in OF. The surfaces are smooth with a tiny rim nick affecting a single dentil over star 6. The reverse die crack on this late die state piece is clear. Ex: Willard C. Blaisdell (9/1976); R.E. - 2040 1818 MS63 Brown NGC. N-7, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU58. This is an early die state with crisp border dentilation and a faint die crack joining stars 6 and 7. John Wright mentions an untraced "Proof" that was once owned by Henry Hines, and we can't help but speculate that this example is the very same Hines coin. It is a lovely cent with rich chocolate brown and lighter tan surfaces that retain nearly full luster and slightly reflective fields. This pleasing piece ranks among the top two dozen examples of 1818 N-7. Ex: U.S. Coin Company (1/1915); Henry C. Hines; Willard C. Blaisdell; Ray Chatham; Dr. Robert Shalowitz (4/1983); Wes Rasmussen (Heritage (1/2005), lot 3411. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 2253, PCGS# 1600

- 2041 1818 MS63 Brown PCGS. N-8, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Naftzger Collection. This early die state specimen has numerous peripheral die cracks on the obverse, but no evidence of the late die state rim crumbling. The glossy chocolate-brown surfaces have traces of faded mint red, especially on the obverse. Slight evidence of lacquer appears near the date. Noyes grades this piece AU55 and fifth finest. We agree with his grade. Bland says MS60 and Grellman grades this piece AU58. Ex: Henry C. Hines; Dr. William H. Sheldon (via trade); C. Douglas Smith (5/1976); R.E. 1818 N-9 Cent, MS64 Brown The Newcomb Plate Coin

- 2042 1818 MS64 Brown PCGS. N-9, R.3. Our EAC Grade MS60. Ex: Dan Holmes. This middle die state cent has delicate radial flowlines on both sides, and especially on the obverse. The recutting on star 8 is still faintly visible in the flowlines. The border denticles are mostly complete. Minor strike doubling is evident at the central obverse. Lustrous steel-blue surfaces retain considerable underlying mint red luster on this lovely cent. A few minor contact marks are inconsequential. This example grades MS60 by Noyes, Bland, and Grellman, and we concur. It ranks as third or fourth finest known depending on whose list is consulted. Ex: Howard R. Newcomb (J.C. Morgenthau, 5/1945), lot 521; Floyd T. Starr (Stack's, 6/1984), lot 109; Wes Rasmussen (Heritage, 1/2005), lot 3415; Dan Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 5/2010), lot 100. - 2043 1818 MS61 Brown NGC. N-10, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Mervis Collection. The usual die state with a series of cracks joining the date and all stars, and with radial flowlines pulling the stars to the border. Most of the obverse border denticles are still visible. The reverse border is never seen with denticles. Considerable cartwheel luster is visible with mahogany and steel-blue surfaces showing a diagonal mark in the left obverse field and other marks on Liberty's cheek. 1818 N-10 Cent, MS64 Red and Brown Randall Hoard Variety

- 2045 1818 MS64 Red and Brown PCGS. N-10, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS63. The usual die state with a series of cracks joining the stars and date, and with fine radial flowlines on the obverse. Most border details are still present on the obverse, with none on the reverse. A lustrous brick-red Randall Hoard near-Gem with slight mellowing and minor carbon near the centers. A few stars have soft centers, but the major types are bold. Ex: Central States Signature Sale (Heritage, 5/2007), lot 170; Stack's (11/2007), lot 310. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. - 2047 1819/8 Large Date MS61 Brown NGC. N-1, R.1. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Mervis Collection. The late die state shows rim crumbling at star 4, and at stars 6 through 11. Stars 1 and 2, and the letters ED in UNITED are weak due to thinning of the planchet. The sharpness is slightly finer but this piece has been cleaned and nicely retoned with light olive surfaces showing splashes of golden-tan on the reverse. The reverse is rotated about 30 degrees clockwise. The date is weak but the overdate is still clear. Ex: 1985 EAC Sale (4/1985), lot 373; Dan Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 5/2010), lot 105. Double Struck

- 2048 1819/8 Large Date — Double Struck — MS63 Brown NGC. N-2, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Mervis Collection. An intermediate die state although the exact state is difficult to determine due to the double strike. The lower right obverse and a raised crescent from the double strike, and nearly all reverse letters and design motifs show obvious doubling. Both sides show deep olive and steel-brown toning with a splash of mahogany inside the wreath. The surfaces are glossy with considerable cartwheel luster. Ex: Stack's (1/2012), lot 8100. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 2255, PCGS# 1612

- 2049 1819/8 Large Date MS64 Brown NGC. N-2, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU58. Ex: Mervis Collection. An early die state, the mounding at the 9 is less advanced than on most examples. Mostly dark chocolate-brown with areas of light tan on both sides. Most observers would grade this piece MS60, but the faintest trace of rub is evident on the high points. Full cartwheel luster is present. Ex: Tom Reynolds. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 2255, PCGS# 1603

- 2050 1819 Small Date MS61 Brown NGC. N-3, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF45. Ex: Mervis Collection. The usual die state with a delicate crack from the bust to star 1, and with flowlines extending the stars nearly to the border. Traces of cartwheel luster are visible on the chocolate-brown surfaces with a few splashes of tan on the obverse. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 2254, PCGS# 1606

Low Condition Census

- 2051 1819 Small Date AU53 NGC. N-4, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Mervis Collection. Peripheral weakness results from radial flowlining on this late die state cent. Steel-brown surfaces have hints of mahogany on the obverse. A few trivial handling marks are noted, with microscopic surface roughness. The 1819 N-4 cent is a scarce variety with a low condition census, and this piece likely ranks as the fifth or sixth finest known. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 2254, PCGS# 1606

1819 N-5 Cent, MS62 Brown
Condition Census Specimen

- 2052 1819 Small Date MS62 Brown PCGS. N-5, High R.3. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Dan Holmes. This lustrous copper has light brown color with some darker olive toning on the highpoints of the obverse. The reverse is frosty light tan with a small patch of reddish patina. A couple tiny scrapes are visible in front of Liberty's face; the surfaces are otherwise exceptional. Del Bland grades this piece AU55 and second finest known, and Bill Noyes says XF45 and fifth finest known. Our grade of AU50 splits the difference between Bland and Noyes. Ex: New Netherlands (12/1957), lot 1387; Willard C. Blaisdell (9/1976); R.E. - 2053 1819 Small Date MS64 Brown PCGS. N-6, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS60. Ex: Dan Holmes. This late die state specimen has faded denticles from radial flowlines. This pleasing example has intermingled blue-steel, olive, and cinnamon toning with splashes of faded mint red. Darker toning with microscopic roughness appears in places on the reverse, especially below the ribbon. Ex: James G. Macallister (9/1931); Frank Hussey; New Netherlands Coin Co. 2054 1819 Small Date — Burnished — NGC Details. AU. N-7, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF30. Ex: Mervis Collection. Along with some rust pits discussed below, this reverse die is characterized by unusually large berries in the wreath. The Newcomb-7 variety of 1819 is the scarcest variety of the year with few high grade specimens known. Attractive olive and steel-brown with a few splashes of lighter chestnut color and a patch of maroon patina on the reverse. The surfaces have a few trivial abrasions and light scratches. The reverse has some raised rust pits transferred from the coinage die. The NGC description of “Burnished” seems a little harsh, in our opinion as this is an attractive cent.

2055 1819 Small Date MS62 Brown NGC. N-8, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS60. Ex: Mervis Collection. This early die state cent has full border denticles with a prominent inner circle at the dentil tips on the obverse. The obverse has delicate bluish-olive toning with considerable surviving mint red color. The reverse also retains faded mint red with speckled olive toning and a splash of darker toning at 9 o’clock. This example easily ranks among the 10 finest 1819 N-8 cents.

1819 N-9 Cent, MS63 Brown

2056 1819 Small Date MS63 Brown PCGS. N-9, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU58. N-9, R.1. Only traces of the border denticles remain on this late die state cent. A pleasing, high-end example of this die pairing, distinguished by the wide date and doubling on the R in AMERICA. Excellent overall detail, though the rims show excessive crumbling. Primarily mahogany and mocha with elements of cinnamon. Quite a number of Mint State pieces survive, suggesting that this variety might have been a minor part of the Randall Hoard.

1819 N-10 Cent, MS64 Brown

2057 1819 Small Date MS64 Brown NGC. N-10, R.4. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Mervis Collection. A late die state with the obverse cracked and flowlined, showing only partial denticles. The reverse die is worn with the N in ONE and C in CENT weak at their bottoms. Steel-brown and olive toning appear on both sides with traces of cartwheel luster still evident. Although 1819 N-10 is scarce, it has a rather high condition census. Bill Noyes ranks this piece as eighth finest known.

Borderline Red and Brown
Nearly Condition Census

- 2060 1820/19 MS64 Brown PCGS. N-3, R.2. Our EAC Grade MS62. Radial flowlines extend in from the border on both sides of this splendid specimen. Intermingled olive and steel toning hosts considerable faded red mint color on both sides. A few scattered marks appear on the lustrous surfaces. The reverse has a carbon spot between the C and E of CENT. This cent borders on the Red and Brown designation. Our EAC grade places this piece solidly in the top 10 for the variety.

Wonderful Provenance

- 2062 1820 Small Date MS62 Brown PCGS. N-5, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Dan Holmes. An early die state, this piece shows full border details on both sides with no evidence of flowlines on the smooth and satiny surfaces. Lovely golden-tan patina hosts delicate steel-blue overtones. A few scattered marks are inconsequential. Bill Noyes, Del Bland, and Bob Grellman all agree with our grade of AU55. Bland says third finest known and Noyes says fourth finest. Ex: J.C. The Finest Known N-10

- 2066 1820 Large Date MS64 Brown PCGS. N-10, Low R.2. Our EAC Grade MS63. Ex: Naftzger Collection. All of the intricate die details are present on this early die state specimen, although the reverse center dot is faded. This splendid cent has chocolate-brown color with lustrous surfaces, and attractive blue-steel overtones. Noticeable mint red remains. A tiny mark is noted near the eye and a few others in the upper hair details.

This is one of the late Doug Smith's story coins, per his accompanying envelope:

"Subdued yet fiery tones of glowing red caress the eyes of the beholder of this fantastic super-gem. Lot 871, GCCC-Paramount sale of 11/9/1973, stolen by TIDNB [Del N. Bland] @ $150. Thence to The Great Shal [Dr. Robert J. Shalowitz] at a mere 500% markup, who used the coin to extract The Mad Monarch's [Jerry A. Bobbe] then FK [Finest Known] 1837 N-12 of 'Hidden E' fame."

The other three mentioned in his story remain active in today's early copper community.

Third Finest Known

- 2071 1820 Large Date MS62 Brown NGC. N-14, Low R.5. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Mervis Collection. The usual die state exhibits radial flowlines on both sides that weaken the border details. A rare variety with the example offered here among the finer coins known. In fact, this cent is tied for third finest in the Condition Census. Newcomb recorded this variety as "R-6" or "the highest degree of rarity" based on his scale. In Newcomb's work, Rarity-6 was the top of the line. Deep steel brown surfaces are accented by wisps of light tan color, faded from original red mint luster. A couple tiny edge nicks and a few other minor abrasions are noted, but this coin is still a highly attractive and pleasing example. The surfaces are unusually smooth for the variety. Bland rates this piece XF40 and third finest known, and Noyes says VF35 and fourth finest. Ex: George Patterson; Robinson S. PROOF LARGE CENTS

1821 N-1 Cent, PR60 Brown
From the Peter Mougey Collection

2075 1821 PR60 Brown PCGS. N-1, R.6 as a Proof. Our EAC Grade PR55. Housed in a green-label PCGS holder. Struck from new, crisp dies with no evidence of rim crumbling seen on most or all business strikes. All aspects of the strike are bold, with slight doubling noted on the stars and on the reverse letters. Both sides have reflective fields, although they are not deeply mirrored as expected on later era proofs. The surfaces host myriad marks, consistent with the grade, and exhibit intermingled tan, olive-brown, and steel-blue, with considerable orange mint color on the reverse. PCGS has certified nine proof 1821 cents (11/13) over the last 27 years, and that population likely includes resubmissions.

Thomas Elder described this piece as: "Iridescent, steel colored proof, with some redness. Extremely rare in such preservation."

Once Called a Proof

2077 1821 MS63 Brown NGC. N-2, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS60. Ex: Mervis Collection. A late die state, undescribed in United States Large Cents 1816-1845 by William C. Noyes, this piece has the obverse die lapped to eliminate the usual die line from the bust point to the border. It is likely that resurfacing of the dies created the mirrored finish leading early collectors to describe this piece as a proof.

The lovely sea-green surfaces are exceptional, and only the bluish-steel and tan coloration on Liberty's cheek prevents a higher grade. Grellman wrote that the stain is "a big distraction" but we prefer to think that it adds character to this lovely and important cent.

1822 N-14 Cent Rarity, VG Details
A Middle Date Variety Key

2088 1822 — Damaged, Corrosion — NGC Details. VG. N-14, R.7. Our EAC Grade AG3. One of three stoppers (along with 1825 N-5 and 1834 N-7) in a complete variety collection of middle date large cents. N-14 is identified by the position of the leaf tip below the left base of the F in OF, entirely left of the upright. This example has peripheral areas of lavender verdigris and distributed small pits. A scratch affects ONE and accounts for the “Damaged” designation. Just nine examples of 1822 N-14 are known today. Wes Rasmussen is credited with discovery of the variety. He purchased the first example unattributed at the 1983 FUN convention, and it remains the finest known example with a grade of Fine 12. The coin traded hands a few times until Rasmussen reacquired it in 1996, and it recently appeared in our January 2005 sale of his collection. The other known examples all grade from AG to VG.

The second obverse crack has yet to form, and there is no trace of the bisecting reverse crack of later die states.

The 1823 Restrikes were produced in copper and silver, and the earliest appearances were shortly after the Civil War. The dies still exist today, and are held by the American Numismatic Association museum. Much can be learned from the study of those dies.

1824/2 N-1 Cent, XF45

- 2093 1824/2 XF45 NGC. N-1, R.1. Our EAC Grade VF25. Ex: Mervis Collection. Full but narrow border dentilation is evident on this example, with a prominent die crack through the base of the legend. This piece has been cleaned and retoned with deep steel-blue surfaces and reddish-brown toning on the high points. An attractive example despite its preservation.

- 2094 1824 — Struck 5% Off Center — Environmental Damage — NGC Details. VF, N-2, R.2. Our EAC Grade Good 5. Ex: Mervis Collection. This piece is struck about 5% off center at 6 o'clock with most of the date on the flan. The surfaces are green and ebony with heavy corrosion on both sides.

1824 N-2 Cent, MS65 Brown
A Census Level Specimen

- 2095 1824 MS65 Brown NGC. N-2, R.2. Our EAC Grade MS63. Ex: Mervis Collection. Both sides of this late die state specimen have faded border denticles with die spalling on Liberty's neck, below the ear. Light radial flowlines on the reverse draw the letters to the border, especially at OF AMERICA. This lovely example has exceptional cartwheel luster with chocolate and olive-brown surfaces that show hints of faded mint red. This exceptional piece easily ranks in the N-2 census with only five pieces listed in the Noyes census better than MS60.

- 2096 1824 AU55 NGC. N-3, R.2. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Mervis Collection. This middle die state piece has obverse and reverse flowlines, with a weakened inner circle on the obverse and faded denticles on both sides. The sharpness is slightly finer than our EAC grade, with just a few too many surface marks to carry the higher grade. Both sides combine dark chocolate with chestnut-brown. Splashes of maroon patina appear on the reverse. This example is equal to the 17th finest in the census.

1824 N-4 Cent, MS62 Brown
Ex: Jules Reiver Collection

- 2097 1824 MS62 Brown NGC. N-4, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU55. Although not perfectly centered, both sides have full border dentils. The obverse is lightly cracked as described for later states, but also exhibits traces of the inner circle along the left obverse border, a hallmark of earlier die states. Sharply struck with lovely olive and steel-brown color, enhanced by splashes of lighter tan. Outstanding surfaces with very few abrasions of any sort, and only remnants of verdigris around certain devices.

1825 N-1 Cent, AU Details

- 2098 1825 — Reverse Tooled — NGC Details. AU. N-1, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF30. Ex: Mervis Collection. This intermediate die state piece has a crack from the border at star 1 through the base of the date to the border at star 13. The sharpness of this dark olive-brown example is at least XF, but reverse tooling affects the field and border over RICA. This piece still ranks among the top two dozen of this scarce variety.

1825 N-2 Cent, AU55

- 2099 1825 AU55 NGC. N-2, R.2. Our EAC Grade XF45. Ex: Mervis Collection. This middle die state cent has a delicate die crack from the border to the right point of star 7 and down to the hair. Smooth olive-brown surfaces host a few small splashes of maroon and steel-brown. Minor scrapes are noted below the ribbon bow on the reverse, and they are blended with the surrounding surface.

- 2100 1825 — Improperly Cleaned — NGC Details. AU. N-3, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Mervis Collection. There is no evidence of an obverse die crack on this early state specimen. The sharpness is AU50 but the surfaces are cleaned and retoned, with intermingled coppery-orange and greenish-brown patina.

1825 N-4 Cent, MS62 Brown
A Census Level Specimen

- 2101 1825 MS62 Brown NGC. N-4, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Mervis Collection. The obverse is cracked from the 1 to the six stars on the left. The reverse is cracked from the final A to the stem and ribbon. A trace of rub and a small corrosion spot over star 11 prevent a full Mint State grade. The obverse is attractive tan and chocolate-brown, and the reverse is chocolate and steel-brown. Noyes lists three AU55 examples followed by several AU50 coins as the best known to him.

Recently Rediscovered Variety
Four Known

- 2102 1825 — Obverse Scratched — NGC Details. Good Details. N-5, R.8. Our EAC Grade AG3. Ex: Mervis Collection. The 1825 N-5 cent was listed in the Andrews reference but delisted in Newcomb as none were known to exist. That was the status for more than 65 years until December 2011, when EAC member Tom Deck found a low grade example. This variety combines the obverse of Newcomb-4 and the reverse of Newcomb-10. A further discussion is presented in United States Large Cents 1816-1845, by William C. Noyes.
 The Mervis Collection offers the second discovered example, and two others have been found since then. Lightly cleaned, the obverse has reddish-brown color with a faint diagonal scratch. The reverse is dark brown with trivial marks expected for the grade. The finest of the four known examples grades Fine 12 with VF20 detail, and the other three are all similar, grading AG3 to G4. One of the Good 4 pieces realized $12,650 in the September 2013 Goldberg sale.

1825 N-7 Cent, XF45

- 2103 1825 XF45 NGC. N-7, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Mervis Collection. Very slightly off center to 9 o'clock as usual, making the die state determination difficult, although the late state die crack from star 4 is absent on this example. Condition Census

- 2104 1825 MS64 Brown NGC. N-10, R.3. Our EAC Grade MS62. This late die state specimen has a rim break joining star 7. A lustrous chocolate-brown to medium brown Matron Head example. Crisply struck save for the left-side stars. Slightly bright near star 5, and a few unimportant marks are noted above the E in CENT. Noyes lists just three Mint State examples in his census. Ex: Heritage (9/2007), lot 107. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 225F, PCGS# 1642

Late Die State

- 2105 1826 MS61 Brown NGC. N-1, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Mervis Collection. This late die state example has a small rim break over the right side of star 6, extending nearly to star 7. A similar rim break occurs on N-5, but on that obverse it is centered over star 6. Nearly full cartwheel luster appears on this attractive cent. The obverse combines chocolate-brown and blue steel, and the reverse is steel and sea-green. A lovely cent with only a trace of high-point wear. Ex: Q. David Bowers Collection. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 225G, PCGS# 1645

- 2106 1826 — Improperly Cleaned — NGC Details. Unc. N-4, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Mervis Collection. This middle die state example has complete but faded border details. Cleaned and nicely retone to golden tan and pale blue with hints of olive on the reverse. Purchased at the 2010 Central States Convention. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection.

1826 N-5 Cent, VG10
Flipover Double Struck

- 2107 1826 — Flipover Double Struck in Collar — VG10 PCGS. N-5, R.2. Our EAC Grade Good 4. The obverse has a rim break over star 6. Although well-worn, this cent displays strong evidence of a spectacular mint error. Liberty's outline and RT from her coronet are visible within the wreath. The left side of the obverse has incused stars from the initial strike, which presumably was a brockage. The curious depressions on Liberty's profile are also mint-made from the double strike. The date has faint pinscratches, and the obverse field has a few trivial contact marks. Dark purple-brown patina. Ex: Long Beach Signature Sale (Heritage, 2/2003), lot 9094. 1826 N-5 Cent, MS63 Brown
Late Die State

- 2109 1826 MS63 Brown PCGS. N-5, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU58. A late die state with a rim break over star 6 and extended rim crumbling down to star 3. Semi-glossy surfaces are light tan in color, and show just a few light flecks on each side. Most of the design elements are well impressed, though there is minor softness in the star centers of the two lowest stars. The motifs are nicely centered.

The John Wright Plate Coin

- 2110 1826 MS64 Brown NGC. N-7, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Mervis Collection. This is the John Wright Plate Coin for 1826 N-7. A late die state with flowlines on both sides, extending the stars and legend to the faded border details. Light clash marks are noted inside the wreath. This gorgeous cent has lustrous chocolate-brown surfaces with delicate bluish overtones. A trace of rub on the high points prevents a Mint State EAC grade.

Bold Overdate

- 2112 1826/5 MS61 Brown NGC. N-8, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Mervis Collection. The top of the 5 is boldly visible inside the upper loop of the 6. Slight die crumbling is noted in the angles of the N in CENT on this middle die state piece. Considerable luster remains on both sides. The obverse is partially olive-brown and mostly steel. The reverse is mostly light steel with traces of pale blue. A small curved mark is hidden in the hair details below BE of LIBERTY.

1826 N-9 Cent, AU55
Double Struck

- 2113 1826 — Double Struck — AU55 NGC. N-9, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Mervis Collection. A spectacular mint error, double struck and struck on a partial brockage. Details from the partial brockage are visible on the upper half of the obverse, with incuse stars across the head below LIBERTY, and incuse hair details near the top border. Details of the flip-over double strike are visible at the bottom of the reverse. Both sides exhibit lovely olive-brown and tan surfaces.

- 2115 1827 — Reverse Scratched — NGC Details. AU. N-1, R.2. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Mervis Collection. This is the late die state of the variety with a narrow rim break confined to the dentils over stars 5 and 6. Lovely tan and chocolate-brown color on both sides is accented by generous portions of deeply faded mint red. The reverse has several fine scratches within the wreath, but the die state trumps the scratches.

- 2119 1827 — Improperly Cleaned — NGC Details. Unc. N-9, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF45. Ex: Mervis Collection. The usual late die state with a series of four or possibly five die cracks that connect the date and all stars. The lower reverse border shows crumbling but centering minimizes that feature. A difficult coin to grade, as it gives the impression of considerable orange luster. However, the coin has been cleaned with splashes of olive-brown toning. The details approach Mint State but the coppery-orange color is not original, having a pinkish appearance. Despite those shortcomings, this is still a positive and appealing N-9 cent.

This pleasing steel-brown cent has considerable cartwheel luster with lighter tan that is faded from mint red. A tiny corrosion spot is visible beneath the 82. A lovely cent that falls at the low end of the condition census. Noyes lists just four Mint State pieces. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 225J, PCGS# 1654

- 2127 1828 Large Narrow Date — Environmental Damage — NGC Details. AU. N-4, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF25. Ex: Mervis Collection. The surface quality prevents a die state determination, although all known 1828 N-4 cents are struck from worn dies. This piece has excellent detail, and in that regard would qualify as the second finest known. However, the surfaces are covered with fine granularity. This piece is still at or near the condition census level, with olive and steel-brown surfaces that present better than expected eye appeal. Large cent collector Henry C. Hines cherry-picked this cent from Henry Chapman's "junk pile" in 1934. Noyes grades this piece VF20 and tied for fifth finest known. Ex: Henry Chapman (11/1934); Henry C. Hines, Willard C. - 2131 1828 Large Narrow Date MS64 Brown PCGS. N-11, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU55. A pleasing piece from a blundered reverse die that is generally unknown except among cent specialists. The top of an errant O is visible between the final S and the O, while the bottom of an extra S is sometimes seen left of the first S, although it is not visible on this later die state piece. Several of the legend letters are also clearly recut. Attractive olive and steel surfaces with hints of mint red on the reverse. Both sides are sharply defined with satiny luster. PROOF LARGE CENTS

1829 N-6 Cent, PR64 Brown Bronzed Finish

2136 1829 Bronzed, Large Letters PR64 Brown PCGS. N-6, R.6 as a Proof. Our EAC Grade PR61. The Philadelphia Mint during the 19th century issued many bronzed medals, made by treating copper planchets with bronzing powder prior to the strike. In fact, this was the usual surface for medals sold to collectors during that century. However, bronzed cents are uncommon, although the Eliasberg 1829 N-6 proof was also bronzed. Some N-6 proofs have a regular finish; the Mervis Collection contains such a specimen as the very next lot. N-6 was also struck in business format and is plentiful in worn grades.

N-6 is identified by a repunched base on the L in LIBERTY. The E and T in LIBERTY are also repunched. The reverse is less distinctive but the N in CENT is repunched near its right base. Both dies were only used to strike N-6.

The present mahogany-brown near-Gem is well struck except on the upper four stars. This localized softness is caused by an axially misaligned hammer die. Areas of minor gray toning are note but of little consequence. No post-strike contact is evident. A few slender obverse flan streaks are apricot-gold and indicate where the planchet was incorrectly treated with bronzing powder. A lintmark above the O in ONE provides an identifier. A second and trivial lintmark is west of the C in CENT.

PCGS estimates only ten 1829 proofs are known. As of (12/13), PCGS has certified 5: 2 in 64 Brown, 2 in 65 Brown, and 1 in 65 Red and Brown. NGC has certified seven specimens, 6 as Bronzed and a single 64 Brown with a normal finish.

Normal Finish, Large Letters

2137 1829 Large Letters PR64 Red and Brown PCGS. N-6, R.6 as a Proof. Our EAC Grade PR63. An experimental year for proof large cents. Some N-6 proofs have a bronzed finish, such as seen on the prior lot, and others have a normal finish. This piece ranks about fourth or fifth on the Census listing of proof large cents. It has a normal finish. Mint red fills the legends and outlines the stars. The high points and open fields are medium brown with glimpses of golden-brown. The fields are virtually unabraded though we note a small spot above the T in CENT. The cheek displays a few minuscule strike-throughs, as made. Satin cartwheel luster is evident though the surfaces also exhibit moderate reflectivity.

The strike is sharp and there is no indication of axial misalignment of the dies, though they are rotated slightly clockwise. The prior lot, a bronzed proof, is struck from axially misaligned dies and is rotated counter-clockwise approximately 45 degrees. The obvious conclusion is that the bronzed proofs and regular proofs were separate deliveries struck at different times. There appears to be die rust near the second S in STATES that is absent on the preceding N-6 lot. This suggests that the bronzed proofs are originals and the regular finish proofs are restrikes. Population: 2 in 64 Red and Brown, none finer (12/13).

1829 N-7 Cent, MS62 Brown
Noyes Plate Coin
High Condition Census

- 2138 1829 Large Letters MS62 Brown NGC. N-7, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU55. Tied for the second finest known 1829 N-7 cent. The top four examples in the Noyes census are all noted as Naftzger coins, and the other three appeared in the 2009 sale of his middle date cents. However, this example was not part of that sale.

The upper Noyes plate coin for N-7 in his 1991 reference, and also photographed in his 2012 reference as the representative for the N-7 die state combination of obverse A and reverse C. The "Four Spokes" die state with four radial die cracks on the reverse. An additional crack wanders from a leaf tip above the ribbon. The obverse shows repunching on several letters in LIBERTY but unlike N-6, the 1 in the date is small. This cent is remarkably free from contact or carbon. The chocolate-brown surfaces appear flawless aside from an inconspicuous mahogany-brown spot at the left end of the bar beneath CENT. The strike is generally soft except on the dentils and the reverse peripheral legend.

- 2139 1829 Medium Letters AU58 PCGS. N-9, R.4. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Naftzger Collection. The middle die state with cracks from the portrait to stars 4 and 12 but no crack through the first three stars. Toned medium to deep brown with a typical strike and a hint of olive-brown friction on the cheek. A loupe reveals only trivial contact on the obverse field, a subtle golden-brown spot near star 6, and an unobtrusive mahogany-red spot below star 8. Noyes grades this piece XF40 with the sharpness of AU55, and tied with one other coin for the third spot in his census. We agree with Grellman's grade of AU50 in the Naftzger catalog, and feel that it may rank even higher in the condition census.

- 2140 1830 Large Letters MS62 Brown NGC. N-1, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU50. The 8 in the date is repunched. The E in LIBERTY is entered over a smaller E. An early die state example without obverse cracks. This walnut-brown cent has satin luster and a mark-free reverse. The obverse has a couple of small ticks and a minor spot near star 8.

- 2141 1830 Large Letters MS61 Brown NGC. N-2, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU50. The later die state with peripheral flowlines toward the rim. The stars and date are connected in an irregular circle by die cracks. The walnut-brown surfaces are exceptionally smooth and teem with satin luster. Hints of lighter brown toning are confined to design crevices. A brief vertical pinscratch over the lowest curl identifies the present cent. Bluntly struck and higher grade than the existing detail suggests.

Strongly off center toward 1 o'clock with the upper stars and the wreath stem off the flan. The date and all of the portrait is present. Walnut-brown overall, though the fields display areas of dark and moderate granularity. The portrait has a pair of straight scratches made by a curious 19th century finder.

- 2143 1830 Large Letters MS65 Brown NGC. N-4, R.2. Our EAC Grade MS60. A relatively early die state with cracks across both borders but no evidence of a retained cud beneath the date. Nicely struck and coruscating. The fields appear mark-free, though the cheek displays minute contact. Coloration ranges from lavender-brown and golden-brown to sea-green in protected areas. A few small minor spots are scattered.

Medium Letters Reverse
Scarce Guide Book Variety

- 2145 1830 Medium Letters — Burnished — NGC Details. AU. N-6, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF35. Various sources refer to the reverse as Medium Letters or Small Letters. Either way, N-6 is the only 1830 die marriage without a Large Letters reverse. Since N-6 is very scarce, it commands an enormous Guide Book premium in better grades over the “common” Large Letters. The usual die state with cracks at ATES OF and UNITE. The deep brown color appears slightly off but the NGC assessment appears unduly strict. Softly struck on Liberty’s curls and selected portions of the wreath.

Rare Newcomb-9 Variety

- 2146 1830 Large Letters — Environmental Damage — NGC Details. VF. N-9, R.6. Our EAC Grade Good 6. A sharp though corroded example of this rare Newcomb variety. The second S in STATES is halfway past the leaf tip and the O is beneath the left half of the curl. These two diagnostics are sufficient to confirm the marriage. The surfaces have been darkened but forest-green verdigris emerges beneath a lens and is fairly extensive. The edge near 3 o’clock has an irregular appearance. Despite the appearance, this piece is in the top half of just over 20 known examples.

Cracks from the bust tip and about the reverse periphery confirm the elusive Newcomb variety. This clashed cent shows moderate wear on the forehead but noticeable luster remains. Recolored and now exhibiting peach, rose, and sea-green shades. There are no remotely relevant marks. CC#1 in both the Bland and Noyes census lists. The latter grades the coin XF45 and best by 10 points with photo #28502.

- 2148 1831 Medium Letters — Obverse Lamination — XF40 NGC. N-2, R.2. Our EAC Grade VF25. The leaf tip is far past the second S in STATES, confirming the available N-2 pairing. The E punch in the peripheral reverse legend has a missing lower left serif. A flan impurity caused this cent to separate across the edge after the strike. The reverse is complete and has a normal appearance. The obverse is present between 12 and 5 o'clock while the portion between 5 and 12 o'clock is absent. The surface in that area is granular, as expected, and displays a faint impression of the obverse, as struck through the portion of the coin that has separated. A walnut-brown cent with a minor lamination beneath the CE in CENT.

Ex: John Jay Pittman
Medium Letters

- 2149 1831 Medium Letters PR64 Brown PCGS. N-3, R.6 as a Proof. Our EAC Grade PR61. Ex: Pittman. Crude repunching atop the E in CENT is diagnostic for the variety. N-3 is plentiful as a business strike, but proofs are rare with 15 or so confirmed. A majority of 1831 proofs are the N-3 variety. The reflective fields and undisturbed devices display jade-green and lilac-red toning. Imperfections amount to a trio of tiny spots near star 3 and a tick to the left of the O in ONE. Well struck except for the obverse periphery. Housed in a green label holder since shortly after the first Pittman auction.

1831 N-4 Cent, AU Details Double Struck First Strike Off Center

- 2150 1831 Medium Letters — Double Struck, First Strike Off Center, Burnished — NGC Details. AU. N-4, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF25. The first strike was perhaps 35% off center toward 3 o'clock, relative to the reverse. From the first strike, we can see the N in ONE and the center dot below on a leaf near the C in AMERICA from the second strike. We can also see traces of the ED in UNITED and nearby leaf from the first strike, at the reverse center, and traces of the ATE and nearby leaf in the vicinity of ME. The first strike was on the reverse only, since the obverse die was blocked by a different planchet. The second strike was normal, though the double strike has left this cent moderately wavy. The circulated surfaces are glossy from cleaning and display olive-green and lavender toning. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection.

1831 N-5 Cent, MS62 Brown Ex: Naftzger, Holmes

- 2151 1831 Medium Letters MS62 Brown PCGS. N-5, R.4. Our EAC Grade AU50. Most letters in LIBERTY are clearly recut, and the crack on the lower reverse periphery confirms the scarce Newcomb-5 marriage. This glossy cent displays forest-green and lilac-red. An area of powder-blue between the first two stars is accompanied by light hairlines. The centers are lightly brought up and the obverse has minor contact. Del Bland grades it AU50 Net XF45 and has it tied for CC#1 in his census. Grellman concurs with the XF45 grade. Ex: Central States (James Kelly, 11/1954), lot 3984; Emanuel Taylor (10/1960); R.E. - 2152 1831 Large Letters MS62 Brown NGC. N-6, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU55. Dusky golden-brown toning graces satiny and mark-free surfaces. The high points show slight blending. 1831 N-7 Cent, MS63 Brown Double Struck

- 2153 1831 Large Letters — Double Struck, Second Strike 90% Off Center — MS63 Brown PCGS. N-7, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU55. The first strike was normal, but the coin was later fed between the dies again, this time 90% off center toward 4:30 relative to the reverse, at 12 o'clock relative to the obverse of the first strike. During the second strike, a planchet (not included) obstructed the obverse die. The letters TATE in STATES are visible on the second strike. Perhaps deliberately saved by the finder due to its unusual out-of-round appearance. Lustrous with golden-brown toning and moderate verdigris near the reverse center. No signs of contact save for a small mark on the jaw. Ex: Chicago Central States Signature (Heritage, 4/2012), lot 3090. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 225M, PCGS# 1678

1831 N-7 Cent, MS66 Brown Large Letters

- 2154 1831 Large Letters MS66 Brown NGC. N-7, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS63. Booming luster and consistent chocolate-brown toning confirms the quality of this attractively preserved Premium Gem. Well struck aside from trivial incompleteness on the centers of stars 4 and 5. Unlike the Randall Hoard dates from 1817 to 1820, the 1831 is scarce in Mint State. Census: 7 in 66 (1 in 66 ★) Brown, 0 finer (12/13). Ex: Phoenix ANA Signature (Heritage, 3/2008), lot 165. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 225M, PCGS# 1678

- 2155 1831 Large Letters MS64+ Brown NGC. N-8, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU50. Light cracks on the left and lower reverse margin help confirm the Newcomb variety. Mahogany-brown dominates though the high points are gunmetal-gray. Luster shimmers across nearly unabraded surfaces. A brief diagonal pinscratch is noted beneath the first S in STATES and a pair of slender toning streaks visit the central reverse. A small strike-through, as made, is over the C in CENT. - 2156 1831 Large Letters MS64 Brown NGC. N-9, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU50. A relatively early die state though two small breaks accompany the crack between stars 1 and 2. Mostly golden-brown though select portions of the coin are steel-blue. Lightly abraded though we note thin lines above the E in ONE and between the ME in AMERICA. The right reverse border displays scattered small spots. Ex: Benson Collection (Ira & Larry Goldberg, 2/2001), lot 469; Col. Steven Ellsworth (4/2005); Dallas ANA (3/2010). 1831 N-10 Cent, SP65 Brown
Rare Specimen Striking

2157 1831 Large Letters SP65 Brown NGC. N-10, R.3. Our EAC Grade MS63. In his 1977 proof encyclopedia, Walter Breen listed pedigrees for three 1831 N-10 proofs, and adds “one other reported.” Per Breen, “all are one-sided.” PCGS lists a proof N-10 1831 cent as PR65 Brown with the notation “One Sided Obverse,” presumably indicating that only the obverse die was prepared as a proof. In his 1988 encyclopedia, Breen defines a one-sided proof as “a coin minted by normal proofing techniques except that the reverse die remained unpolished. Obverse has mirrorlike field, reverse hasn’t. Such coins occur occasionally 1817-1836 and more rarely later.”

The N-10 reverse has a lump at the center bottom of the T in CENT, and high grade examples show repunching on the E in ONE. The die is shared with the plentiful N-7, but the date is wider and the first star is close to the bust. N-7 was struck before N-10, and perhaps its reverse die was simply conveniently at hand when the obverse die of N-10 was prepared and ready to install for the handful of presentation strikes. Afterward, the die pair remained in the press and struck the moderately scarce N-10 business issue.

The present specimen displays attractive and iridescent plum-red, apricot-gold, lime-green, and lavender patina. The strike is vastly superior to the typical 1831 cent, especially on the extremities of the portrait, the veins of the leaves, and the centers of the stars. The absence of abrasions further confirms special production at the Mint and careful conservation by its recipient. A small depression below the eye appears to be of mint origin. The reverse displays cartwheel luster, as does the obverse margin, but the obverse field is nicely mirrored. An important coin likely to be the center of attention at a future EAC convention.

2158 1831 Large Letters — Corrosion — NGC Details. AG. N-12, R.1. Our EAC Grade Fair 2. The terminal die state with a huge cud encompassing most of the final two stars and the nearby field. This dark gray cent is porous but the legends are readable and the sharpness appears greater than the NGC designation implies. This die state is known as the “Harpooned Whale.”

2160 1831 Large Letters — Obverse Graffiti — NGC. AU. N-12, R.1. Our EAC Grade Fine 15. The terminal die state for the variety, known whimsically as “the harpooned whale.” The large die break has the shape of a whale and the inner point of the final star is the “harpoon” that emerges from the cud. N-12 is plentiful though this late die state is elusive. Toned medium to deep brown. A prior proud owner has pinscratched the initials EB in the left obverse field, and there is a spot near star 10, a pinscratch above the ON in ONE, and moderate granularity near the RTY in LIBERTY.

Early Die State
Ex: French, Brown, Boka

2161 1831 Large Letters AU58 PCGS. N-12, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Brown-Boka. Double profile from the forehead to neck, and on stars 10 to 13. Heavy peripheral obverse die cracks are clearly visible, but this is an early die state before the rim breaks appear at star 13. Noyes grades this piece AU50 and 16th finest. Called AU50 in the 1986 Robinson Brown catalog, this piece has lustrous golden-brown and dark steel surfaces that are pristine and mostly free of contact marks. A tiny field nick inside star 1 will aid the pedigree aficionado.

Following the dissolution of his partnership with Abe Kosoff, Abner Kreisberg opened a coin shop in Beverly Hills, California, and added a new partner, Jerry Cohen, late in 1959. The partners operated the Beverly Hills shop, and conducted many excellent coin auctions, including some joint sales with Hans Schulman. PROOF LARGE CENTS

1832 N-1 Cent, PR64 Brown Extremely Rare Proof Date

2162 1832 PR64 Brown NGC. N-1, R.7 as a Proof. Our EAC Grade PR60. The mid-to-late die state with a crack connecting UNITED to the final A in AMERICA. The obverse die is unique to N-1, and can be identified by specific recutting on LIBER. N-1 is a plentiful business variety, but 1832 proofs are much rarer than their 1831 predecessors. PCGS has certified one each as 64 Brown and 64 Red. NGC has only certified the present cent as proof. The 1977 Breen proof encyclopedia delineates just two examples, with the present cent listed first.

This specimen has a fully struck portrait and wreath, though all stars but the last are softly brought up. The fields are reflective and unperturbed by contact. Plum-mauve shades dominate though sea-green and caramel-gold also emerge. Identifiers are limited to the toning pattern, which includes a cigar-shaped lavender area between stars 7 and 8.

A proof 1832 cent can only be owned by three or so individuals. A collection including such a rarity would immediately be elevated to importance. Once purchased at auction, it might be off the market for many years. Opportunity is fleeting.

- 2169 1834 Small 8, Large Stars, Medium Letters MS62 Brown NGC. N-2, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU55. The bold double profile gives this light tan and sea-green cent a distinctive appearance, with a few scattered marks and faint hairlines on the reverse. Double profiles are a form of strike doubling also known as "die bounce" where the obverse die shifts as the coin is struck, the reverse remaining stationary. In extreme cases the profile can actually be tripled. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. PCGS# 1708

- 2170 1834 Small 8, Large Stars, Medium Letters MS63 Brown NGC. N-2, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU50. The usual die state has a crack through all of the stars, and another through TA to the wreath. Slight doubling of the profile appears shadowing along Liberty's nose on this attractive golden-tan cent. Dark bluish toning appears on the devices of this example. 1834 N-2 Cent, MS66 Brown
Usual Die State

- 2172 1834 Small 8, Large Stars, Medium Letters MS66 Brown NGC. N-2, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS60. The usual die state. Beginning in 1834, most large cent dates are much easier to find in Mint State grades than in previous years. Both sides are medium brown with frosty mint luster, the obverse with traces of mint red, the reverse also with traces of mint red that accompany violet and blue toning.

From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. PCGS# 1708

- 2173 1834 Large 8, Small Stars, Medium Letters MS62 Brown NGC. N-4, R.2. Our EAC Grade XF45. The profile is weakly doubled, appearing as a widening of the features, rather than a distinct shift. Golden-brown surfaces have bluish-violet toning on Liberty's portrait, and wispy blue on the leaves.

1834 N-4 Cent, MS63 Brown
Sharp Double Profile

- 2174 1834 Large 8, Small Stars, Medium Letters MS63 Brown NGC. N-4, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU55. The profile is sharply doubled. Satiny and attractive steel-blue surfaces have traces of tan and brick-red on the obverse, with traces of mint red. The reverse retains about 10% of its original mint red with bluish olive-brown toning. A splendid cent that was graded MS62 in its previous auction appearance.

1834 N-5 Cent, MS65 Brown
The Finest Known
Large 8, Large Stars, Medium Letters
Single Die Variety Guide Book Type

2175 1834 Large 8, Large Stars, Medium Letters MS65 Brown PCGS. N-5, R.5. Our EAC Grade MS63. The rare N-5 die marriage is the only variety of the Large 8, Large Stars, Medium Letters type listed in the Guide Book, and only about 60 examples are known in all grades. The finest of those is the present piece from the Adam Mervis Collection. Bill Noyes grades this piece MS61, and slightly finer than the Naftzger piece that was sold in 2009. Noyes also records a third Mint State example that was part of the Henry Miller Collection sold by Thomas Elder in 1917, with no recent provenance. Following the top coins is a single AU55 example in the Fred Borchardt collection, and a handful of XF coins. PCGS has certified the present coin and the Naftzger coin each as MS65 Brown. While this piece has substantial red mint color, especially on the reverse, the Naftzger coin is entirely toned with no mint red.

The usual die state with a die crack joining the date and all of the stars. The obverse die has been lapped with the lowest curl outlined, and other attenuated details.

This impressive piece has full cartwheel luster with the olive-brown, blue-steel, and pale green toning. Traces of red mint color remain in the protected areas of the obverse. The reverse is spectacular, with about one-third of the original mint red remaining, blended with delicate olive-brown and pale blue. PCGS has certified two MS65 Brown examples of this variety, along with one MS62 Brown, and 12 circulated coins graded between VG10 and AU58 (10/13).

1834 N-6 Cent, AU58
Large 8, Stars, and Letters

- 2176 1834 Large 8, Large Stars, Large Letters AU58 NGC. N-6, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU50. The obverse die is shared between N-5 and N-6, with the same crack on all known examples. However, N-6 was struck before the die was lapped, and N-5 followed after die lapping removed some details. The late die state of the reverse exhibits a worn die with strong peripheral flowlines. Deep olive-brown surfaces exhibit a few scattered marks on the obverse, with peripheral weakness on the reverse. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 225R, PCGS# 1705

PROOF LARGE CENTS

1834 N-7 Cent, PR60 Brown Proof-Only Variety Fourth Finest Known

2177 1834 Large 8, Large Stars, Large Letters PR60 Brown PCGS. N-7, R.7. Our EAC Grade PR55. There are only seven die varieties known for the 1834 large cents, and they fall into four different Guide Book groupings:

Small 8, Large Stars, Medium Letters - N-1, N-2

Large 8, Small Stars, Medium Letters - N-3, N-4

Large 8, Large Stars, Medium Letters - N-5

Large 8, Large Stars, Large Letters - N-6, N-7

For Guide Book collectors and Set Registry collectors, the last group is available in the form of business strikes (N-6), and proofs (N-7).

The 1834 N-7 is the sole proof-only variety in the middle date cent series (1816-1839), and there are no more than eight examples identified today. The four finest examples grade PR65, PR63, PR62, and PR60, per Denis Loring, who maintains a detailed census of all proof large cents. This example is the PR60+ coin on his list. Three others are significantly impaired, grading XF40, VG8, and Good 6, the last only recently discovered. Loring records one additional piece from a New Jersey dealer to Stack's, but nothing else is known of that specimen.

This lovely proof has rich dark chocolate-brown surfaces beneath stunning blue-steel toning, with fully mirrored fields. Trivial, scattered pit marks and faint hairlines are present on both sides. The design elements are nicely defined, although show some weakness. It is certainly not the "microscopically exact strike" that Stack's described, although it is an exceptionally attractive and highly appealing example.

LARGE CENTS

1835 N-2 Cent, AU55 Sharp Double Profile

- 2178 1835 Small 8 and Stars AU55 NGC. N-2, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF40. The profile is sharply doubled. Several examples of N-2 graded XF40 are tied in the Noyes census for 11th finest known. Bland and Noyes each grade this piece XF40 as we do, and this piece appears as seventh finest in the Bland census. The sharpness is five points finer than our net grade, with traces of luster and myriad minuscule pitmarks on each side. The UN in UNITED are doubled, with that feature weaker on this example than on most, and Grellman attributes that weakness to die lapping. However, we see no other evidence of die lapping on the reverse. The fields are reflective and the surfaces exhibit mottled steel, olive, and reddish-tan. A lovely cent with excellent eye appeal.

- 2179 1835 Small 8 and Stars — Improperly Cleaned — NGC Details. AU. N-3, R.3. 1835 N-4 Cent, XF40 Tied for Sixth Finest Known

- 2180 1835 Small 8 and Stars XF40 NGC. N-4, R.5. Our EAC Grade VF25. Ex: Mervis Collection. This early die state cent has the usual crack through the top of the date, extending left through two stars to the border, and right through three stars to the border. Pleasing olive-brown surfaces have scattered marks and a few splashes of darker patina, retaining excellent eye appeal for the grade. Noyes grades this piece VF20 and tied for sixth finest known, although the actual census rank may be slightly higher.

1835 N-5 Cent, MS65 Brown Head of 1834

- 2182 1835 Small 8 and Stars MS65 Brown NGC. N-5, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU55. A delicate crack crosses the base of 835, with radial flowlines at the peripheries. Both sides have full cartwheel luster with lovely intermingled olive-brown, steel, and tan, showing wisps of blue on the high points. Although shy of the condition census, this exceptional cent will be a nice addition to a type, date, or variety collection.

- 2183 1835 Small 8 and Stars — Double Struck — Holed — NGC Details. VF. N-6, R.1. Our EAC Grade Good 4. The obverse has a “brockage-maker” impression that is about 50% off-center, while the two impressions on the reverse are side by side, so that the legend reads UNIUNITED STATESOF AMERICA and the denomination appears as ONEE CENNT. A small hole is located at star 8 on this deep greenish-steel cent error.
From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. PCGS# 1717

- 2184 1835 Small 8 and Stars MS63 Brown NGC. N-6, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS60. This sharp double profile retains brilliant mint red in the protected areas, including on the ledge created by the double profile. Overall, about 10% of the original red mint color remains on the obverse and reverse. The balance is toned to an attractive olive-brown. According to the Noyes census, about a dozen Mint State examples of this variety survive.

1835 N-9 Cent, AU58 The Second Finest Known

- 2185 1835 Large 8, Large Stars AU58 PCGS. N-9, High R.4. Our EAC Grade XF45. Ex: Naftzger Collection. Grellman and Noyes each grade this piece XF45, and Noyes lists it as the second finest known. Bland agrees with the census rank, but grades this piece AU55. In our opinion it has the sharpness of AU55 and has been cleaned and retoned, with reddish-brown and steel-blue toning, showing glossy surfaces and excellent eye appeal. A few minor marks are inconsequential.

- 2186 1835 Small 8 and Stars — Environmental Damage — NGC Details. VG. N-11, High R.4. Our EAC Grade Good 6. A wide double profile is evident on the obverse of this tan and olive-brown cent, with traces of deep green patina. The surfaces are lightly corroded with a few minor scratches.

1835 N-11 Cent, VF30
Head of 1834

- 2187 1835 Small 8 and Stars VF30 NGC. N-11, High R.4. Our EAC Grade VF20. This example just misses the condition census, but probably ranks among the top dozen survivors. The smooth surfaces exhibit mahogany on the obverse, and olive-tan on the reverse, with a tiny obverse rim nock at 12 o'clock. Both sides show the usual handling marks that are consistent with the grade.

1835 N-12 Cent, AU58
Scarce Die Pair
A Census Specimen

- 2188 1835 Small 8 and Stars AU58 NGC. N-12, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF35. Typically a double profile results from die bounce that creates extra outlines along the forehead, nose, mouth, and chin, and gets its name from those doubled features. However, the same can occur elsewhere, such as this piece that has doubling on stars 7 through 12. This lovely cent has glossy surfaces with olive and steel-brown on the obverse, and mahogany on the reverse. Bland and Noyes each grade this piece VF35 and rank it fourth and third, respectively.

1835 N-13 Cent, MS63 Brown
Tied for Fourth Finest

- 2189 1835 Small 8 and Stars MS63 Brown NGC. N-13, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF45. The bottom curve of the digit 5 is doubled, with the usually (always) seen die crack joining this extra curve. A secondary crack exits the lower right curve for a short distance to join the main crack. In slightly later states, this forms a solid break, appearing as a tail off the lower right curve. This example is undoubtedly one of the earliest strikes from the die, and still retains some prooflike appearance in the obverse fields from initial die polishing. The reverse shows light swelling and flowlines. Noyes grades this piece XF45 and tied for fifth finest known, with four AU coins ranking higher. No Mint State examples are recorded in the Noyes roster. Although lightly hairlined, the surfaces are attractive with deep steel-brown color. The obverse has reflective fields and the reverse has flowlined fields.

- 2190 1835 Head of 1836 MS64 Brown NGC. N-14, R.2. Our EAC Grade MS62. Ex: Mervis Collection. An early die state struck from crisp dies, showing a delicate crack through the tops of AME. Both sides are well centered with crisp, bold denticles. The hair buns and upper hair details are a trifle blunt, with opposing weakness on the lower right part of the wreath. Exceptional surfaces display full cartwheel luster and only a few microscopic marks. This outstanding example likely falls at the low end of the condition census.

- 2191 1835 Head of 1836 — Struck 10% Off Center — Good 4 NGC. N-15, R.2. Our EAC Grade AG3. Ex: Mervis Collection. This piece was struck about 10% off center at 8 o'clock. The two-tone surfaces exhibit light brown devices that contrast with the darker brown fields. Both sides are pleasing and smooth, with only a few scattered marks, including faint obverse scratches and some small marks at the E of CENT.

2192 1835 Head of 1836 — First Strike Off Center — VG10 NGC. N-15, R.2. Our EAC Grade Good 4. Ex: Mervis Collection. An incuse arc of dentils at the right obverse suggests that this piece may have been struck over a brockage. However, the NGC label indicates a double struck example with the first strike substantially off center. A clear double profile is also evident. Both sides have scattered grade-consistent marks on the intermingled steel-brown, tan, and maroon surfaces. A short, bright scratch of recent origin appears near the neck.

2193 1835 Head of 1836 MS64 Brown NGC. N-15, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Mervis Collection. This pleasing piece is equal to the second Naftzger specimen, lot 342 in the February 2009 sale of that collection, and it is tied for eighth place in the census. Both sides have full cartwheel luster on beautiful chestnut and steel surfaces. This late die state example has flowlined fields that obliterate most of the dentils. The reverse is cracked through the tops of UNITED, and heavy flowlines pull the letters toward the rim. No dentils remain on the reverse. The profile is doubled at the lips and forehead.

2194 1835 Head of 1836 — Struck 15% Off Center — MS64 Brown NGC. N-16, R.2. Our EAC Grade MS60. Ex: Mervis Collection. This late die state example is struck 15% off center toward 7 o'clock. Minor strike doubling appears on the reverse of this sharply defined specimen. The chocolate-brown surfaces are fully lustrous with light field reflectivity. A few small planchet dents appear on the obverse. A solid example of the variety that ranks among the 10 finest known 1835 N-16 cents.

2195 1836 MS63 Brown NGC. N-3, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS60. Ex: Mervis Collection. This later die state example has full obverse and reverse dentils with a rim break over star 6, and a die crack from the M to the wreath, tops of ONE CENT, and the first S in STATES. A splash of blue-steel toning appears on Liberty's face with chocolate brown surfaces that retain hints of original mint red. A small nick on the jaw and a reddish verdigris patch at stars 8 and 9 are the only distractions.

The obverse is cracked through the base of the date and elsewhere, and the reverse has five faint radial die cracks inward from the border. This piece has evenly distributed olive-brown patina and both sides are covered with microscopic granularity. Minor rim filing is evident on the obverse at 12:30. A minor scrape appears on the jaw. None of the defects were described in its previous auction appearance where it was graded MS61 Brown and called "Choice."

The reverse is the same as N-4, with the same radial die cracks extending in from the border. This piece has light wear on the high points as the grade suggests, with pleasing chestnut-brown surfaces and a patch of darker patina at the right side of the reverse. A few small surface marks are evident in the obverse fields and on Liberty's face. Similar trivial marks are noted on the reverse.

1836 N-7 Cent, MS62 Brown
Second Finest Known

2198 1836 MS62 Brown NGC. N-7, R.4. Our EAC Grade AU58. Ex: Mervis Collection. This intermediate die state example has a delicate die crack from the border over the TE in UNITED to the top of the D, continuing to the tops of ST in STATES. Newcomb-7 is rated R.4, the scarcest of seven die marriages for the year. The obverse die, shared with N-6, is distinctive for three distinct waves at the top of the head. The golden-brown fields of this lovely cent are faintly reflective, and both sides show trivial imperfections. This example is slightly finer than the Rasmussen coin that Noyes lists as the second finest known to him. It is finer than the cleaned and retoned Naftzger specimen that Bob Grellman graded AU58. Only the Garrett coin appears finer.

Both dies of this late state specimen have extensive flowlines with weakened peripheral details, including the die cracks. This example has golden-tan color on the obverse with splashes of orange mint color and several dark toning spots. A single bright green spot is evident near star 4. The reverse blends green and olive patina with a few orange spots and several darker toning spots.

Early Die State

- 2202 1837 Plain Cords, Medium Letters MS65 Brown NGC. N-7, 8, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS62. Ex: Mervis Collection. The varieties described as Newcomb-7 and 8 are from a single die pair, so they are die states of a single variety. This lovely specimen has crisp dentilation. The reverse is cracked through STATES OF. The early die state is equal to the description of N-8 in the Newcomb book. Delicate blue toning appears on the fully lustrous chocolate-brown surfaces with a few splashes of darker toning on the obverse. Heavy die lines over MERIC are clear on this example.

Head of 1838

- 2204 1837 Head of 1838 PR63 Brown NGC. N-9, R.1 (R.8 as a Proof). Our EAC Grade PR60. Ex: Mervis Collection. The obverse has a faint crack across Liberty's neck, and that is the earliest state recorded for the die. The reverse is perfect with no die cracks or other defects.

Only about a dozen proof 1837 large cents are known, and only two of those are confirmed for the Newcomb-9 die pairing. This late die state has peripheral weakness resulting from die wear and flowlines on both sides. A slight planchet lamination between stars 9 and 10 is easily mistaken for a die crack. The reverse is cracked through parts of the legend. This pleasing cent has cartwheel luster with attractive chocolate-brown surfaces that retain traces of original mint red. Ex: *Ray Gallo; R.E. Just Outside the Condition Census

2212 1838 MS65+ Red and Brown NGC. N-2, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS62. Ex: Mervis Collection. Radial flowlines weaken the border denticils on both sides with the reverse dentilation almost entirely absent. This lovely olive-brown cent has considerable original mint red on both sides. Splashes of bluish toning appear on the obverse, especially at the tip of the nose and along the right border. The reverse has wispy blue overtones. This example just misses the N-2 condition census. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 225V, PCGS# 1742

- 2213 1838 MS64 Red and Brown NGC. N-3, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS63. Ex: Mervis Collection. Probably a late die state with radial flowlines, although border weakness at 7 o'clock on the obverse makes a specific determination impossible. The surfaces are pleasing with bluish-brown toning and considerable faded mint red. The reverse has a dark green carbon spot at ER of AMERICA. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. The late or terminal die state, with a small rim break below the 83, and with light cracks through the date, forming an internal die break from the low curl to the neck curl. This lovely cent has smooth and lustrous light olive-brown surfaces with tinges of faded red mint color along the reverse border. A darker toning spot next to the nose will aid future identification of this important cent. Noyes calls this piece MS62 and seventh finest known. Ex: Doug Bird (5/5/1996); R.E. Late Die State

- 2215 1838 MS65 Red and Brown PCGS. N-6, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS63. Ex: Naftzger Collection. Faded border dentilation is visible on both sides of this lovely cent. Light clash marks are noted along Liberty's profile. Considerable orange mint luster remains on both sides, with olive-brown and pale blue toning. Trivial marks on each side fail to diminish the exceptional eye appeal. This lovely cent has received different grades from various observers, including MS65 (Bland), MS64 (Grellman), MS63 (Borckardt), and MS62 (Noyes). Noyes ranks this cent as the ninth finest and Bland suggests it is the second finest known. Ex: Joe Kuehnert (8/1976); NASCA (12/1976), lot 69; Jerry A. Bobbe (9/15/1077); R.E. PROOF LARGE CENTS

1838 N-11 Cent, PR64 Red
Ex: Garrett Collection
The Only Proof Certified Red

2216 1838 PR64 Red PCGS. N-11, Low R.6 as a Proof. Our EAC Grade PR65. Newcomb varieties N-11 and N-13 are different states of a single die pair. Today we recognize the early die states as N-11 and the late die states as N-13, the latter showing a heavy rim break at star 1. All known proofs from this die pair are the early states, and are called N-11 for convenience. Although there have been claims to the contrary from time to time, all proof 1838 large cents identified today are examples of the N-11 die state. Past reports, such as the Breen Proof Encyclopedia, include possible proofs of N-1 and N-8, but those are now discounted.

For type collectors, the 1838 N-11 is the most plentiful proof of the middle date series. Denis Loring tracks all proof large cents, and records almost 30 proofs of this variety. Among those, the present Garrett Collection specimen is one of just two examples he grades PR65.

This sensational specimen has brilliant deep orange mint color on both sides with a hint of lilac toning and fully mirrored fields. A single dark toning spot on the border at star 2 will aid identification. The border and central details are bold, while most of the stars are flat. The stars vary in sharpness on different proofs. This specimen has little detail on any of the stars. The other proof 1838 N-11 cent in the present offering has stars 1 through 5 flat and the others sharp. The Naftzger proof, earlier from Dr. Beckwith's collection, has stars 6, 7, 8, 12, and 13 bold, and the others ranging from flat to partially detailed. PCGS and NGC have combined to certify 16 proof 1838 large cents, and the present piece is the solitary example awarded the Red designation.

- 2217 1838 PR65 Brown NGC. N-11, Low R.6 as a Proof. Our EAC Grade PR62. Ex: Mervis Collection. This early die state N-11 proof has myriad die lines on Liberty's neck and jaw, as on the other proof in the present sale. This example has stars 1 through 5 flat, and stars 6 through 13 nicely detailed, although they could be even sharper. A single carbon fleck on Liberty's jaw identifies the pedigree of this proof. Smooth, modestly reflective fields offers glimmers of faded orange-brown color in the protected areas.

Plain Hair Cords

- 2219 1839/6 VF35 PCGS. N-1, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF20. A true overdate with the old style obverse having Plain Hair Cords. A series of three die cracks bisects the obverse from 9 o'clock to 3 o'clock on this late die state cent. The first die crack begins at the border between stars 3 and 4, and crosses the eye. The second crack crosses the top of the ear to the Y in LIBERTY. The third crack begins at the base of the Y and crosses the back hair strands to star 11 and the border. This attractive chestnut and olive-brown cent has pleasing surfaces showing only trivial circulation marks that are expected for the grade. An old scratch is blended with its surroundings between the M and E in AMERICA, with a small scrape between the C and A of that word. A small reverse rim bruise is noted below the ribbon and stem.

This intermediate die state has obverse and reverse flowlines with blurry die scratches left of STATES and through RICA. The border dentils are weak but complete. Lovely chocolate-brown and steel surfaces show full satiny cartwheel luster. Only a few minuscule marks include a short, microscopic scratch left of the coronet. Noyes lists a couple dozen Mint State examples of this variety in his census.

Silly Head

- 2221 1839 Silly Head MS65 Red and Brown PCGS. CAC. N-4, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS63. Both sides of this middle die state example have faded but complete border dentilation. One of only two Silly Head die marriages, which makes it scarcer than the Booby Head. Both designs were abandoned in 1840 in favor of the Petite Head, which was also struck in 1839. This is an outstanding Gem with smooth surfaces and good eye appeal. Frosty light steel-brown surfaces retain considerable mint red on both sides.

- 2223 1839 Type of 1840 MS65 Red and Brown PCGS. N-8, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS64. Ex: Joshua and Ally Walsh. The only 'Head of 1840' variety and the only die marriage for the year with the 1 in the date completely left of the bust truncation. A well struck Gem specimen with smooth surfaces, satiny luster, and lovely intermingled reddish-golden and tan-brown color.
N-8 represents the culmination of years of large cent design tinkering by Chief Engraver Christian Gobrecht. The so-called Petite head, identified by its forward-leaning bust with a lengthy lock of hair beneath, remained in place until late in 1843, when it was replaced by the Mature head. Gobrecht's death in 1844 froze the design in place until the 1857 demise of the large cent. This example is tied for the fourth finest in the Noyes census.

Small Over Large 18

- 2227 1840 Small Over Large 18 PR62 Brown PCGS. N-2, High R.6 as a proof. Our EAC Grade PR50. Grellman Die State a. The usual die state for proofs. The blundered date makes Newcomb-2 the sole die variety for the date with a separate listing in the Guide Book. Although well-worn N-2 business strikes are readily collected, proofs are rare. PCGS has certified a total of nine specimens in all grades (11/13). N-2 is the only variety for 1840 proofs. The present intricately struck specimen is medium to deep brown with sea-green and lilac undertones. Contact marks are minimal but the color is slightly off, and tiny spots are scattered with a cluster near the date.

- 2228 1840 Small Over Large 18 PR63 Red and Brown PCGS. N-2, High R.6 as a Proof. Our EAC Grade PR62. Blundered date with sharply repunched 18, a surprising choice of an obverse die to coin proof examples of this date. The features of the repunched date are extremely sharp. The dentils along the right side of the obverse and the right side of the reverse clearly show evidence of more than one strike. The fields are fully reflective with light brown and iridescent toning over golden surfaces that have faded slightly from original mint color. A few minor specks are evident on the obverse, and a short vertical scratch can be seen inside the wreath on the reverse. A small U-shaped lint mark is noted in the right obverse field near star 10.

- 2245 1843 Petite Head, Large Letters MS64 Brown NGC. N-4, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS60. Grellman Die State a. The sole Newcomb variety that mules the "old" Petite Head obverse with the "new" Large Letters reverse. As a singular Guide Book variety, N-4 commands a sizeable premium in Uncirculated grades. Toned lavender-brown overall with glimpses of olive and peach. Marks and spots are essentially absent, though inconspicuous strike-throughs are northeast of star 1 and near the left ribbon end.

This boldly struck and lustrous high grade cent displays lovely olive-green toning with hints of faded fire-red within design recesses. Outstanding overall despite trivial contact near the jaw and a pair of minute spots near the M in AMERICA and the first T in STATES. In the present quality, the 1843 Mature Head is much scarcer than its Petite Head counterpart.

A lens locates only four minuscule obverse ticks, two on the field near the hairbun and one each on the cheek and chin. Noyes grades this coin MS65 and records it as CC#1. PROOF LARGE CENTS

1844 N-8 Cent, PR65 Red Cameo Rare Proof-Only Variety

2260 1844 PR65 Red Cameo NGC. N-8, High R.6. Our EAC Grade PR66. A projection from the left side of the bustline, and a curved artifact on the bust, are both remnants of a misplaced 18 on this blundered obverse die. It is perhaps surprising that Mint officials would use a blundered die to produce their precious proof coins in the 1840s. The reverse is a specially prepared die that was used only for proof cents over a span of several dates from 1844 to 1849.

In his cent reference, Bob Grellman presents a fascinating proposal: "Since this reverse die was used only to produce proof-only strikes of other 1845-49 cents and the die state never varies, it is logical to assume the proofs that use this reverse were struck after the date they carry. In fact, it is quite possible (perhaps probable) these 1844-49 proof-only varieties (and possibly a few others) were struck for collectors after large cent production had ceased altogether."

There are only about 15 examples of this proof-only variety known today, and this piece seems to be at the head of the class. This Gem is little changed from 1958, when John Ford said: "Splendid blazing red Proof, close to perfection despite a few minute specks and a faint mark or so near twelfth star where another coin knocked against it; picayune defects not disturbing to anyone but an absolute perfectionist."

As in 1958, this splendid blazing red proof does have a few specks, most evident above star 11, between the 1 and 8, and between the E and S in STATES. The tiny mark near star 12 remains, but it is essentially unworthy of mention. The fields are deeply mirrored around frosty red devices, imparting an excellent cameo appearance.

Just 10 examples of this privately made “cent” are confirmed, and only two of those are listed in grades above Fine 12 in the Grellman and Noyes census lists. J.N.T. Levick owned an example in 1865, suggesting a circa-1850 production with intent to pass in circulation.

- 2320 1849 MS65 Red and Brown NGC. N-3, R.4. Our EAC Grade MS63. Grellman Die State d. Grellman delineates 22 different die states for this nonetheless scarce variety. The reverse die was apparently improperly annealed and promptly deteriorated during production. This example displays plentiful pockets of mint red that are more extensive on the reverse. The high points and obverse field are medium brown.

Struck 30% Off Center

- 2322 1849 — Struck 30% Off Center, Graffiti — NGC Details. VF. N-8, R.2. Our EAC Grade VG8. Grellman Die State b. Widely off center toward 2 o’clock. The date and LIBERTY are present but the RICA in AMERICA is absent, as is the U in UNITED. A golden-brown mint error with minor build-up in protected areas that is toned gold on the obverse and dark gray on the reverse. The letters HWN are lightly pinscratched on the unstruck area of the obverse, presumably the initials of a delighted 19th century finder.

- 2323 1849 MS63 Brown PCGS. N-12, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU55. Grellman Die State a, “scarce.” Die lines are evident between the dentils and the UN in UNITED. This olive-brown cent is satiny and splendidly free from contact or mentionable carbon. The strike is good though star 13 and the shoulder curl are soft.

PROOF LARGE CENTS

1849 Cent, PR64 Red and Brown Rare Proof-Only N-18

- 2326 1849 PR64 Red and Brown PCGS. N-18, R.6. Our EAC Grade PR64. The date varies in relief, perhaps due to a defective gang punch. The usual reverse die for proof cents of the era, identified by a die scratch on the rim near the E in UNITED. A rare proof-only variety. The strike is crisp and there is no hint of abrasions. Orange-gold outlines design elements while the exposed fields and high points are steel-gray. One small spot above the flag of the 1 provides an identifier. A small, narrow strike-through (as coined) rests above star 1. PCGS estimates 15 to 20 proofs of this date are known. That firm has a population of 13 pieces but some may represent resubmissions over the past 27 years. The NGC Census lists an additional three pieces.

1849 Cent, MS63 Brown
Extremely Rare N-25, CC #1
Ex: Newcomb, Starr, Naftzger

2329 1849 MS63 Brown PCGS. N-25, FS-301, High R.7. Our EAC Grade AU58. Ex: Naftzger Collection. Grellman describes the rare and curious N-25 as “the rim and fields have a wavy, irregular appearance indicating the die was not prepared properly.” The rough fields on struck examples, particularly near the obverse rim and AMERICA, ensured the dies were promptly removed from service despite the historical reluctance of the Mint to shelf costly die steel.

The status of N-25 as a distinct die marriage was debated by specialists since Newcomb’s day. Due to the die lumps atop the C and T in CENT, some believed that N-25 was really a late state of N-10. In 1989, however, Grellman had the opportunity to study the present high grade coin as part of the Naftzger holdings, and confirmed the conclusions of Newcomb and Naftzger. For example, the die line above the AM in AMERICA differs from N-10, as does a diagonal die line from the N in UNITED toward the rim.

Toned deep walnut-brown with traces of red near design elements. A loupe reveals only two tiny ticks, one each on the cheek and near star 11, and a solitary tiny fleck above the O in ONE. The strike is crisp with the exception of several star centers. Designated as CC#1 in both the Grellman and Noyes census lists. Grellman grades it AU58, and Noyes calls it AU55 with photo #30627.

PROOF LARGE CENTS

1849 Cent, PR64 Brown N-30, Very Rare in Proof Format

- 2330 1849 PR64 Brown PCGS. N-30, R.6, R.7 as a Proof. Our EAC Grade PR60. Grellman die state a. Heavy die polish lines between UNITED and the dentils identify the rare N-30. The status of N-30 proofs remains debated by specialists, since the reverse die lacks the rim die scratch at 9:30 associated with 1844 to 1849 proofs. However, the fields on the present specimen are reflective, and there is no indication of the high point friction or abrasions customary of a business issue. Toned deep sea-green and mahogany-brown. Well struck aside from the center of star 4. PCGS has also certified a PR62 Red and Brown example from N-30 dies, and the NGC Census lists a PR63 Brown as N-30. The latter appeared in a January 24, 2010 Teletrade auction as lot 1031.

MS66 ★ Red and Brown

- 2337 1850 MS66 ★ Red and Brown NGC. N-13, R.4. Our EAC Grade MS63. Grellman Die State a, "rare." The elusive initial die state with myriad fine die lines over ERIC and no reverse die cracks. A good strike despite a few soft star centers. Orange-red is plentiful, particularly on the obverse, though the fields inside the wreath and above Liberty's hair are partly brown. A loupe fails to locate remotely mentionable contact. One small spot is near 6 o'clock on the reverse. 1853 Cent, Choice Fine N-13 Reverse Half of Split Coin

2365 1853 — Reverse Half of Split After Strike — Fine 15 NGC. N-13, R.1. Our EAC Grade VG8. 6.7 gm. Grellman Die State b. The NGC insert states "Obverse Half of Split Planchet," however, the cent split in two across the edge after the strike, and the present piece is the reverse half. Presumably, the coinage strip included a flattened gas bubble or other imperfection that eventually caused the coin to split. The obverse has a granular texture, as made, with metal flow toward the edge at the border. The obverse design is evident, but blurry, as it was struck through the obverse half that separated during circulation. Both sides are dark brown and the reverse is mildly granular. Likely N-13 due to swelling near TED STATES usual for that variety.

2366 1853 MS64 Red and Brown PCGS. N-13, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS63. Grellman Die State b. The usual late die state with STATES faint due to a buckled reverse die. Portions of the coin have an orange peel texture. Peach-red illuminates design recesses though the fields and portrait are gunmetal-gray. A lens reveals minor field grazes and faint marks beneath star 8.

Highest Graded of 5 at NGC

2374 1854 PR66 Red and Brown NGC. N-12, R.6 as a Proof. Our EAC Grade PR64. Grellman Die State a. Grellman believes that the rare proofs "were struck from a pair of repolished dies following the production of a small quantity of business strikes." The parallel die lines beneath the 4 in the date are bold. The fields are nicely mirrored and exhibit orange-gold, rose-red, and jade-green toning. The strike is bold though star 13 is incompletely brought up. No marks are present. Both sides display a partial wire rim. N-12 is the only 1854 variety known in proof format. NGC has certified just five proof 1854 cents, with the present coin as the single finest (12/13). At PCGS, the single highest graded specimen is PR66 Brown.

The obverse appears off center several degrees toward 1:30. However, the cause is a misaligned obverse die instead of an off center strike. The reverse is normal except the dentils are poorly struck between 9 and 11 o'clock. This coin is cleaned and recolored sea-green and rose-red. A curious finder placed several thin scratches beneath the chin and on the portrait.

LARGE CENTS

1793 S-1, B-1 Chain AMERI. Cent, XF40
From the Robinson S. Brown, Jr. Collection

2399 1793 Chain AMERI. XF40 PCGS. S-1, B-1, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF20. This piece was assigned a conservative Fine 15 grade in the Robinson Brown catalog. The sharpness approaches XF with smooth olive-tan surfaces showing delicate blue overtones. A small rim bruise is evident over the L in LIBERTY with others on the reverse. Faint hairlines and scattered surface marks appear on each side. Small planchet defects are noted in Liberty's hair. Described as cleaned and retoned in the Robinson Brown catalog, and if so, with extremely attractive results. We wish we could offer a roll of these!

Breen Die State III. An intermediate die state showing delicate die bulges at the 1 in the date and over the U in UNITED. Faint clash marks appear on below the bust and in front of the face, from the chain. There is no trace of the die crack that appears later through the tops of TATE.

Commentary. The first Chain cent struck in early March, the 1793 Chain AMERI. cents are extremely important historically, as the first coins struck for circulation in the Philadelphia Mint. There are two theories about the abbreviated legend on the reverse. Walter Breen once suggested deliberate symbolism, copied from the style of the Masonic Unfinished Pyramid on the Great Seal of the United States. The other theory was merely an abbreviation to maintain a balanced design.

Market Notes. PCGS has certified eight examples in XF40, with 14 finer (10/13). This is only the seventh appearance of a certified XF or finer Chain AMERI. cent since our auction archives were instituted 20 years ago. The Set Registry collector should give this piece careful consideration.

Provenance. From an old auction, lot 513; William T. Anton; Denis W. Loring (12/2/1988); Robinson S. Brown, Jr. (Superior, 1/1996), lot 1; Anthony Terranova.

1793 S-2, B-3 Chain AMERICA Cent, AU55
From the Famous Norweb Collection

2400 1793 Chain AMERICA AU55 PCGS. S-2, B-3, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF35. Ex: Norweb/Hesselgesser. A splendid piece with smooth and glossy medium golden-brown surfaces. Minor edge nicks are visible below 93, above R in LIBERTY, and above UN, with a tiny nick at L, a smaller nick in the right obverse field, and a faint hairline at CA. Graded VF35 in the Norweb catalog, this piece is recorded in the Noyes Census as tied for 11th finest known. Although graded VF35 as it was in the Norweb sale, we feel strongly that it deserves a full XF40 grade by EAC standards, and it seems to be every bit the equal of the ninth finest specimen, the former Peter Mougey-Homer Downing coin.

Breen Die State II. The obverse is a reappearance of the die used for the Chain AMERI. cents, here with a bulge through the base of 793. Wavy clash marks appear in front of the face and below the bust, the result of die polishing after its earlier use. The new reverse die with its complete legend shows no evidence of clash marks. This reverse die remained in use for three additional varieties through the end of the Chain cent series.

Commentary. Mint records indicate that 36,103 Chain cents were coined, and Breen estimated 6,350 of those were the Chain AMERI. cents, meaning that the second reverse die with the complete legend lasted for nearly 30,000 additional cents.

Porous or corroded pieces are frequently encountered. Another source for general problems with these coins was the original source of copper. Sheet copper was not yet available from England, so Henry Voigt acquired scrap copper from local sources.

In his Encyclopedia of Large Cents, Breen discussed the problems with this locally available copper: "Scrap copper varied greatly in homogeneity, density, malleability, and hardness. This is partly from different trace elements and partly from the way the individual lumps had been treated in manufacture. This was a most unsatisfactory expedient; the coiner's department learned quickly that different ingots cast from it varied greatly, with far too many gas bubbles. Strip rolled from these ingots came out with too many cavities and laminations. Many surviving Chain cents accordingly show such flaws."

Given the copper problems that Breen described, it is perhaps surprising that any nice pieces still exist.

Market Notes. PCGS has certified 11 1793 Chain AMERICA cents in AU55, and 15 finer, but most of those are examples of Sheldon-3.

1793 Chain Cent, XF40
S-3, B-4, Late Die State

- 2402 1793 Chain AMERICA XF40 NGC. S-3, B-4, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF20. Ex: Mervis Collection. A lovely steel and chestnut-brown example with mostly smooth and somewhat glossy surfaces showing excellent eye appeal. Tiny obverse rim bumps appear at 6, 8, and 9 o'clock. Scattered surface marks include a short scrape right of the Y in LIBERTY, and a trivial patch of hairlines is noted inside the rim between the final S in STATES and the O in OF. Breen Die State III. Heavy clash marks appear in front of the face and below the bust, heavier than on the PCGS XF40 example of this variety offered below.

1793 Chain Cent, XF40
S-3, B-4, AMERICA Reverse

2403 1793 Chain AMERICA XF40 PCGS. S-3, B-4, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF25. This pleasing Chain cent has smooth surfaces that exhibit an attractive blend of chestnut-brown and olive with grayish-brown accents on the design high points. A tiny rim bruise is evident over LI of LIBERTY. An ancient scratch through the E of LIBERTY joins another below RTY. Trivial marks are evident at the base of the last A in AMERICA.

Breen Die State III. Clash marks appear below the bust and in front of the face. The reverse has die roughness below UNITED STATES that Breen suggests may have been from grinding away clash marks on that side.

Commentary. The mintage of 36,103 Chains cents took place during the first two weeks of March 1793, with eight deliveries dated from March 1 to March 12. The Sheldon-3 die pair is the most plentiful Chain cent variety, with an estimated total population approaching 500 coins, and that figure represents approximately half of all known Chain cents. However, most of those are low-grade examples, and the present piece ranks among the 20 finest known examples of the variety. Current condition census data suggests that only about 75 Chain cents exist in VF or better grades for all five known die pairs.

Market Notes. For all Chain cent varieties, PCGS has certified 28 examples in XF40, and 76 finer pieces, including a number of resubmissions. Market appearances are consistent with the PCGS population data. Since 1993, we have offered 42 XF Chain cents, and 37 finer examples in our auctions, including reappearances of a smaller number of coins. This example from the Adam Mervis Collection is ideal for a date or variety collection, or an advanced 18th century U.S. Mint type set.

1793 S-4, B-5 Chain Cent, AU53
Periods Obverse

2404 1793 Chain, AMERICA, Periods AU53 NGC. S-4, B-5, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF35. Most Chain cents are heavily worn, sometimes to the extent that 1793 and UNITED STATES OF AMERICA cannot be read, even under a strong light, and all that remains of the portrait is a faint outline. This important Chain coin has minimal wear, limited to the high points of the chain links and the hair behind Liberty's ear. The walnut-brown surfaces lack spots, abrasions, or planchet deficiencies. A tiny edge bump at 3:30 is the best identifier that can be found to track any future auction appearances. Chain cents are the initial type struck by the fledgling U.S. Mint, and high-grade examples are greatly outnumbered by those seeking quality examples.

Breen Die State I. This is the earliest example we have seen, and has no evidence of the die crack from the rim to hair curls. Breen comments: "Claimed to exist from perfect dies, but I have seen none." Today, a few examples are known from perfect dies.

Commentary. Sheldon-4 is the sole die marriage with periods after LIBERTY and the date. The reason for this may have been a different engraver than the initial Chain cent varieties. Liberty has a smaller nose, more luxuriant hair, and a youthful appearance. In his posthumous early cent Encyclopedia published in 2000, Walter Breen hypothesizes that "perhaps this was a sample die by Joseph Wright leading to the engravership." Breen notes that the Judd-12 1792 quarter engraved by Wright has a period after LIBERTY. He then backtracks, adding "if Wright did this, why is there no record of his part-time employment before appointment as engraver?"

Market Notes. The Periods variety is an important subtype of the Chain design. This example is the second finest that NGC has certified behind a sensational MS67 Brown example. The Mervis specimen is tied for the fifth finest Periods Chain cent in our Permanent Auction Archives, tracking Heritage auction records since 1993.

1793 S-5, B-6 Wreath Cent, AU58
Large Obverse Letters

2405 1793 Wreath, Vine and Bars AU58 NGC. S-5, B-6, R.4. Our EAC Grade XF45. Ex: Mervis Collection. Glossy chocolate-brown on the obverse with splashes of steel-brown on the high points. The reverse is similar and slighter darker in its overall appearance. Scattered surface marks are evident on both sides, failing to detract from the exceptional appearance of this high-grade Wreath cent. A line-like planchet defect below the bust point provides immediate identification of this specimen.

Breen Die State I. This piece appears to be an early die state, although the narrow rim over LIBERTY fails to permit viewing of the border outside the beads.

Commentary. The Large Letters obverse has LIBERTY close to the size appearing on the Chain cents and much larger than on any other Wreath cent obverse. The Sheldon-5 die pair is placed first in the emission sequence for its affinity with the Chain design. Del Bland and Bill Noyes each assign a grade of XF40, Bland listing this piece as tied for 12th finest, and Noyes suggesting it is tied for 11th best. Our XF45 grade would elevate this piece to a ninth place tie in both lists. The unnatural bright orange image of this piece in the Noyes 1793-94 "color book" is entirely unlike its actual lovely chocolate and steel-brown appearance.

Market Notes. For all varieties, NGC has only certified 13 Wreath cents as AU58, and 23 finer Mint State examples. PCGS has certified 18 examples in AU58, and 40 finer pieces. The combined certification data indicates the elusive nature of high-grade Wreath cents. In addition, the Sheldon-5 die pair, with Large Letters on the obverse, is a distinct type issue that enjoys a large audience. This example is the second finest NGC certified S-5 cent.

1793 S-6, B-7 Wreath Cent, Fine Details
Struck on a Obverse Brockage

- 2406 1793 Wreath Cent, Vine and Bars — Struck on Obverse Brockage, Environmental Damage — NGC Details. Fine. S-6, B-7, R.3. Our EAC Grade Good 5. Although the variety is R.3, this piece is likely unique as a Mint error. Evidence of the obverse brockage is present, although hardly plain. Incuse dentils from the brockage are evident at the upper left reverse with additional evidence behind STATES. Both sides of this pleasing chocolate and olive-brown cent exhibit numerous field marks, and the reverse has an old bisecting scratch. We find no mention of this coin in Walter Breen's Large Cent Encyclopedia. The impressive Dan Holmes Collection of Large Cent Errors had no 1793 cent errors. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection.

Early Die State; The 'Unsprung' Die

- 2407 1793 Wreath, Vine and Bars — Burnished — NGC Details. XF. S-6, B-7, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF20. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State I, with the usual obverse bulge extremely faint, if it is present at all. This example suggests the earliest possible die state, before the obverse bulge developed. Extremely important as such since the usual belief is that the bulge first appeared in the die-making process before any coins were minted. Pleasing olive and mahogany-brown surfaces show a few lines of planchet lamination and some minor surface marks that are mostly confined to the obverse. From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection.

Double Struck, Plain Edge

- 2408 1793 Wreath, Vine and Bars — Double Struck, Plain Edge — XF45 ★ NGC. S-6, B-7, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF30. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State IV, with an obvious die crack through Liberty's lower lip. An important example of the Sprung Die variety with a plain edge, the planchet having missed the edge lettering step in the minting process. Standard diameter and weight confirms that this piece was made with a plain edge, rather than the subject of later tampering. This piece is also double struck, mostly obviously on Liberty's neck, at LIBERTY, and about the reverse periphery. Two fractions are visible, the secondary impression below the right ribbon of the primary strike. Plated on page 52 of Walter Breen's Large Cent Encyclopedia. This lovely cent has mottled olive-brown, golden-tan, and dark brown patina with a few minor reverse scratches that are entirely inconsequential. The surfaces are exceptional with no corrosion or other issues. Ex: 1961 ANA (James Kelly, 8/1961), lot 1400; Bowers and Merena (3/1998), lot 98; Michael Arconti (Superior, 7/2003), lot 3. The Sprung Die Obverse

2409 1793 Wreath, Vine and Bars AU50 PCGS. CAC. S-6, B-7, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Loring Collection. The centering is slightly imperfect, although the beaded border on each side is completely visible. The surfaces display an attractive blend of olive-brown and steel patina with a few splashes of deep mahogany. Scattered handling marks on each side are consistent with the grade.

Breen Die State IV. The bulge is prominent through the left obverse field and hair to the jaw, and a crack is evident along the bulge, continuing into the right field from the lower lip. A faint crack described in the next die state is present, but the cataloger now believes that crack is actually a flaw present to some degree on all examples of the Sprung Die variety.

Commentary. Bill Noyes grades this piece XF40, with the sharpness five points finer, and lists it in a ninth place tie in his condition census. Del Bland lists seven XF40 pieces as tied for 10th best in his roster. Six of those seven pieces have not been seen for more than a quarter-century.

Market Notes. PCGS and NGC have graded several Mint State S-6 large cents, including one called MS66 Red and Brown and another graded SP66 Brown. This impressive piece is tied for the sixth finest that we have offered in the last 20 years, making its second appearance in our auctions, appearing two years ago as part of the Denis W., Loring Collection.

Provenance. Denis W. Loring Collection of 1793 Large Cents (Heritage, 1/2012), lot 3022.

1793 S-7, B-8 Cent, Fine 15
Census Level Specimen

2410 1793Wreath, Vine and Bars Fine 15 NGC. S-7, B-8, Low R.6. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Ex: Mervis Collection. Light brown toning at the borders accompanies deep steel and olive-brown patina on both sides with microscopic, antique roughness that fails to diminish the importance of this rarity. The reverse has a pleasing lighter brown appearance. There is no evidence of surface marks or other distractions on either side.

Breen Die State III. This middle die state example has the arcing die failure through the date. The surface quality is such that a further determination of the die state is impossible. Later die states have obverse cracks in areas that are obscured by the corrosion.

Commentary. The Sheldon-7 is the rarest of the Sheldon-numbered Wreath cents, with close to 30 examples known in all grades. The finest known grades XF45, and the census drops quickly with one VF and two or three Fine examples known. While this piece remains unlocated in current census records, it is equal to the sixth finest in Bland's census, and fourth finest in Noyes' listing.

Market Notes. Opportunities to acquire any example of Sheldon 7 are infrequent. In his 2006 photo book of 1793 and 1794 large cents, Bill Noyes listed the top 18 examples of the S-7 die pair, including just 30 auction appearances since 1895. Only five of those auction appearances occurred in the last 20 years.

1793 S-8, B-13 Wreath Cent, XF45
Early Die State

2411 1793 Wreath, Vine and Bars XF45 NGC. S-8, B-13, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF30. Ex: Mervis Collection. Both sides have attractive golden-tan and light chocolate toning with a few splashes of darker steel patina. The obverse of the imperfect planchet shows a few cracks that remain from production, and both sides exhibit localized microscopic porosity. The sharpness of this pleasing Wreath cent is about 10 points finer than the net EAC grade.

Breen Die State II. The date digits appear defective from die wear on this early state cent, and a faint crack connects the bust point to the border. Delicate die cracks at LIB are faintly visible on this early state piece. The reverse has a faint diagonal crack at the center, from the E to N in CENT, bisecting the centering dot, but failing to reach either branch.

Commentary. The Horizontal Twig obverse die was mated to three different reverse dies, and appears here in its last marriage according to Breen's classification scheme. Sheldon-8 and S-9 have a different vine and bars edge pattern than the other Wreath cent varieties.

Market Notes. Enough examples of the Sheldon-8 die marriage survive so that any serious collector can obtain one. The Mervis specimen falls short of the condition census, but is an attractive example for an advanced collection, and it is likely among the top two dozen survivors of the die pair.

Provenance. Unrecorded.

1793 S-9, B-12 Wreath Cent, MS64 Brown
Early Die State
A Census Level Specimen

2412 1793 Wreath, Vine and Bars MS64 Brown PCGS. S-9, B-12, R.2. Our EAC Grade MS60. Chocolate-brown surfaces exhibit frosty light tan luster on this impressive Mint State Wreath cent that shows full cartwheel. Trivial marks on Liberty's neck will help identify the provenance. Both sides have microscopic planchet marks that remain from the initial planchet production. The strike is sharp and nicely centered. The obverse has a trivial border mark at 2 o'clock, affecting a single bead.

Breen Die State III. Two reverse cracks extend through the R and I of AMERICA, although no obverse cracks have appeared on the neck, cheek, or temple of this early die state specimen. The obverse has light clash marks at Liberty's neck.

Commentary. The Sheldon-9 Wreath cent is the most plentiful die variety of the design, and examples remain in all grades through Mint State. Breen suggested that this variety composed about one-third of all Wreath cents minted in April and July, 1793. This example is not recorded in the Noyes census, nor does it appear in the Bland census. However, it is a census level specimen, fifth or sixth finest known.

Market Notes. Although a fair number of Mint State Wreath cents exist, market appearances are infrequent as examples appearing in auctions are usually purchased by established collectors with the intent of long-term ownership. We expect the same for the Mervis specimen once it finds a home in the present sale.

1793 S-10, B-10 Wreath Cent, XF Details
Injured Rim Obverse

2413 1793 Wreath, Vine and Bars — Environmental Damage — NGC Details. XF. S-10, B-10, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF20. Ex: Mervis Collection. The sharpness is considerably finer than our net EAC grade, probably XF40, or perhaps XF45. Both sides are glossy mahogany-brown with blue-steel patina on the devices. Splashes of maroon appear primarily on the reverse. Moderate, evenly distributed corrosion appears on both sides of this cent. No other marks of note appear on the obverse or reverse. The strike and centering are good with full obverse and reverse border beads.

Breen Die State I. The obverse die has an injury on the rim at about 2:30 that is present to some degree on all known examples, and that feature is diagnostic for the variety. This early die state example has the border beads complete but out of round, while later die states have the beads absent at that location. Imperfect reverse centering does not permit viewing of the border outside UNIT to determine the exact die state.

Commentary. The obverse die is shared with the unique NC-5, and the reverse die is shared with the NC-4 rarity. The S-10 is the only available variety to exhibit both dies. Del Bland records six pieces that grade AU50 or better, and Bill Noyes records the top six in grades of XF45 or better.

Market Notes. Perhaps 150 examples are known in all grades with fewer than two dozen of those grading finer than the present piece, and examples in those higher grades are seldom offered for sale.

Provenance. Purchased from Greg Hannigan with no earlier provenance recorded.

1793 S-11a, B-16a Wreath Cent, XF45
Vine and Bars Edge

2414 1793 Wreath, Vine and Bars XF45 PCGS. S-11a, B-16a, High R.4. Our EAC Grade VF30. Smooth and slightly glossy surfaces exhibit an attractive blend of olive-brown and tan. A very small patch of maroon verdigris appears between the border and top of Liberty's head at LIB. Only a few trivial handling marks are noted, and the obverse has a series of minor rim bruises from 3 o'clock to 6:30. A few minor reverse rim bruises are also noted. This example has the sharpness of XF40 with minor deductions for the rim bruises.

Breen Die State I. The usual die state for S-11a, B-16a with no clash marks, cracks, or other die defects. Breen notes a faint ridge between ONE and CENT that is not readily apparent on this example.

Commentary. This die pair is transitional, bridging the Wreath and Liberty Cap cents. Three sub-varieties exist from different edge types. The Vine and Bars edge continues from the Chain and earlier Wreath cent varieties. Later strikes had lettered edges with either two leaves (S-11b) or one leaf (S-11c).

Market Notes. This piece is equal to the eighth finest in both the Noyes and Bland census lists. Although this piece is not listed in the S-11a entry of the PCGS Population Report since it is not attributed by them, it would rank as the third finest example of the variety that service has graded.

Provenance. Purchased from Greg Hannigan but unlocated in census records.

Pleasing olive and steel-brown surfaces exhibit light granularity across both sides. However, despite the NGC disclaimer, we see no evidence that metal has been mechanically moved as the term Whizzed suggests. 2418 1793 Wreath, Lettered Edge AU58 PCGS. S-11c, B-16c, Low R.3. Our EAC Grade XF45. Ex: Husak Collection. A splendid piece with Average surfaces according to Bill Noyes, but perhaps deserving an Above Average designation. Both sides retain considerable luster with pleasing light brown color and iridescent blue toning. A small dark stain is evident at the lower right obverse. A thin diagonal line of lamination can be seen through the center reverse.

Breen Die State III. A remarkable example with heavy clash marks at Liberty's neck and in the right field. Virtually all of AMERICA can be read in the obverse field.

Commentary. The obverse is illustrated in Early American Cents and Penny Whimsy. The obverse and reverse are illustrated in Noyes (2006). S-11a, 11b, and 11c are considered separate subvarieties, each struck from the same die pair with different edge devices. It is believed that the three subvarieties were the last Wreath cents coined, in early July 1793. The Lettered Edge of S-11c continued to the Liberty Cap series. On July 6, 1793, the coiner delivered 11,825 coins to the treasurer. One additional delivery of 176 coins was dated July 17, 1793. In the past some have speculated that the Strawberry Leaf cents were the odd 176 coins delivered July 17. Breen pointed out the Vine and Bars Edge of those coins, asking why they would have been produced after all of the Lettered Edge coins were struck.

In Early American Cents, Sheldon described a scene from one of the Chapman brothers, probably Henry, who actually employed Sheldon for a period of time: "Chapman used to have a special box in which he kept quantities of 3-C's, 9-H's, and 11-J's [Sheldon-3, 9, 11], and this was always the first box brought out for prospective customers who 'wanted to see some 1793 cents.' More carefully guarded stocks were brought forth only if the customer displayed enough knowledge of the coins to warrant such a courtesy."

Market Notes. In addition to a single Mint State specimen, about a dozen pieces grade XF or AU, per Noyes. This piece ranks at the low end of the traditional Condition Census, consisting of the six finest examples of each variety.

Lot 2419: Unique 1793 NC-2 Strawberry Leaf Cent

1793 NC-2, B-14 Cent, Fair 2
The Unique NC-2 Strawberry Leaf Cent
Likely Wreath Cent Pattern Issue

2419 1793 Strawberry Leaf Fair 2 PCGS. NC-2, B-14, High R.8. Also, Pollock-16. Our EAC Grade Fair 2. Ex: Dan Holmes Collection. Although the date is absent (the digits 17 are faintly visible), LIBERTY is complete, and the head and all-important strawberry leaves are outlined. Both sides exhibit slight roughness, faint hairlines, and a small rim bruise, all acquired during its 50 years in circulation, this remarkable cent must be called Above Average or Choice, based on current early copper grading guidelines.

Breen Die State I. It is believed that both dies are perfect, although the grade of this piece makes that determination impossible. As the unique survivor from the die pair, the issue of die state is meaningless.

Commentary. Only 10 collectors have owned this coin since it was saved from circulation 168 years ago. A few dealer intermediaries also bought and sold this coin during those years. This important cent had its reverse plated in Sylvester S. Crosby's work on 1793 cents, and in Sheldon's Early American Cents and Penny Whimsy. The obverse and reverse are plated in the Noyes reference. The illustration in Breen's Large Cent Encyclopedia is from an electrotype copy of this cent. This cent has been plated in other references as well.

Over their long and storied history, the Strawberry Leaf cents have been called many things. Dr. J. Hewitt Judd omitted them from his pattern reference, but Andrew W. Pollock, III, included these coins in his book on pattern issues. Dr. Sheldon called them patterns. Earlier, Dr. Thomas Hall also called them patterns. Crosby regarded these pieces as true cents. John Kleeberg called them contemporary counterfeits. Walter Breen wrote: "Whatever they may be, they are not counterfeits."

None of the dies show any evidence of deterioration, so why was the production limited? No records exist to tell us how many were struck, but the number must have been small as only four are known today. All four surviving examples are in low grade and the finest known piece carries an EAC grade of just VG7.

Market Notes. The present offering is only the fifth auction appearance in the entire history of this extraordinarily important 1793 cent. The first appearance of any 1793 Strawberry Leaf cent was the NC-3 that appeared in the 1879 Ed Frossard sale of the Merritt Collection. Since then, there have only been 14 auction appearances of any example that we know of. Those auction appearances were in 1879, 1880, 1887, 1888, 1890, 1894, 1895, 1950, 1959, 1984 (2), 2004, and 2009 (2).

Botany: Exactly what the leaves over the date are intended to represent is uncertain. Today, these coins are called the Strawberry Leaf cents, and that term has been used for more than a century. In 1895, the Chapman Brothers described this cent as the "Clover Leaf" variety. Sylvester S. Crosby, in 1897, wrote:

"The term 'Clover leaf' was applied to it when it was, I think, first brought into general notice in the American Journal of Numismatics, in April, 1869; I cannot now say by whom this name originated, and it has since been called the 'Strawberry leaf,' and more recently the 'Laurel-blossom' Cent. ... I have endeavored to ascertain the real design of the artist in placing upon this die a sprig so different from that on any other of these coins, and I am now convinced that he intended to represent a sprig of three leaves and a boll of cotton."

A side-by-side comparison of the actual plants shows that none of the choices are a close match, and the cataloger is certainly not suggesting a change to the traditional name of Strawberry Leaf, but the cotton leaves and boll seem to be the best choice.

Provenance. John Meader, who pulled this coin from circulation in 1845, according to Del Bland in his census published in Walter Breen's Large Cent Encyclopedia (12/1868); Richard B. Winsor (S.H. & H. Chapman, 12/1895), lot 823; Sylvester S. Crosby (4/1896); Dr. Thomas Hall (9/7/1909); Virgil M. Brand; Brand Estate (2/7/1941); B.G. 1793 NC-3, B-15 Cent, Good 4
The Extremely Rare NC-3 Strawberry Leaf Cent

2420 1793 Strawberry Leaf Good 4 PCGS. NC-3, B-15, Low R.8. Also, Pollock-17. Our EAC Grade Good 4. Ex: Dan Holmes Collection. Although a finer example exists with an EAC grade of VG7, this example has the sharpest detail of any existing Strawberry Leaf cent. The actual sharpness is at least Fine 12, or perhaps even finer. Both sides are covered in moderate corrosion that is a trifle stronger on the obverse. The fields are blue-steel, and the devices are light brown. The obverse has a tiny rim bruise over BE of LIBERTY and the reverse has a small rim bruise over ST of STATES. The date is distorted but readable, and the strawberry leaves are fully visible.

Breen Die State. There is no apparent die deterioration on any of the three known examples.

Commentary. For more than 60 years, the provenance of the unique NC-2 and this NC-3 have been nearly identical. The present sale may see the two pieces remain together, or may see them take separate paths.

While the Strawberry Leaf cents have been known by several names, and have been classed as various types of coins, from true cents, to contemporary counterfeits, to patterns, new evidence suggests that the pattern classification is most likely. The fact that none of the four known examples shows any evidence of die deterioration indicates that they were struck as samples of a proposed new design, and that design was discarded along with the dies.

The 2004 Study. At the 2001 ANA Convention in Atlanta, Georgia, famous numismatic scholar Eric P. Newman suggested to Dan Holmes that an edge study of 1793 Wreath cents might reveal the true nature of the Strawberry Leaf cents. A little more than three years passed until that study finally took place in December 2004 at the American Numismatic Society. The study participants included Dan Holmes, who owned the two examples offered in the present sale, along with Bob Grellman, John Kleeberg, Jim Neiswinter, and Robert Hoge. Three of the four known Strawberry Leaf cents were together in one place, and Holmes had previously examined the fourth known piece, along with his two, at an October 2004 coin show. All participants agreed that the edges on all four known examples were identical. A report of the gathering appeared in the March 2005 issue of Penny-Wise.

The study participants continued with an examination of the edges of all other Wreath cent varieties. The researchers discovered that the Vine and Bars edge device of the Strawberry Leaf cents was identical to that found on S-5, S-6, S-7, S-10, S-11a, NC-4, and NC-5. A second edge device was used for S-8 and S-9. A further comparison showed that the edge device of S-8 and S-9 was also identical to the Vine and Bars edge found on the Chain cents.

The 2004 study suggested that a revised emission sequence for the Wreath cents might be in order. The meeting prompted John Kleeberg to discount his own work of the previous decade where he opined that the Strawberry Leaf cents were contemporary counterfeits. The Strawberry Leaf cents were clearly products of the Philadelphia Mint in 1793, and are likely patterns to suggest a design modification.

1793 S-12, B-21 Liberty Cap Cent, VG10

- 2421 1793 Liberty Cap VG10 NGC. S-12, B-21, Low R.6. Our EAC Grade Good 6. Ex: Mervis Collection. Attractively blended olive, tan, and steel toning is evident on both sides. This piece has the sharpness of Fine 12 or better, with moderate and evenly distributed corrosion on both sides. The surfaces are free of other distractions, and the strike is bold and well centered. Both sides have full and crisp border beads. This intermediate die state has a reverse bulge affecting CE and the left branch of the wreath. Only about two dozen examples of this variety survive in all grades. Ex: Bowers and Merena (11/1999), lot 286; Chris Victor-McCawley; Scott Barrett.

1793 S-13, B-20 Liberty Cap Cent, VF30
Ideal for Date Collectors

2422 1793 Liberty Cap VF30 PCGS. S-13, B-20, High R.3. Our EAC Grade Fine 15. Ex: Hesselgesser. Dr. Robert Hesselgesser is best known for his collecting interest in early silver dollars, but his numismatic interests are far-ranging, including collections of large cents and Saint-Gaudens double eagles. This lovely Liberty Cap cent combines olive and steel-brown surfaces with splashes of golden-tan. Minor surface marks are consistent with the grade, and they are mostly blended into their surroundings and unobjectionable. A single scrape is noted behind the cap. Some loose and removable dirt adheres to the reverse of this example. Both sides have complete border beads, the reverse having wide outer margins. This piece has the sharpness of VF20, and was graded net VF20 in the Hesselgesser catalog.

Breen Die State I. Perfect dies without the late state die bulge above the ribbon bow.

Commentary. The three rare dates of the early series are 1793, 1799, and 1804. The 1793 cents are further divided into the three major types, Chain, Wreath, and Liberty Cap. Of the latter, only 11,056 examples were minted, from six different die pairs. The most plentiful of those is the Sheldon-13, with a population estimated between 250 and 350 coins. That total represents roughly 65% of all known Liberty Cap cents. This variety is the ideal candidate for date collectors who seek a single representative of the 1793 Liberty Cap cents, or for type collectors who prefer first-year-of-issue coins.

Market Notes. Equal or finer examples of the 1793 Liberty Cap cent appear at auction about once a year, and usually only when major collections such as the Mervis Collection are dispersed. For all varieties, PCGS has certified three examples in VF30, and 20 finer, including just two Mint State pieces (11/13). As always, those population figures must be taken with a grain of salt, as resubmissions of a lesser number of pieces is likely the case.

1793 S-14, B-17 Liberty Cap Cent, VF Details
Famous Bisecting Crack Variety

2423 1793 Liberty Cap — Tooled — NGC Details. VF. S-14, B-17, Low R.5. Our EAC Grade VG7. Ex: Mervis Collection. Both sides of this cent display deep steel toning with lighter brown on the high points. The surfaces are moderately corroded, with evidence of tooling to smooth them out. The strike is nicely centered with full border beads and a wide outer margin on the reverse. The only known die state has a heavy vertical die crack that bisects the obverse from the E in LIBERTY to the 3 in the date. Faint clashmarks are evident at Liberty's throat on the obverse of this cent. The Bisecting Crack is a famous 1793 large cent variety that was discovered in the late 1850s by Montroville Dickeson who described it in his 1859 American Numismatical Manual. He was born in Italy in 1817 and died in Colorado in 1879, living much of his life in Alexandria, Virginia.

'The Aristocrat'
Fifth Finest Known

2424 1793 Liberty Cap VG10 NGC. S-15, B-22, High R.6. Our EAC Grade VG-7. Ex: Mervis Collection. The sharpness is five points finer than our EAC grade with delicate to coarse hairline scratches on Liberty's portrait and elsewhere on the obverse. The mahogany, chestnut, and blue-steel surfaces show old corrosion with a few lamination defects on the reverse. The date is bold with a small obverse rim bruise at 5 o'clock.

Breen Die State I. All known examples are in the same die state, although this piece is a later die stage with advanced reverse swelling.

Commentary. Although this variety was discovered before 1869 when it appeared on the Levick plate, few have been discovered since then. Only recently, the S-15 fell out of the lofty Rarity-7 rating, as a 13th example was discovered in the summer of 2013.

A remarkably well-researched and comprehensive history of the Sheldon-15 cent was compiled by Jim Neiswinter. The Aristocrat: the Story of the 1793 Sheldon 15, was published by the author in the Spring of 2013. It is a remarkable study, one of few book-length projects that focuses on a single pair of dies.

Regarding this specimen, Neiswinter writes:

"Charles Williams was the Cincinnati collector that Dr. Sheldon wrote about in Early American Cents in 1949. At that time, Sheldon believed this cent and the French cent were two different coins. By 1958, Sheldon had realized his mistake, and he did not mention the Cincinnati collector's S15 in Penny Whimsy."

Market Notes. Bland identifies this piece as the fourth finest known, while Noyes grades it Good 6 and sixth finest known. Neiswinter lists it as the fifth finest known example. The present offering is the 30th auction appearance of any example of the 1793 S-15 cent, and the sixth appearance of the present specimen. A period of several years usually goes by between offerings.

Second Rarest Sheldon-Numbered 1793 Cap Variety

- 2425 1793 Liberty Cap — Edge Damage — NGC Details. VG. S-16, B-19, R.6. Our EAC Grade Good 4. Ex: Mervis Collection. This piece has the sharpness of VG8 with corroded steel and olive-brown surfaces, showing an obverse edge cut at 12 o'clock. Other surface marks and verdigris are lost in the corrosion. The surface quality prevents a determination of the die state. This cent is unlisted in the Bland and Noyes census lists, and ranks about 12th finest known per our EAC grade. The S-16 die marriage is the second rarest Sheldon-numbered 1793 Liberty Cap cent, behind the S-15, and slightly rarer than the S-12. *Discovered by Walter Breen in 1956; Ray Chatham (via Richard Picker); Abe Kosoff; Admiral Worthington Butler; Abe Kosoff; A-Mark (3/1973); Dr. C.R. Both sides show intermingled tan, steel-brown, and brick-red, with a few scattered marks that are consistent with the grade. The sharpness is equal to VG7 with the surfaces showing old patina and a slight bend, reducing the net grade by a few points. There are only about 20 examples of S-16 known in all grades, and this piece ranks in the 10th position per the Noyes census.

Head of 1793, Edge of 1793

2427 1794 Head of 1793 Fine 12 PCGS. S-17a, B-1a, Low R.5. Our EAC Grade VG7. 1793 Edge Device. Breen Die State I. A faint die bulge weakens the L in LIBERTY, but there are no apparent cracks or clash marks on either side. Mostly pleasing and smooth olive-brown surfaces exhibit a splash of steel patina on the portrait, and a few others on the reverse. Aside from a few modest rim bruises, the surfaces are exceptional for the grade. The usual subvariety for this die pair has the edge device of 1793 with the stem and point of the leaf pointing downward in relation to the letters. Rarity estimates suggest that 60 to 70 examples of this variety are known, and the present piece ranks in the top 20. Al Boka's 1794 census at 1794largecents.com records this coin in a tie for 20th place.

The extremely rare subvariety for this die pair has the edge device of 1793 with the stem and point of the leaf pointing upward in relation to the letters. C. Douglas Smith identified this subvariety in 1950, and the second example (Fair 2) was discovered almost half a century later in 1996. No others have been located.

Although both sides of this piece show moderate, old corrosion, the attractive surfaces exhibit deep olive with a few areas of darker steel, most notably in the left obverse field. The portrait is outlined with a full date on the obverse, although LIBERTY is mostly absent. The reverse has much of the wreath detail remaining, with more than half the letters still visible.

The reverse is clashed and lapped, with traces of clash marks inside the wreath, and with the right ribbon fragmented. Although the edge is not visible through the holder, the die state indicates the 1794 edge device, as does the condition of this piece. Splendid golden-tan surfaces with deeper color at the worn areas of the high points. Small splashes of brick red patina appear at the lower right reverse. Softly luminous surfaces show a number of fine abrasions, but serious marks are nearly nonexistent. The obverse has a minor rim nick at 8 o'clock that may help identify the provenance. Only 17 pieces in Al Boka's census are identified in grades of VF25 or better. We assigned an overly conservative EAC grade of Fine 15 to this piece in 2009.

1794 S-19a, B-3a Cent, VF30
Head of 1793, Edge of 1793
A Census Level Specimen

2433 1794 Head of 1793 VF30 PCGS. S-19a, B-3a, High R.5. Our EAC Grade Fine 15. Ex: Husak Collection. 1793 Edge Device. Breen Die State I with a light obverse die bulge from the cap to middle hair curls. The surfaces are glossy and dark brown, as expected from the crude, darker planchets used on this variety. Lightly abraded with traces of corrosion on the lower reverse; dark maroon patina can be seen on each side. The obverse has a minuscule rim bruise at 2 o'clock. Portions of the reverse are covered with an unidentified, possibly removable substance. As so often on the early cents, the description of imperfections makes the coin sound worse than it actually is.

Commentary. Breen suggested that all of the Head of '93 cents were coined January 10 - 13, 1794, with a delivery of 11,000 pieces on the latter date. Some of these were probably struck from the new copper that arrived in November 1793 from Taylor and Bailey of London.

Maris identified S-19 as the "ugly tooth" reverse, since the denticles are long and heavy with sharp points. Perhaps not the most endearing of descriptions, but the desirability of this variety is derived from its rarity and not superior die engraving.

Census Notes. Although this example has the second best sharpness of any known example, it ranks lower in the Census due to minor grade deductions. Del Bland records it as third finest in his Census, while Bill Noyes ranks the coin as fifth finest. The finest example is a VF30 coin from the Daniel Holmes Collection, graded AU50 by Sheldon and identified by him in 1949 as the only high-grade, light-colored example he had seen. It is also identified by Bland as the discovery coin for the variety, with a pedigree dating back to Harlan P. Smith, circa 1900.

Sheldon described the present coin from the Dupont Collection as second finest known in Penny Whimsy. Two others, including one in the ANS, grade VF20. Just over 30 examples are known today, at least half discovered in the past 25 years. Most of the recently discovered examples are in lower grades. Five of the top six have been known for more than 50 years.

2445 1794 Head of 1794 AU55 NGC. S-24, B-8, R.1. Our EAC Grade VF30. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State V. The obverse is cracked with die rust on Liberty's neck. This cent has the sharpness of XF40 with mahogany surfaces that show some pale blue-green splashes on each side. A few small pits and spots appear on each side, noticeably at the back edge of the cap. A small patch of lighter scratches appear under the L in LIBERTY where a small spot was removed. The reverse has an old scratch by the right ribbon.

The Jack Borckardt Specimen

2446 1794 Head of 1794 VF30 NGC. NC-8, B-14, Low R.8. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State I, the usual state with a crack through the TA in STATES to the wreath. Dark olive-brown is blended with lighter chocolate to create a pleasing, smooth appearance. A few faint lines at the upper right obverse are completely blended with the surrounding surface.

Commentary. For the present cataloger, this piece brings back memories from more than a quarter century ago. My father, Jack Borckardt, purchased this piece at a Charlotte, North Carolina coin show in July 1987 for $400. At the time, that was 33% over the Coin Dealer Newsletter "bid" price for a Fine 1794 large cent. Attempting to determine the variety at the show proved fruitless, as it was unlisted in Sheldon. He set the coin aside and brought it home for further study. Dad asked me to attribute the coin and I also was unable to find it in the Sheldon book. A quick trip home to get notes on new varieties revealed the importance of this piece. A few days later, I took the coin with me on a visit to Dan Holmes at his Cleveland office. That afternoon, Holmes bought the coin for a five-figure price. In more than 25 years, this important 1794 cent has had just four owners: Jack Borckardt, Dan Holmes, Dan Trollan, and Adam Mervis.

Census Notes. Willard Blaisdell discovered this new variety in December 1965, and the Blaisdell specimen is still the finest known. The second example was cherry-picked on September 1982 by Richard Snow. The Snow specimen grades VG7 and is the lowest grade of the three known examples. The Borckardt specimen is the most recent discovery, and grades Fine 12.

Provenance. Jack Borckardt purchased this piece unattributed in 7/1987; Dan Holmes (Goldberg Coins, 9/2009), lot 40; Daniel Trollan (6/12/2012). From The Adam Mervis Large Cent Collection. NGC ID# 223P, PCGS# 901374

1794 NC-11, B-17 Large Cent, Fine 12
Most Recent 1794 Variety Discovery
Tied for the Finest of Seven Known

2447 1794 Head of 1794 Fine 12 NGC. NC-11, B-17, High R.7. Our EAC Grade VG8. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State I. All known examples are from a similar advanced state of the dies with lapped dies. The obverse shows detached hair points, and the reverse has broken leaves. Both sides of this sharply detailed piece have significant porosity. The sharpness is about VF30, or perhaps slightly finer, with steel-brown and tan surfaces. The porosity accounts for the net grade, and the overall eye appeal is quite positive. In our opinion, this piece might well be considered VG10 and finest known.

Commentary. The first 1794 NC-11 cent to be identified was the property of Bret Leifer when it was discovered in March 1995 by James H. Young of Massachusetts, and the second example was located by James Young, Jr. of Maryland. The two are unrelated. Since that time, five more examples have been located, including an additional example recently found by James Young, Jr. The most recently discovered 1794 NC variety is now the most plentiful of all the 1794 NC cents with seven known examples.

Census Notes. This example is considered the finest known with an EAC grade of VG8. The discovery specimen is also graded VG8, with the sharpness of a VF20 and rough surfaces. The lower grade pieces include VG7, Good 5, Good 4, AG3, and Basal State 1. The lowest grade example was discovered on eBay by Christopher B. Young, the brother of James Young, Jr. As the most recently discovered die variety, with four of the seven discovered by people named Young, perhaps this die pair should be nicknamed The Young Variety.

A single outside leaf below the I in AMERICA identifies the reverse that appears on S-27 and S-28. That feature appears nowhere else in the 1794 series. Both sides of this cent have moderately corroded surfaces that exhibit steel patina. The sharpness is close to Fine, with the details a trifle blurry from the corrosion. A rare variety, only about two dozen examples of S-27 exist in finer grades.

Egg-Shaped Planchet

- 2451 1794 Head of 1794 AU50 PCGS. S-28, B-10, R.2. Our EAC Grade XF45. Ex: Dan Holmes Collection. Breen Die State VIII. The obverse has multiple die cracks and the reverse is clashed. This piece was struck from misaligned dies on an egg-shaped, oval planchet. The still somewhat lustrous steel and chocolate-brown with lovely tan in the protected areas. The obverse is off-center to 11:30 with the tops of LIBERTY barely complete on the planchet. The lower reverse shows border dentils at the edge of the planchet below the fraction, indicating misaligned dies. The 9 and 4 in the date are faint but visible, with no trace of the other two digits.

The lower obverse exhibits myriad original planchet marks that were not obliterated when this piece was struck. Likewise, the upper reverse has similar marks with ATES absent. In addition to misaligned dies, the die faces were also out of parallel, resulting in a tapered planchet. The oval planchet resulted from the misaligned, non-parallel dies. It is likely that this was the first piece struck after the dies were replaced in the press, either at the start of a new workday or after the dies were resurfaced. Press operators would certainly have noticed the result, and immediately reset the dies in the press. How this piece made it out of the Mint is anyone's guess, but we are surely glad it did!

2452 1794 Head of 1794 MS63 Brown PCGS. S-28, B-10, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Dan Holmes Collection. Breen Die State VI with a network of faint die cracks in the obverse field, and faint clash marks on the left interior of the wreath. Well struck aside from OF and the far right obverse field. Chocolate-brown patina occasionally cedes to medium lavender hues. There is a faint mark on the cheek and a couple of small planchet flaws on the upper right reverse, but the surfaces are otherwise smooth.

Commentary. The distinctive reverse die, shared on S-27 and S-28, has a single leaf outside the branch under the I in AMERICA. This is one of those dies that can be identified at a glance in all grades. The obverse of S-28 has five hair locks vertically aligned.

Census Notes. This piece is recorded as tied with four others for fifth finest known in Bland's census. Noyes grades the piece XF45 and 14th finest in his census. The Holmes catalog made no mention of the provenance before 1989.

Condition Census Specimen

2457 1794 Head of 1794 MS64 Brown PCGS. S-31, B-13, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS60. Ex: Dan Holmes Collection. Breen Die State II. The dies are lapped to remove clash marks, with prominent field chips. There are no other die defects on either side of this specimen. Full borders, sharp details, and excellent centering indicate the quality of the strike; the obverse appears sharper than the reverse. A highly appealing Mint State example with gorgeous steel-brown color and hints of pale blue toning. Both sides have uniform mint frost. A faint diagonal mark below CENT will help trace the provenance of this piece.

Commentary. The Marred Field. Fraction bar long, extending past 100 to the left and right. The obverse appears on S-30 and S-31. The reverse appears on S-31. Lettered Edge, leaf points up. Sheldon identified three different obverse dies with chips in the field. He assigned obverse 11 to S-30, obverse 12 to S-31, and obverse 17 to S-38, S-39, S-40, and NC-2. Bill Noyes considered S-30 and S-31 to be from the same obverse die and the remaining varieties from a second die. Walter Breen felt that all six die varieties are from a single obverse. There are many similarities to the obverses of all six, such as the border dentilation, with exactly 85 dentils on each variety. There are also several differences that suggest Sheldon's assessment was correct.

In Early American Cents and Penny Whimsy, Sheldon wrote: "This obverse shows nearly the same little breaks in the field, or chips out of the die, as the preceding one, but now they are larger or more developed. The peculiar similarity of these injuries remains a source of numismatic mystery. Maris, Frossard, Hays, and Chapman thought that the two obverses came from totally different dies, but others have considered that obverse 12 is from the same hub die as obverse 11, although the many minor differences indicate that there must have been a great amount of retouching and retooling before obverse 12 was considered ready for use. I am inclined to this latter view. Possibly the engraver was disturbed over the manner in which obverse 11 seemed to blur out its reverse mate, and he may have approached the task of 'dressing down' this obverse with considerable energy."

Sheldon-31 ranks among the most plentiful of all 1794 die marriages, and quite a few high-quality pieces are known. At least 20 examples of this variety exist in XF or better grades, many with above-average or choice surfaces. It is an excellent choice for collectors seeking an example to illustrate the type, or others who seek an example of each individual date.

Census Notes. Del Bland grades three examples MS61 and six others MS60, including this piece. Bill Noyes grades just five pieces Mint State, including this coin and one other MS65 piece, considered tied for finest known. At least four Mint State examples were known at the time of Sheldon's publication of Penny Whimsy, and seven were recorded in the "Early Cent Revision" that appeared in the May 1973 issue of Penny-Wise. The "Early Cent Revision" was the initial attempt at updating Penny Whimsy, with much of that research incorporated in Walter Breen's Encyclopedia of Large Cents. The revision was published through several editions of Penny-Wise in 1973 and 1974, and concentrated on updated Condition Census, rarity, and basal values, with that term revised to "basic value." The revision was a committee project undertaken by Dr. Sheldon, Denis Loring, Dorothy Paschal, Willard Blaisdell, Dane Nielsen, and John Wright.

Breen Die State V, with six wheelspoke die cracks on the reverse, and with the central reverse entirely obliterated by a massive die failure. This example has the sharpness of VG7 with pleasing tan and chocolate-brown surfaces. A small dark cut extends in from the rim at the E in LIBERTY, and two other dents on the blank part of the reverse retain dark color. None of the marks are objectionable, and the overall appearance is highly attractive. Del Bland and Al Boka itemize 28 different examples of the Wheelspoke cent at 1794largecents.com, and the Mervis specimen is a new piece that is not included on that list, bringing the population to 29 examples. This example will rank tied for 11th in the Bland-Boka census. - 2460 1794 Head of 1794 VF30 NGC. S-34, B-20, High R.5. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State I. The obverse has a rim break over LI with a faint die crack from that break down to the cap. No reverse clash marks are evident on this early state cent. This is the first of two Single Berry reverse dies, with only one berry inside the left branch of the wreath next to the ribbon bow. The two reverse dies were responsible for six varieties (S-35 - S-39, and NC-1), and each is rare. S-36 is the most plentiful of those with about 50 examples known. Cherrypickers look for the Single Berry reverse and buy the coin without a second thought.

An exceptionally attractive chocolate-brown example with darker patina in the design crevices, and with numerous minuscule circulation marks that are expected for the grade. This piece has average surfaces with no blemishes of consequence. Graded VG10 in the Holmes catalog, and similarly listed in the Boka census where it is tied for eighth finest. We feel that Fine 12 is more appropriate. Only four pieces are recorded in higher grades.

Fourth Finest Known

2464 1794 Head of 1794 VF20 NGC. S-37, B-24, High R.6. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State I. The earlier of two die states recorded in the Breen Large Cent Encyclopedia. Noyes identifies a single die state for all known examples. The Bland-Boka census at 1794largecents.com records 19 examples of this key 1794 die marriage.

This impressive two-tone cent has light tan devices with considerable dark blue-steel patina in the fields. The darker toning also appears in the crevices and protected areas of the devices. Both sides have a slightly glossy appearance on the high points from light burnishing, with no evidence of the tell-tale polished appearance usually associated with such an action. A minuscule rim bruise is noted on the reverse over the E of UNITED, and that blemish is so minor that it was not noted in the Holmes catalog.

Commentary. Known as the Steigerwalt variety, the S-37 was first identified by Charles Steigerwalt in early 1900. Dr. Sheldon knew of six examples in 1949. There were 16 examples known when the Breen Large Cent Encyclopedia was published in 2000, and today there are 19 known.

The obverse has heavy dentils at the lower left, and is very similar in appearance to the Shielded Hair obverse of S-64, S-65, and NC-6; however, the widely spaced 17 will distinguish this obverse die. The Single Berry reverse will confirm the S-37 die marriage.

Among 1794 cent collectors, the S-37 is the prized Sheldon number, and to this day is the rarest of those numbered varieties. Only the NC varieties are rarer. This is often, though not always, the last Sheldon number that collectors need for their 1794 collections.

Census Notes. Del Bland grades this piece Fine 12 and writes: "Sharpness of VF-25 but surfaces not perfectly smooth and lightly burnished." Bill Noyes also assigns a sharpness grade of VF25, with a net grade of VG10 and "Average Minus" surfaces. This piece is tied for the fourth finest known according to both Bland and Noyes. Grellman graded this cent Fine-15 in the Goldberg catalog. Our opinion is concurrent with Bland.

Bill Noyes rates the surfaces of this lovely cent as Average, and we concur with his assessment. Both sides are pleasing light brown, with wisps of light blue toning on the high points. The sharpness is slightly finer with faint hairlines on the obverse, mostly through the cap and over the ear. Bland and Noyes both carry this example as the third finest known 1794 S-38 cent. While we grade the piece VF30 rather than VF35 as they do, the relative ranks in the census remains unchanged. 2466 1794 Head of 1794 VF25 NGC. S-39, B-27, R.6. Our EAC Grade VG8. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State I. There is no evidence of obverse clash marks or the reverse die crack that crosses the left ribbon end on nearly every known example. Noyes states that the perfect reverse does not exist. Both sides of this light olive cent have traces of darker patina, with microscopic surface roughness. The obverse has a scrape that disfigures the T of LIBERTY and a minor rim bump over the E. Bland rates this piece as tied for eighth finest, and grades it Fine 12 with the sharpness of VF25 and "some porosity and nicks." Noyes states that it is the 10th finest example, with a sharpness grade of VF20, a net grade of VG8, and "Scudzy" surfaces. We agree with a net grade of VG8, but rate the surfaces Average Minus. The overall appearance is positive despite the blemishes.

The Only Mint State Specimen
The Frossard-Garrett Coin

2467 1794 Head of 1794 MS63 Brown PCGS. S-40, B-28, High R.5. Our EAC Grade MS60. Ex: Dan Holmes Collection. Breen Die State II. The central reverse shows faint signs of die buckling, but no die cracks have formed. Later die states have cracks between UN and from the rim to left foot of D. A splendid Mint State example with lustrous dark brown surfaces, the reverse slightly prooflike. Hints of original mint red color can be seen among a few of the obverse letters. Some original planchet roughness is visible along the lower right obverse border, the result of inadequate pressure when this piece was struck, despite sharp details elsewhere. In addition to the rough flan surface, the border is only faintly visible, confirming the blunt strike.

Commentary. The obverse and reverse are illustrated in Chapman, Noyes (1991 and 2006), and Breen's Encyclopedia of Large Cents. Sheldon rated this variety as Rarity-6 in both Early American Cents and Penny Whimsy. With a current rating of High Rarity-5, only a few of these have been found in the last half century.

In his Encyclopedia of Large Cents, Walter Breen identified this as Frossard's variety 18, 2nd Reverse from his 1879 Monograph. Breen's cross-reference to the Frossard Monograph is correct when Frossard's description is considered, although the plate of obverse 18 has the doubled curl of S-30 and S-31.

Census Notes. Easily the finest known example of the variety and the only Mint State specimen recorded. Three others grade AU with none that grade XF. Even though it was plated in Chapman, Dr. Sheldon was apparently unaware of this specimen. In Penny Whimsy, he wrote: "The Hays-Gilbert-Granberg coin, AU-55, and the Hall-Brand-ANS piece, EF-45, are the only occupants of the upper condition bracket so far as we know."

1794 NC-2, B-26 Cent, Fine 12
Second Finest of Three Known
Finest in Collectors' Hands

2468 1794 Head of 1794 Fine 12 NGC. NC-2, B-26, R.8. Our EAC Grade VG10. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State I. No die break appears on the reverse. There are three known specimens of NC-2, in two distinct die states, and in wildly varying grades. This example has the sharpness of VF30, with porous and somewhat corroded steel-brown surfaces, showing lighter chestnut-brown on the devices. Slight evidence of smoothing appears on the high points. However, it is still an attractive example despite the surface impairments.

Commentary. Just over half a century passed between the discoveries of the first and second examples, and another half a century passed before the third example was found. Therefore, it is reasonable to assume that the NC-2 will remain a Rarity-8 variety until sometime in the 2060s.

Census Notes. The finest known NC-2 cent is the ANS specimen, known to the numismatic community since 1910, when the variety was discovered in the Arthur Sargent Collection. That coin grades MS60, and has a prominent retained cud through ED STA on the reverse. The second known example, offered here, was discovered unattributed in 1962. This piece carries a net grade of VG10, and represents the early die state, with no evidence of the reverse die break. The third known example grades Fair 2, and was discovered in October 2012.

The Unique 1794 NC-10, B-31 Cent, VF30
Discovered in 1994

2473 1794 Head of 1794 VF30 NGC. NC-10, B-31, Unique. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Ex: Mervis Collection. Perfect dies. Listing a “Breen Die State” is illogical since this variety is unique, and both dies are perfect with no deterioration. The obverse is well centered with full border dentilation, while the reverse border is flat over OF AMERICA, suggesting the die faces were slightly out of parallel in the press. This lovely cent has an attractive two-tone appearance with chestnut and steel-brown fields, and slightly lighter brown devices. A small planchet void is noted in the wreath below the ME of AMERICA. The surfaces are nearly smooth with microscopic roughness. A tiny rim bruise over the A in STATES is partially hidden by the NGC tab.

Commentary. The appearance of two new 1794 large cent varieties in a period of eight months from July 27, 1994, to March 20, 1995, provided a challenge for the present cataloger, who at the time was editing the Breen Large Cent Encyclopedia. Breen developed his emission sequence and numbered the 1794 varieties accordingly. Throughout the manuscript, his text referred to those numbers. When the NC-10 was discovered, the placement in the emission sequence had to be determined, and the entire manuscript had to be reviewed to renumber the 1794 varieties. The process was far beyond a simple search and replace. Variety numbers appeared in the introductory material, in the 1794 chapter, and in the “Oops!” chapter. All other chapters also had to be reviewed to be certain there wasn’t a random comment somewhere else in the book that referred to a 1794 cent variety. The variety table at the end of the chapter also required updating. The process took several weeks. Eight months later, when the NC-11 was discovered, the same lengthy process was repeated, and it was hoped that the book would be published before an additional variety was discovered. Now, more than a dozen years after publication, the early copper community still awaits the discovery of NC-12.

Census Notes. Del Bland and Bill Noyes both grade this piece VG10. However, we agree with Bob Grellman that Fine 12 is more accurate.

The Norweb Specimen

2474 1794 Head of 1794 AU55 ★ NGC. S-44, B-33, R.1. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State I. The obverse is cracked through the date and along the edge of the cap. No clash marks are noted on the reverse of this earliest die state. A pleasing chocolate-brown example with smooth surfaces that show only trivial circulation marks on each side. This common variety has a surprisingly low condition census. A single Mint State coin is known, followed by five coins grading XF45 and 10 XF40 pieces according to Noyes. Bland also lists a single Mint State coin, followed by three he grades AU50 and eight that he calls XF45. Noyes records this coin from the Norweb Collection as the seventh finest known to him, and Bland grades this piece XF45 and tied for fifth finest known.

The Discovery Coin
The Finer of Two Known

2475 1794 Head of 1794 — Damaged — NGC Details. VG. NC-5, B-34, R.8. Our EAC Grade AG3. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State I, the only die state recorded for the two known 1794 NC-5 cents. Del Bland writes: "Sharpness of VG-8 but nicks, bent and hammered." The surfaces are still attractive for the grade and description, with deep steel-brown fields and rich reddish chocolate-brown devices. Some areas of the design are flattened from the hammering process used to straighten this coin. A few small rim bruises are evident, and several moderate to heavy surface marks are noted, especially on the reverse.

John Pawling discovered this variety in 1951, and consigned it to New Netherlands a year later. The exact time of discovery of the second example is uncertain. Del Bland's census, grading the coin Fair 2, notes that W. Nyles Spurlock purchased the coin in the mid-1950s, and sold it to Denis Loring in 1987. It is unknown if Spurlock recognized the variety before selling the coin, or if Loring identified the variety either before or after his purchase, or if someone else made the discovery on behalf of Spurlock.

1794 S-48, B-38 Starred Reverse Cent, Fine Details Most Famous of the 1794 Varieties

2480 1794 Starred Reverse — Improperly Cleaned — NGC Details. Fine. S-48, B-38, Low R.5. Our EAC Grade Good 4. Ex: Mervis Collection. Pennsylvania collector Terry Zerr acquired this coin from a friend of his, according to Coin World staff writer Paul Gilkes. Zerr sent it to Denis Loring, who authenticated it as a genuine Starred Reverse cent. The Zerr specimen will generate considerable debate among collectors when the subject of grade is discussed. More important than its actual grade is the fact that the reverse border is fully visible, clockwise, from 5 o'clock to nearly 12 o'clock, including 54 of the 94 stars. Most known Starred Reverse cents have obverse details sharper than the reverse, and the Zerr specimen is no exception. The obverse shows details of a Fine coin, with AG reverse details. The reddish-brown color indicates that the coin has obviously been cleaned, and the surfaces show minor porosity, in addition to irregular curved flaws on each side. It is difficult or perhaps impossible to know the source of those flaws, but they likely happened after the coin was struck. Our opinion is that this piece should be considered a Good 4, although some will likely assign a net grade of AG3. Regardless, it is a genuine Starred Reverse cent.

Commentary: The cover coin for the September 13, 2010, issue of Coin World, this Starred Reverse cent will appeal to a wide range of collectors. Discovered in the late 1870s, the Starred Reverse is the single most famous 1794 cent variety, easily ranking among the 10 most popular varieties in the entire large cent series. There are fewer than 60 examples known in all grades, ranging from the finest known that grades AU50 PCGS, down to pieces that are barely identifiable, having only a few visible stars.

The reverse die had 94 small stars interspersed with the dentils. Some of the stars are fully visible, while others are partly covered by the dentils, suggesting that the stars were probably punched into the die first. To this day, the purpose of the stars remains a mystery. In Penny Whimsy, Dr. Sheldon writes: "The stars are not quite equally spaced, and the dentils partially cover some of them. They are put in with a light punch, and since they are far too light to have been intended as a border, it is perhaps more likely that they are the result of the whim of an idle hour at the Mint."

1794 S-48, B-38 Starred Reverse Cent, AU Details
The Sharpest Example Known

2481 1794 Starred Reverse — Corrosion — NGC Details. AU. S-48, B-38, Low R.5. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State indeterminate. The corrosion prevents identification of the die state. This piece has the sharpness of AU50, or perhaps even finer, with considerable corrosion on both sides. The sharpness is greater than on any other Starred Reverse cent. The grayish steel-brown surfaces show lighter color on the high points. Every star on the reverse is visible, although a few are partially obscured by the corrosion. The strike is bold with full border dentilation on both sides.

Commentary. The Starred Reverse cent is clearly the most famous 1794 large cent, and it is likely one of the two or three most famous large cents of any variety from any year. Every large cent collector aspires to own an example, and even those on a moderate collecting budget can own a low grade coin. However, the collector who seeks an example showing all the stars will have a limited selection, and almost always at a high price. Fewer than a dozen examples from a total population of nearly 60 coins will show every star. The present piece is one of those, and the surface quality will result in an affordable price compared to most of the others.

Census Notes. This piece is tied for eighth finest known in the Boka Census at 1794largecents.com, along with four others that are also graded Fine 12. The finest known example is the AU50 PCGS example that we sold in the Husak sale of February 2008 for $632,500. Bill Noyes does not include the piece offered here in his photo book, apparently because it was unknown to the numismatic community in 2006 when his book was compiled and published. We expect that Noyes would grade this piece VG10 with “Scudzy” surfaces and place it in the 11th-place slot in his census.

1794 NC-9, B-40 Cent, Good 6
Second Finest of Four Known

- 2482 1794 Head of 1794 Good 6 NGC. NC-9, B-40, R.8. Our EAC Grade Good 6. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State II. A thick die crack bisects the reverse from 12:30 to 6 o'clock. The surfaces exhibit evenly distributed corrosion on both sides, with mahogany and steel-brown fields, and lighter chestnut-brown devices. A trivial rim nick is evident over the E in UNITED, with another hidden under the holder tab over the final A. No other marks are noted on either side. This is an attractive two-tone cent.

Only two examples were known when the Breen Large Cent Encyclopedia was published, one with a light crack at the bottom of the reverse, and the other with a bisecting crack. Today, four examples are known, and each appears to be a different die state. The present example is the latest die state, with the bisecting crack heavy, and appearing to separate the die onto two different planes, the detail minutely sharper to the right of the crack.

Chuck Furjanic discovered this variety in January 1974, and that AG3 coin is the lowest grade of the four known examples. A second example, the finest known and graded VG7, was discovered in 1986. A third, graded Good 5, was discovered in 2002, and this Good 6 example was identified in 2007.

1794 S-52, B-44 Cent, Fine Details

- 2488 1794 Head of 1794 — Corrosion — NGC Details. Fine. S-52, B-44, Low R.6. Our EAC Grade Good 4. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State indeterminate. The surfaces fail to permit identification of the die state. This piece has pleasing mahogany-brown surfaces that are moderately corroded. Sheldon-52 and 53 are of nearly equal rarity, each variety having about 30 survivors in all grades, and these two are the rarest varieties from the Closed Wreath reverse die.

Census Level Example

2490 1794 Head of 1794 AU53 NGC. S-54, B-46, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF35. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State II. Faint reverse clash marks from the obverse hair details are visible within the wreath. A tiny die crack is hidden in the hair, crossing the third hair strand behind the neck. Pleasing olive surfaces with a small patch of lighter tan above OF. Both sides have a few small splashes of deeper green-brown. A small mark is evident on Liberty's cheek, with another below the T in CENT. The Stack's cataloger described "a cheek nick but full denticles on both sides. Deep brown toning, glossy surfaces, a touch of tan at the top reverse. Steel blue overtones. A really nice overall appearance."

Commentary. The long-lasting Closed Wreath reverse die makes its final appearance, in its sixth die marriage, as discussed by Sheldon in Penny Whimsy: "This is the last appearance of the Closed Wreath reverse, which bore up heroically under six marriages in one year, and for a century and a half [now two centuries] afterward has provided cent collectors with one of their best clues to attribution."

Census Notes. Although a relatively common variety, high grade examples are nonexistent. Sheldon recorded a single XF40 coin, from the Dr. French Collection, as the finest known. Today, an AU50 coin is considered the best. This piece is tied for fourth finest in the Noyes census, and fifth finest in Bland's census

1795 S-55, B-47 Cent, MS64 Brown
The Finest Known S-55

2491 1794 Head of 1794 MS64 Brown PCGS. S-55, B-47, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Husak Collection. Breen Die State II. The obverse is always cracked from the left border to the hair, just above the sixth lock. This crack formed during the previous marriage for S-54. A faint crack in the lower curls has advanced to the bottom lock behind the shoulder, and diagonally up to the left through several hair strands. Faint clash marks can be seen in the obverse fields. An impressive piece with gorgeous mahogany surfaces, excellent cartwheel luster, and faint traces of original mint red on each side. The left obverse field has a tiny planchet defect or chip behind the cap, an excellent provenance marker.

Commentary. There is no doubt that the interpretation of grading standards has changed over the years, even in regard to the conservative criteria employed by early copper collectors. For example, Sheldon discussed this specific coin in Penny Whimsy: "The Shumway-Hines piece appears to stand alone at MS65, with the Newcomb coin an excellent second at AU50." A half century later, the Shumway-Hines piece is still considered finest known, but is only graded AU50 to MS60, depending on whose grades are preferred. The Newcomb coin is now considered XF45 by Noyes and AU50 by Bland.

Market Notes. Noyes and Bland both consider this example finest known, although they disagree about the grade. Bland calls it Mint State and Noyes grades it AU50. Noyes considers the surfaces to be average.

Bland's Third Finest Known

- 2492 1794 Head of 1794 AU55 NGC. S-56, B-48, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF45. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State II. Both sides have heavy clash marks with clear repunching visible on the A in STATES. Del Bland grades this lovely cent AU50 and third finest in his census. The sharpness is close to Mint State, and the olive and golden-brown surfaces host trivial marks of no consequence. The reverse has a few widely scattered corrosion spots.

This is the Breen Die State III plate coin, although it is clearly from die state II. Photos for the Breen Large Cent Encyclopedia came from a variety of sources, but most came from the Bowers and Merena photo files. That was back in the days of film cameras, and every photo published in a catalog was preserved in the files. Several months were spent reviewing all of those photos, and images were selected that would best illustrate the die states in the book, realizing that slight loss of detail sometimes occurred during the printing process. For that reason, situations like the present occur where the die state of the coin does not match the die state where the coin is plated. Some catalogers have alluded to "mistakes" made by the editor of that reference without giving thought to the reasons behind those choices.

Obverse clash marks are evident over the ear, indicating that part of the design is on the same plane as the field. By their nature, clash marks cannot appear at the raised areas of the design, being the recesses of the dies. Glossy steel-brown surfaces have a faint hairline on the lower obverse that is blended into its surroundings and not at all obvious. The reverse has a slightly darker patina at the left branch of the wreath. Bill Noyes grades this piece AU50 and second finest known, and Del Bland says AU50 and fifth finest known.

The reverse has a central bulge and a die crack through the D in UNITED. The late state of this variety is similar in appearance to the NC-6, except that rarity lacks the die crack through the D (and, of course, has a fraction bar). 1794 S-64, B-50 Cent, MS64 Red and Brown
The Second Finest Missing Fraction Bar Cent

2503 1794 Head of 1794, No Faction Bar MS64 Red and Brown PCGS. S-64, B-50, Low R.5. Our EAC Grade MS63. Ex: Dan Holmes Collection. Breen Die State III. The reverse is cracked through the D of UNITED, but with the center of that letter still present. Soon after this piece was struck, the interior of that letter left of the crack chipped away. That die crack begins at the border and continues through the D to a leaf, terminating at the branch stem. There are no other cracks on either die. The obverse has trivial clash marks trapped between the bottom of the cap and the upper hair locks, with no other clash marks on either side.

This impressive piece retains nearly one-third of its original red mint luster, the balance mellowing to light olive, with splashes of maroon patina on the reverse. In the Holmes catalog, Bob Grellman suggested conservatively that 20 to 25% of the original red remains. A small group of planchet voids is located at the lower left obverse, precluding a Gem grade to this otherwise virtually perfect cent. Those voids are mint-made, and should have no effect on the grade, although Bill Noyes calls this piece Mint State with a net grade of AU55 due to those planchet marks.

Commentary. The reverse die was lapped, with a shortened left ribbon end. Did that die preparation or resurfacing also remove the fraction bar? If so, could there be an extremely early die state with a fraction bar, perhaps masquerading as an S-65? Sheldon-64 has two berries outside of the leaf on the left branch between the D and S. Sheldon-65 has one berry outside of that leaf, and another between the outer leaf pair and the branch stem below the first S.

Census Notes. In all grades, about 60 to 70 examples of the Missing Fraction Bar cent are known. Only two of those coins are Mint State, and three others are AU. The balance includes six pieces that are graded XF40 or XF45. Bland recorded this piece as MS65 in the Breen Large Cent Encyclopedia, and second finest behind an MS67 prooflike piece that we offered as part of the Husak Collection. Al Boka's census lists the finest known as MS62 prooflike, and this piece as MS60.

The Discovery Coin
Tied for Finest of Three Known

2504 1794 Head of 1794 VF30 NGC. NC-6, B-49, R.8. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State I. The only identified die state, with massive die failure at the central reverse, and a radial die crack from the border between the D and first S. Splendid olive-brown surfaces have VF sharpness with blended obverse scratches and dark reverse scratches. Aside from the scratches, the surfaces are pleasing with minor grade-consistent handling marks.

Commentary. The obverse die is common to three different varieties, the NC-6, the Missing Fraction Bar S-64, and the Shielded Hair S-65. The massive die failure at the central reverse will identify this variety in the usual state. An early die state of NC-6 could exist (none are currently known), and would be identified via a single outer berry in the left branch of the wreath. See also our comments above for S-37, with a similar obverse border appearance.

Census Notes. The present example is the discovery coin that Walter Breen identified in August 1957. C. Douglas Smith found a second example in 1959, and that piece is graded the same, having less detail but no scratches on the reverse. A third example was located by Christopher Young at the 2002 ANA convention and grades VG8.

The Finest Known Example

2510 1794 Head of 1795 MS62 Brown NGC. S-68, B-60, R.5. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State V. The terminal die state for the variety with a complete bisecting die crack across the obverse, slanting slightly upward from horizontal. The crack begins at about 8:30, crosses the left field and hair, disappears along the cheek due to a trace of wear, and continues from the nose to the border about 2 o'clock. This S-68 is the finest known example of the variety, and an aesthetically pleasing specimen. The obverse has blended light and darker brown with hints of cartwheel luster. The reverse has smooth olive-brown surfaces. There are no blemishes on either side. The H and second D of HUNDRED on the edge are filled with Homer Downing's yellow ink.

Commentary. The obverse and reverse are illustrated in Noyes (1991 and 2006), and in Breen's Large Cent Encyclopedia. The "Bisecting Break" variety is another rarity that is known to the extent of fewer than 40 pieces, to the best of our knowledge. The variety is "another well-known landmark," according to Sheldon.

J. Sanford Saltus is known as the man who gave his life to numismatics. He was born on March 9, 1853, in New Haven, Connecticut, and died on June 24, 1922 in London. The coroner's report is that his was "Death by Misadventure." Found in his hotel room was a glass of ginger ale and also a glass containing a solution of potassium cyanide used for cleaning coins. It is believed that he drank from the wrong glass. Saltus served as corresponding secretary of the ANS from 1897 to 1898 and again from 1900 to 1905. He also served as president of the New York Numismatic Club and the British Numismatic Society.

Census Notes. Called AU55 by Bland and MS60 by Noyes, this specimen is easily the finest known example. Second best grades no better than XF40. In Penny Whimsy, Sheldon wrote: "The finest one seen is the Saltus-ANS-Downing coin; graded MS60 in EAC, it is here corrected to AU55."

The Finer of Two Known
The Only Example in Collectors' Hands

2515 1794 Head of 1795 VF30 NGC. NC-3, B-64, R.8. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State I, the only die state. A faint die crack crosses the D in UNITED and continues to the wreath below the first S. This lovely cent has pleasing medium brown surfaces that are borderline choice. Two shallow voids on Liberty's cheek appear to be as struck, with no readily apparent metal movement. The reverse has a tiny rim bump over the final A.

Commentary. The reverse die was first used for states I and II of S-72, showing no trace of the die crack through the D to the wreath. Then the obverse die of NC-3 was placed in the press, and a few examples were struck, with the reverse cracked. Afterward, the S-72 rejoined the reverse for later states of that variety.

Census Notes. Graded Fine 12, this example is the finer of two known NC-3 cents, and was identified in the C.H. Stearns collection that Mayflower Coin Auctions handled in 1966. The other example grades Good 6, and is the discovery coin that was identified by Ebenezer Gilbert in 1912. That coin is now part of the ANS Collection.

Breen Die State III, early, with both dies cracked, the obverse through the Y and T to the forelock and into the cap. The reverse is cracked through the D of UNITED to the left branch. Later stages of this die state have a small die chip between the T and the forelock, but that is not evident on this example. The sharpness is nearly AU, with smooth chocolate and steel-brown surfaces that have a shallow scrape on the cap, a small rim nick below the fraction, and a few small green corrosion spots on the reverse. The sharpness is equal to a census-level specimen; however, our net grade places this piece in the top 20 for the S-72 die pair.

1795 S-73, B-1 Cent, Good 6
The Hyphen Variety

- 2517 1795 Lettered Edge Good 6 NGC. S-73, B-1, Low R.5. Our EAC Grade Good 6. Breen Die State I, with the a small die bulge below the ER in LIBERTY. Known as the Hyphen Variety and named for the constant-sized die chip that connects the R and T in LIBERTY. The sharpness is a few points finer with scattered marks on the olive-brown surfaces. A few trivial rim bruises are evident, with a green corrosion spot and a darker toning spot, both on the reverse. In his Large Cent Encyclopedia, Walter Breen suggested that there were "40-odd" survivors. The actual number is likely closer to 70 in all grades.

1795 S-74, B-2 Cent, MS64 Brown
Lettered Edge
Tied for Finest Known

2518 1795 Lettered Edge MS64 Brown PCGS. S-74, B-2, High R.3. Our EAC Grade MS65. Breen Die State VI, with bold clashmarks near the C in CENT and the leaf pair beneath the ST in STATES. S-74 is identified by three characteristics. The top of the 5 is buried in the bust, the T in LIBERTY is right of the curl, and the top right of the wreath ends in a single leaf.

This is a gorgeous 1795 cent with unabraded and carbon-free surfaces. A pair of slender, faint, and parallel mint-made planchet streaks cross four leaves northeast of the T in CENT. A small planchet flake above the N in ONE and a few tiny pinpoint flakes near the Y in LIBERTY further identify the present example, whose pedigree begins with the Theodore Roosevelt administration. The strike is even and bold. Toned light chocolate-brown with a generous amount of faded pumpkin-gold about the devices.

Commentary. Specialists of 1795 cents know that the two most common varieties are S-76b and S-78, both Plain Edge varieties. The Lettered Edge varieties are significantly scarcer. The present piece is one of only two high grade S-74 cents, and the opportunity to acquire this outstanding example many not return for many years.

Census Notes. Del Bland and Bill Noyes both grade this spectacular piece MS65. Bland has it tied for finest known, and Noyes records this piece as second finest. Two lower level Mint State pieces are known, and then the census drops to AU50 and below.

Ex: Dr. George P. French

2519 1795 Lettered Edge MS64 Brown PCGS. S-75, B-3, R.3. Our EAC Grade MS60+. Ex: Husak Collection. Breen Die State V. The obverse is buckled with considerable die rust through the date area. The reverse bulge at A is evident, although that letter is not obliterated as described by Breen for Die State VI.

Olive and lighter tan are blended over frosty surfaces. A short old scratch on Liberty's cheek will identify this famous cent. Low areas inside the wreath are related to striking and have no influence on the grade. Breen notes: "Sometimes found with foreign matter having adhered to the reverse die, so that areas around ONE CENT look as though flakes had come off the planchet."

Commentary. Sheldon-75 is clearly the most plentiful 1795 Lettered Edge variety. At least a dozen Mint State examples are known, more than the other three varieties combined, affording the collector an excellent opportunity to acquire an attractive example such as the present coin.

Census Notes. A solid Mint State piece, this cent is easily within the top 10 of the variety. Just one Gem is recorded by Bland, who lists two others as MS63. Bland grades this particular cent MS60 and tied for 12th finest known. Noyes grades the coin MS63, and third finest.

This is one of two recent discoveries of the variety. Jack Beymer discovered the variety in 1979, and publicized his discovery in 1980. The discovery coin grades Basal State-1. Since then, five others have been identified, each in a low grade from Fair 2 to Good 4. Slight evidence of cleaning appears at the upper obverse on this pleasing piece. The surfaces are remarkably smooth for the grade, with trivial handling marks on each side.

This steel-brown cent has lighter brown on the devices with fine corrosion and a small patch of red verdigris on the reverse. There are only three Sheldon numbers for the Plain Edge 1795 large cents, S-76b, S-77, and S-78. Of those, S-77 is far scarcer than the other two.

Ex: Husak Collection

2525 1795 Plain Edge AU53 PCGS. S-77, B-6, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Husak Collection. Breen Die State II. An early die state with the obverse heavily lapped. The pole is disconnected and the lower locks are thinned out. No die cracks, clash marks, or bulges are present. Intermingled olive, tan, and darker brown with microscopic roughness on both sides. A few minor contact marks are evident, with additional tiny flaws from the original flan.

Commentary. Breen writes in his Large Cent Encyclopedia that the reverse die is attributed to Scot, "unlike earlier 1795 reverses." His reasoning is explained later, in the introduction to the 1796 Liberty Cap chapter: "Apparently to make his reverses look different from Gardner's 1795 dies, Scot gave them narrower leaves and dentils." Called Rarity-4 in Early American Cents and in Penny Whimsy, S-77 is still rated as a scarce variety today.

Census Notes. One Mint State piece and five AU coins are known, followed by a few XFs and VFs. The Mint State example and the finest of the AU coins are both in the ANS collection, reducing the available supply of high grade representatives. Del Bland and Bill Noyes agree, grading this coin XF40, and tied for seventh finest known.

2526 1795 Plain Edge — Double Struck — Fine 15 NGC. S-78, B-8, R.1. Our EAC Grade Fine 15. Ex: Mervis Collection. This impressive cent is double struck with nearly 90 degrees rotation between the two strikes, creating a dramatic appearance. Two dates are visible, that from the first strike in the right obverse field of the second strike. Substantial undertype is visible elsewhere on both sides. Somewhat glossy dark chocolate-brown surfaces show only a few trivial marks and faint hairlines in the obverse field. However, the surfaces are clearly above average.

Faded clash marks are still visible, although the dies have been resurfaced to eliminate the heavy clash marks of earlier die states. This impressive Liberty Cap cent has an intricate strike with bold details on both sides. The obverse is consistently olive-brown, while the reverse is steel-gray with plentiful faded red. The reverse has many overlapping sets of clash marks. Minor planchet flaws are noted near the profile and cap. Unrecorded in Del Bland's census published in the Breen Large Cent Encyclopedia. Lot 2528: The Finest Known 1795 S-79 Reeded Edge Cent

1795 S-79, B-9 Reeded Edge Cent, VG10
The Finest of Nine Known Examples
Experimental Edge Device

2528 1795 Reeded Edge VG10 PCGS. S-79, B-9, Low R.7. Also Judd-20, Pollock-29. Our EAC Grade VG8. Ex: Dan Holmes Collection. 153.4 grains. Smooth and glossy chestnut-brown surfaces are covered with myriad handling and circulation marks, although none of those marks are distracting. A tiny rim nick under the 7 and a few other minuscule marks will identify this piece in the future, not that it needs any further identification. The S-79, and this specimen in particular, are recognized as the holy grail of early cent collecting. These coins also interest pattern collectors for their experimental nature.

In 1949 when Dr. William H. Sheldon published Early American Cents, he recorded 32 non-collectible (NC) varieties, and another 28 numbered varieties that were rated R.7 or R.8. Today, there are 53 NC varieties that range from R.5 to R.8. Today, the 1795 S-79 Reeded Edge cent is the only Sheldon numbered variety in the early large cent series that retains the coveted R.7 rating.

This example is the plate coin for Wayte Raymond's Standard Catalog, 18th edition, the Judd Book, Breen's Complete Encyclopedia, and Noyes, and it is the Sheldon plate coin for the obverse.

Commentary. Pattern authorities Dr. J. Hewitt Judd and Andrew W. Pollock, III, refer to the 1795 Reeded Edge cent as an experimental piece. The nine known 1795 Reeded Edge cents were struck to the reduced weight standard for one cent coins that took effect on December 27, 1795.

In United States Pattern, Experimental and Trial Pieces, Dr. Judd writes:

"A very interesting experimental piece appeared in this year [1795]. President Washington, acting under authority from Congress, ordered a reduction in the weight of the cent after Dec. 27, 1795. The Mint authorities apparently attempted to reduce the weight by using thinner planchets, but found that the lettered edge could not be used on the thin planchets. They then tried striking some cents with a reeded edge but abandoned the idea after striking only a few pieces."

Andrew W. Pollock, III wrote in United States Patterns and Related Issues:

"A tiny number of 1795 cents weighing 168 grains are known having reeded edges. The reeding is similar to that found on silver and gold coins. It is thought these were produced experimentally in order that they might be compared with plain edge pieces. Evidently, the workmen at the Mint found that it was too difficult or uneconomical to apply the edge lettering [sic] to the thin 168-grain cent planchets."

Condition Census. The Reeded Edge cent made its first auction appearance in 1862, although that offering is untraced to any specific piece in the following roster.

Since its first appearance in 1890, there have only been 26 previous auction offerings of any of the nine known 1795 Reeded Edge Cents. That is an average of nearly five years between offerings. Like many rarities, those offerings take place in stages. The first was four offerings between 1890 and 1917, followed by an intermission of 28 years before the next auction appearance. The second stage was seven offerings from 1945 to 1953, followed by an intermission of 21 years. Five auction appearances spanned the years from 1974 to 1977, followed by a nine year intermission. There were five more offerings from 1986 to 1999, followed by another nine year gap. After a third nine year break, the present opportunity is the sixth offering since 2008. While we certainly can't predict the future, it seems that another intermission between offerings is about to take place.

1795 NC-1, B-10b Jefferson Head Cent, Fair 2
Lettered Edge; Thin Planchet

2529 1795 Jefferson Head, Lettered Edge Fair 2 PCGS. NC-1, B-10b, R.8. Our EAC Grade Fair 2. This piece has remarkably smooth, problem-free surfaces for the grade. Both sides are attractive olive-brown with a full date and LIBERTY. The head has a nearly full outline. Only a trace of reverse detail remains, showing ED of UNITED and a few leaves.

Breen Die State I. The usual die state, likely with the reverse cracks from the rim to NI, and from the rim to TE, as they appear on the higher grade example of this variety.

Commentary. The Breen Large Cent Encyclopedia lists three known examples of NC-1, separated into two subvarieties. One example is known on a thick planchet, and two (including this example) are known on a thin planchet. Both subvarieties have the edge lettered as on the first 1795 cents.

Census Notes. The sole thick planchet piece weighs 200 grains. That piece grades Fine 12 and appeared as lot 129 in the Dan Holmes sale. The finer thin planchet example, weight unknown, grades VF20 according to Del Bland. The present specimen weighs 169 grains.

1795 S-80, B-11b Jefferson Head Cent, VG10
Plain Edge

2530 1795 Jefferson Head, Plain Edge VG10 NGC. S-80, B-11b, Low R.5. Our EAC Grade VG8. This pleasing olive-brown cent has insignificant roughness on each side, with splashes of steel toning between the cap and hair, and in front of the neck. The reverse has a minuscule reddish corrosion spot at the E of UNITED, for identification. Overall, this is an attractive Jefferson Head cent. LIBERTY is complete, the head is strong with some hair detail, and the date is weak but visible. The reverse is mostly complete although STATES is mostly absent, due to imperfect centering.

Breen Die State I. Breen notes that all examples are constant, having the obverse die lapped with thin curls and serifs.

Commentary. The Jefferson Head cents should properly be described as patterns, made privately by John Harper who hoped to gain a coinage contract with the U.S. government. In fact, Andrew W. Pollock, III lists these pieces in the chapter on “Semi-Official and Private Patterns” in United States Patterns and Related Issues.

The Jefferson Head cents were struck from a single obverse die and two reverse dies. Two examples from the present die pair are known with the edge lettered, and all others have a plain edge.

Census Notes. The Noyes photo book identifies 29 distinct examples of the plain edge Jefferson Head cent, and a few more are known, but likely not many more. The population is almost certainly less than 40 examples. Noyes records the present specimen in the 21st position in his census, carrying his grade of Good 6.

- 2537 1796 Liberty Cap — Burnished — NGC Details. VF. S-83, B-4, R.4. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State II, with a heavy die crack through ERTY, and heavy scaling in the right obverse field that resembles a die crack. The surfaces exhibit microscopic roughness on both sides, with semi-glossy high points where the coin was lightly wiped, leading NGC to their opinion that this piece was burnished. However, we see no evidence of the surfaces being physically altered. S-83 is an elusive variety with only 10 pieces in Del Bland's condition census that grade better than Fine. 1796 S-84, B-5 Cent, MS61 Brown
Extensive Provenance

2538 1796 Liberty Cap MS61 Brown PCGS. S-84, B-5, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Dan Holmes Collection. A lovely chocolate-brown cent with bold details and Mint State sharpness. A low area on the reverse resulted from foreign material (probably grease or oil) on the die when this piece was struck. A few small nicks and hairlines are noted, including one near Liberty's eye, but all are trivial.

Breen Die State II. An intermediate die state with a light crack through the tops of OF. There is no evidence of reverse die lapping.

Commentary. In United States Large Cents 1795 - 1797, Bill Noyes records 32 AU or finer 1796 Liberty Cap large cents. One-third of those coins are examples of S-84. For date collectors who seek a single higher grade example, the variety offered here is the logical choice.

Census Notes. Noyes calls this example AU50, and 11th finest in his photo book. PCGS has certified 23 Mint State examples of the 1796 Liberty Cap cent, undoubtedly with considerable resubmissions.

Condition Census S-85 Cent

- 2539 1796 Liberty Cap AU50 PCGS. S-85, B-6, R.5. Our EAC Grade VF30. Breen Die State I, although with minor reverse lapping, this example was struck before the reverse die was extensively reground. Attractive dark brown and steel surfaces with excellent sharpness, and a pleasing piece overall, despite some faint scratches and abrasions. Del Bland places this piece in a tie for second place in his Condition Census, with a grade of VF35. He writes: "Sharpness of AU-50 but two obverse edge dents, one of which has been repaired, and some abrasions." Bill Noyes calls it VF25 with the sharpness of XF40 and "Average minus" surfaces. Our own opinion is right in the middle, with sharpness that approaches AU50, and a net grade of VF30.

Patriotic Double Strike

- 2541 1796 Liberty Cap — Double Struck, Second Strike Off Center — VF30 NGC. S-87, B-8, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF20. Ex: Mervis Collection. Our patriotic American clients will enjoy this piece that shows the word LIBERTY twice on the obverse, and AMERICA twice on the reverse. Apparently a late die state, Breen die State III or IV. Lovely olive-brown surfaces exhibit minimal handling marks and faint hairlines. A dramatic double strike with the second strike about 10% off center at 7 o'clock.

- 2542 1796 Liberty Cap AU53 ★ NGC. S-87, B-8, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State III. The crack from the rim to the 7 continues in an arc through the bust and pole and back to the rim at 4:30. Die rust or spalling appears between the left ribbon and the U in UNITED. Smooth olive-brown surfaces exhibit lovely light brown in the protected areas, with traces of luster. Scattered marks on both sides are inconsequential. The obverse is imperfectly centered with a wide border to the left. A small toning spot just inside the obverse border at 3 o'clock may help identify this piece. Our EAC grade is equal to the seventh finest in the Bland census.

Breen Die State I without visual evidence of the late state die crack from the 7 to the shoulder loop. Fine and uniform granularity on the dark steel surfaces results in a matte appearing finish, that NGC describes as burnishing. A few scattered marks and faint hairlines are evident on both sides, and they are consistent with the grade. S-88 is a scarce variety and the Mervis specimen is one of the top dozen examples. - 2544 1796 Liberty Cap — Burnished — NGC Details. XF. S-88, B-9, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF20. Breen Die State I, from perfect dies with no evidence of the obverse die crack. Attractive dark greenish-steel surfaces exhibit microscopic porosity with a couple dull marks in the left obverse field. The surfaces have been lightly wiped, creating a glossy appearance that NGC calls burnishing. Overall a pleasing cent that falls just outside the condition census. Double Struck

- 2545 1796 Liberty Cap — Double Struck — VG10 NGC. S-89, B-10, R.3. Our EAC Grade VG7. Breen Die State I, with no visible clash marks. This double struck cent had a few degrees rotation between the two strikes, with the date appearing as 17966. The doubling is primarily visible on the obverse, although some undertype remains on the reverse. Pleasing light to medium olive-brown surfaces with some splashes of golden-tan. A few scattered marks are noted, primarily on the reverse. Ex: Chris Victor-McCawley (12/31/1999); Scott Barrett; Tom Reynolds. PCGS# 35774

Pleasing chocolate-brown surfaces show microscopic porosity on both sides, with hints of luster in the protected areas. Most of the border dentilation remains on this imperfectly centered impression, with wide dentils at the upper obverse and lower reverse. Noyes grades this piece VF20 with the sharpness of VF35 and Average Minus surfaces, although the eye appeal is excellent for such a description. Ex: Doug Bird; Pierre Fricke; *Walter J. Inverted Reverse

2547 1796 Liberty Cap VF30 NGC. S-90, B-11, High R.5. Our EAC Grade Fine 15. Breen Die State I, the usual early die state with an inverted reverse that is rotated 180 degrees from the normal position. Deep olive and golden-brown surfaces are smooth and attractive with minimal handling marks and faint hairlines are evident on each side. A minor reverse rim anomaly remains from planchet preparation.

Fourth Finest Known

2549 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1795 AU55 NGC. S-92, B-28, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU50. Breen Die State III. A delicate die crack joins BERTY and another crack crosses the right obverse field from the lips to the border. Glossy chocolate and steel-brown surfaces are smooth and pristine. The obverse has a minuscule rim bruise near the Y in LIBERTY that is hidden under the tab. Bland and Noyes each grade this piece AU50 and fourth finest known.

Third Finest Known per Noyes

2550 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1797 Fine 12 NGC. NC-1, B-29, R.6. Our EAC Grade VG8. Breen Die State II. Die state data tells us that this variety was struck between states I and II of the S-92 variety. Walter Breen suggested that the reverse die for S-92 was replaced with this new reverse while being repaired, and returned to press for further use. In the meantime, only a small number of cents were produced from this die pair. Perhaps 20 of these have been identified, with this example tied for fourth finest known. It is not known who discovered this variety or when; however, it was listed in Ebenezer Gilbert's reference, published in 1909. Half a century later when Sheldon published Penny Whimsy in 1958, only five more had been located. This lovely cent has above average surfaces for the grade, with only faint abrasions and minor corrosion. A small rim bruise is present at 7 o'clock. Bland and Noyes each grade this piece VG8. Bland lists it as tied for fourth finest and Noyes says third finest known.

The Garrett Specimen

- 2551 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1795 AU58 PCGS. S-93, B-34, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU50. Breen Die State VI, with heavy clash marks on both sides, and the lower part of the reverse die shattered, having an extremely heavy die crack through the tops of RICA. The upper obverse is weak, and that is not a result of the strike, but of the extensive die failure at the lower reverse. A splendid olive-brown cent, this piece exhibits traces of steel toning, with hints of mint red along the portrait. Bland assigns a grade of AU55, and records this coin in a sixth place tie in his condition census. Noyes grades this piece XF45 with the sharpness of AU50, and places it eighth in his census. Graded AU55 in the Garrett catalog.

The Fourth Finest Known

- 2553 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1795 VG10 NGC. NC-2, B-31, R.7. Our EAC Grade Good 5. The sharpness is VG8, with minor roughness on the deep olive surfaces. Unobjectionable scratches are blended with the surrounding surface. The obverse is complete with a full date and LIBERTY, along with some remaining hair details. The reverse has the tops of the legend disappearing into the border.

Our EAC grade places this piece fourth in the NC-2 census, although it is unlisted in either the Bland or Noyes census. Bland recorded seven known examples in 2000, and Noyes recorded nine known in 2007.

- 2554 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1795 — Flipover Double Struck, Environmental Damage — NGC Details. XF S-95, B-35, High R.5. Our EAC Grade VF20. Breen Die State II, with clash marks over ERTY. The double strike details are best viewed on the reverse, with LIB from LIBERTY clearly visible at 1:30, and the hair ribbon visible at the top of the wreath. The sharpness is VF25, with medium olive and tan surfaces that exhibit moderate roughness. Splashes of ebony patina appear on the obverse, with traces of burgundy on the reverse. In addition to its importance as an early error, this piece also ranks among the 10 finest examples from the S-95 die pair.

The S-95 Discovery Coin
Second Finest Known

- 2555 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1795 AU55 NGC. S-95, B-35, High R.5. Our EAC Grade XF45. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State II, a late state with heavy clash marks over ERTY. Bland and Noyes both assign a net grade of XF40 to this piece, and they agree that it is second finest known. This lovely olive-brown cent has exceptional surfaces that are free of any noticeable problems, aside from a few scattered handling marks. The only significant defect is a strong rim dent over the TA in STATES that is almost entirely hidden by the NGC tab.

This S-95 cent and the preceding S-94 are both the discovery coins for the variety, and both have joined and parted company several times over the years. They came together as part of the Dr. French collection, and remained together in the T. James Clarke and Dr. Sheldon collections before parting ways. They were rejoined in the John Whitney Walter Collection, and then parted again. Now they are offered together as part of the Mervis Collection. Will they remain together, or part company once again?

Reverse Sheldon Plate

- 2556 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1795 — Burnished — NGC Details. VF. S-96, B-32, R.6. Our EAC Grade VG10. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State II, the late die state with a horizontal bisecting die crack through the T in UNITED, the upper half of CENT, and the right upright of the M in AMERICA. The reverse of this piece is plated in Early American Cents and in Penny Whimsy, and this specimen is the State II plate coin in the Breen Large Cent Encyclopedia. Its appearance “in the copper” is far finer than that illustration suggests.

The sharpness is at least five points finer than our net grade, with uniformly granular olive and steel-brown surfaces. A few small rim nicks are evident on both sides. The central design elements have a slightly glossy appearance that NGC describes as burnishing, but there is no evidence of actual smoothing that is associated with the burnishing process. This pleasing cent is the discovery coin for the variety.

On this die state, the obverse has a full cud to the tops of TY, and a die crack extending through the tops of IBER of LIBERTY. Scattered and numerous ticks from handling, none of individual consequence but collectively worthy of note. Identifiable by a small sharp nick on the left ribbon placed just below the knot. An impressive coin for the specialist that deserves considerable attention, not only for the full cud on the obverse, but the minimal wear on the devices. Listed in the Noyes Condition Census as the 10th finest.

Breen Plate Coin

2565 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1794 AU50 PCGS. S-101, B-25, Low R.5. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Husak Collection. Wonderful olive and light brown surfaces with faint abrasions on each side, but no evidence of the corrosion so often seen on the 1796 cents. Slight tripling of RTY is evident on the obverse. Nicely detailed, but weakly defined at the lower right obverse border and the left reverse border.

Breen Die State II. The reverse is faintly cracked through AMERI, but the obverse crack of State III has not appeared yet.

Commentary: Although still considered a Rarity-5 variety, S-100 is not nearly as rare or elusive as some other 1796 Draped Bust varieties, yet it is still just as hard to find in nice quality. This is probably due to the planchet source, Governor and Company Copper Miners in Wales. The planchets were of poor quality, and the Mint used those blanks, also known as Coltman blanks, when no others were available.

Census Notes: Finest known for the variety is a near-Mint State piece in the ANS Collection. This XF40 piece is the second finest, or finest in collectors' hands. Only one other coin, in the collection of Fred Borchardt, is comparable, graded XF40 by Bland or VF35 by Noyes.

Provenance: Dr. George P. French (B. Max Mehl, 1929 FPL), lot 131, $140; T. James Clarke (1944); B. Max Mehl (1948); Dr. William H. Sheldon; ANS; R.E. Naftzger, Jr. (2001); Walter Husak (Heritage, 2/2008), lot 2102.

- 2566 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1794 Fine 12 NGC. S-102, B-26, R.4. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Breen Die State II. Dark mahogany brown and attractive for the grade, with even wear and minimal surface disturbances. Scattered nicks on the lower portion of the obverse, and there is a rim dent adjacent to the lowest ribbon end. On the reverse there are scattered handling nicks, and a small pit above the E of STATES. The dentils are worn on the right side of the reverse, sharp on the left.

 Large Curved Clip

- 2567 1796 Draped Bust, LIHERTY — 10% Curved Clip, Damaged — NGC Details. Fair. S-103, B-27, R.4. Our EAC Grade AG3. An incomplete planchet with a large curved clip from 12:30 to 2:30, relative to the obverse. The obverse has a full LIHER with the TY on the missing portion of the planchet. The date is weak but visible, and half of the reverse detail remains. Both sides have some scrapes and dents on this two-tone cent. The NGC "Damaged" description is unrelated to the planchet clip.

1796 S-103, B-27 Cent, AU53
 Early American Cents Plate Coin

- 2568 1796 Draped Bust, LIHERTY AU53 NGC. S-103, B-27, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF35. Ex: Mervis Collection. An intermediate die state between the two states listed in Breen, with faint die cracks through the tops of AMERICA and OF, but with no evidence of the crack through NITED. The olive-brown surfaces have a strong gloss and may have a thin coating of carnauba wax, a favorite treatment of Dr. Sheldon. The surfaces are exceptional with only a few microscopic pits and a planchet crease through the first T in STATES. Del Bland rates this piece XF45 and fourth finest known, while Bill Noyes says VF35 and tied for fifth finest. Either way, the new owner will acquire an exceptional example of this popular variety.

- 2569 1796 Draped Bust, LIHERTY VF30 PCGS. S-104, B-45, R.3. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Ex: Husak Collection. Breen Die State III. The reverse is cracked from the border to the top of the second T in STATES, and faintly to the left top of M. The status of S-104 as the "common" LIHERTY means it is the variety that most collectors choose when seeking a single piece to represent the blundered die. At one time, the S-103 combination was considered a much higher rarity, but more have been found in recent years.

Although the S-104 ranks among the most common 1796 Draped Bust varieties, it is unknown better than XF, according to Bland, or VF according to Noyes. Bland grades the two finest pieces XF45, and Noyes grades his best two as just VF35. Two of the top six examples are in the ANS Collection, and another is in the Carnegie Institute. Sheldon graded the finest piece AU50 in both editions of his reference.

Lovely olive-brown surfaces with a narrow rim bruise at 10 o'clock on the obverse. Unevenly struck with the lower right obverse and upper right reverse weakly defined, the drapery and OF showing little detail.

Early Die State

- 2570 1796 Draped Bust, LIHERTY VF35 NGC. S-104, B-45, R.3. Our EAC Grade Fine 15. Breen Die State I. There is no evidence of reverse die cracks on this lightly corroded dark steel and olive-brown cent. The obverse has old scratches from the forehead to the Y and border, and old dull marks near the eye. This piece does not appear in the Noyes photo book, so he likely grades it VG10 or less. It merits further examination, as the sharpness is at least VF20.

- 2571 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1797 — Burnished — NGC Details. XF. S-105, B-44, Low R.5. Our EAC Grade Fine 15. Breen Die State II with minor clash marks in the usual locations on the obverse and reverse. The sharpness is at least XF, with olive and steel-brown toning over uniform granularity, and hints of corrosion on the reverse. The obverse has a small planchet defect on Liberty's face. The glossy surfaces led NGC to opine that this coin is burnished, although the characteristic polished appearance is not present. Bland grades this piece VF35 and Noyes calls it Fine 15. They both list it as second finest known.

2573 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1794 — Hair Engraved, Burnished — NGC Details. XF S-106, B-14, High R.4. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Breen Die State II, with a light reverse clash mark but no die cracks. The hair has been reengraved and the corroded surfaces are burnished on this light olive and greenish-gold example. Bland grades this piece Fine 15 and tied for 10th finest known. He writes: "Sharpness of EF-45 but light looking, burnished, cleaned, and retoned." The sharpness grade is hard to determine due to the engraved hair detail, but the reverse suggests a sharpness grade of VF30 or so.

The Seventh Best

2574 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1794 VG8 NGC. S-107, B-13, R.5. Our EAC Grade Good 5. Breen Die State I with no obverse rim break. Smooth olive and dark steel-brown surfaces with light tan devices. This pleasing cent has excellent surfaces for the grade. Minuscule rim bruises are noted above the E and Y in LIBERTY, the latter covered by the NGC tab. Bland grades this example VG7 and tied for seventh finest known. Noyes concurs on both counts.

Breen Die State III with a faint crack through LIBER, although it is difficult to see through the old corrosion on the surfaces of this dark steel cent. Both sides have patches of red and green corrosion. Below the condition census, but still an important cent, representing the variety that Breen placed first in the 1796 Draped Bust emission sequence.

2576 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1794 — Burnished — NGC Details. AU. S-109, B-15, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF20. Breen Die State IV, showing a short die crack from the rim to the forelock, through the T in LIBERTY. Cleaned and retoned to attractive chocolate-brown with tan color around the reverse devices. This piece has bold design details with uniform microscopic granularity, along with trivial pitmarks on each side. A small patch of maroon corrosion is evident below the Y in LIBERTY. Other signs of circulation are inconsequential.

Late Stage Middle Die State

- 2577 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1794 AU53 PCGS. S-110, B-16, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF35. Breen Die State VII, with all die defects except the late state obverse rim break over TY. Splendid olive-brown surfaces have a few darker toning spots on the obverse, and dull green and maroon patina on the reverse. A patch of fine hairlines is evident behind the hair ribbon. Unlocated in either the Bland or Noyes census, but our EAC grade would place this piece in a tie for ninth in the Bland census list, and alone in the sixth position in the Noyes record.

Fourth Discovered Example

- 2579 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1794 AG3 NGC. NC-5, B-18, Low R.7. Our EAC Grade Fair 2. Breen Die State I, and the only die state he recorded for this extremely rare variety. Although a few faint hairlines are noted on the obverse, the medium brown surfaces are remarkably smooth and attractive for the grade. There are only 10 known examples of the 1796 NC-5 cent, and the Mervis Collection has two of them. This example is graded AG3 and tied for sixth finest of seven examples recorded by Del Bland. It is graded Fair 2 and eighth finest of nine examples listed by Bill Noyes. Grellman wrote that there were eight known in the Holmes catalog. See the next lot for the 10th known example. When Chuck Furjanic cherry-picked this example in 1971, it became the fourth known.

- 2588 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1797 — Burnished — NGC Details. AU. S-118, B-39, High R.5. Our EAC Grade VF30. Breen Die State II. A narrow rim break crosses several dentils just left of the fraction. Light corrosion results in slightly matte surfaces on this cleaned and retoned example. Both sides exhibit glossy blue-steel and olive-brown surfaces with eye appeal resulting from a thin layer of wax, probably applied by Dr. William H. Sheldon. The wax layer led NGC to described this coin as burnished. Bland rates this piece second finest behind the ANS coin, with a grade of VF35. A Nichols Find Cent

- 2589 1796 Draped Bust, Reverse of 1797 MS62 Brown PCGS. S-119, B-40, R.3. Our EAC Grade MS61. Breen Die State II with obverse die cracks and clash marks, and with a small rim break over the TA in STATES that is confined to two dentils. The other reverse die cracks of State I are also present. This is one of three varieties that made up the famous Nichols Find of 1796 and 1797 large cents. The other two varieties are 1797 S-123 and S-135. The Nichols Find is responsible for the majority of Mint State 1796 to 1798 First Hair Style large cents, allowing type collectors the chance to enjoy a high grade example of this early Draped Bust design. Lovely golden-tan and light olive surfaces have a few maroon patina spots in the right obverse field, and both sides have myriad flan marks remaining from planchet preparation that cause design weakness at the face and lower wreath.

- 2597 1797 Reverse of 1797, Stems — Burnished — NGC Details. XF S-122, B-9, High R.5. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Breen Die State III, struck before a rim break develops on IC of AMERICA. This piece is the Early American Cents and Penny Whimsy plate coin, and it is plated in the Breen Large Cent Encyclopedia, and in Noyes. The sharpness is VF20 with lovely olive and steel surfaces that are glossy from a layer of wax, perhaps applied by Dr. Sheldon. In the Holmes catalog, Bob Grellman refers to such coins as being “Sheldonized.” The wax was primarily intended to protect the surfaces from future handling. A faint diagonal scratch is noted on the neck and hair below the ear, and a few other trivial marks are visible on each side. Bland grades this piece VF20 and finest known, while Noyes grades it Fine 12 and tied for second finest known. The finest in the Noyes list is impounded in the ANS Collection, so this piece is the best that a collector can hope to obtain.

- 2598 1797 Reverse of 1797, Stems VG8 NGC. NC-2, B-10, R.6. Our EAC Grade VG7. Breen Die State III. Dark olive patina through the fields with slightly lighter devices. Identifiable by a rim dent over the N of UNITED. On the reverse the rim cud extends over D ST of UNITED STATES. A very acceptable example of this rare die pairing, and a coin that would be hard to best despite the surface roughness. This is the ninth finest in the Noyes Census of the variety, and tied for 11th best according to Del Bland.

- 2599 1797 Reverse of 1797, Stems Good 6 NGC. NC-3, B-11, Low R.6. Our EAC Grade Good 5. Breen Die State I, without reverse die cracks. This medium reddish-chocolate example has generally attractive surfaces that exhibit old corrosion on each side, with a few small marks that include a minor rim bruise over ER of LIBERTY, and another over the final A in AMERICA. The upper obverse and lower reverse are weaker than the opposing points due to misaligned dies with non-parallel faces. Bland grades this piece Good 4 and tied for ninth finest, and Noyes calls it Good 5 and tied for seventh best.

Important Nichols Find Variety

- 2600 1797 Reverse of 1797, Stems MS63 Brown PCGS. S-123, B-12, R.4. Our EAC Grade MS60. Breen Die State III, with a tiny rim break between two dentils over the A in STATES. The three varieties of the Nichols Find were struck about the same time. In fact, the 1796 S-119 offered earlier and from the same reverse die, was struck after this example. The reverse rim break is lighter on this example than on the S-119.

This lovely piece has reflective reddish-chocolate and golden-tan surfaces with strong design definition, especially on the obverse. The surfaces have full cartwheel luster. Scattered marks remain from the planchet stock with only a few post-strike imperfections.

- 2601 1797 Reverse of 1797, Stems — Edge/Rim Damage — PCGS Genuine. NC-5, B-13, R.6. Our EAC Grade Good 5. Breen Die State I. The obverse has a small wedge shaped mark at the border at 4 o'clock. The sharpness is VG8, with a few points deducted for that edge mark and for microscopically granular surfaces. The obverse is a trifle dull with dark reddish-chocolate toning. The reverse is golden-brown and tan with some dark steel verdigris.

Breen Die State V, with a heavy bulge at the end of the bust, although the date and legends are all strong. This lovely olive-brown cent has considerable maroon patina, creating an attractive blend of colors. The surfaces are pleasing with a few grade-consistent marks, and insignificant reverse roughness. Bland grades this piece Fine 15 and tied for second finest known. Noyes grades it Fine 12, and also tied for second finest known. Grellman agreed with Bland's grade in the Holmes catalog, and we agree with Noyes.

- 2606 1797 Reverse of 1797, Stems — Tooled — NGC Details. XF. S-127, B-17, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF25. Breen Die State II. Walter Breen credited the discovery of this variety to Dr. Sheldon in 1931; however, he also provided a "McGirk" number equivalent in his text of the Large Cent Encyclopedia. McGirk's research was published in The Numismatist during 1913 and 1914. Therefore, Dr. Charles McGirk should be credited as the discoverer of this variety. This is a delightful cent with deep brown color intermingled with mahogany patina. A few old scratches limit the net grade. It is those scratches that NGC interpreted as "tooled." Bland grades this piece VF25 and tied for third finest known. Noyes also grades it VF25 and tied for fourth finest known.

Early Die State

2611 1797 Reverse of 1797, No Stems AU55 NGC. S-131, B-27, R.2. Our EAC Grade VF30. Ex: Mervis Collection. A lovely chestnut and olive-brown cent with traces of faded red on the obverse. Both sides show minor scratches that are blended with the surrounding surface, and scattered handling marks. A dark toning spot is evident right of the Y in LIBERTY. Splashes of dark patina are noted on the reverse.

Breen Die State II. The obverse is equal to the latest die state of S-130, with a faint vertical die crack in the right field.

Commentary: The obverse die appears on S-129, S-130, S-131, and NC-8. The large break in the left obverse field develops during its use on S-130. There are two No Stems reverse dies for the 1797 cents. The reverse of S-131 is also found on S-132 and S-133. The other reverse is found on S-143 and NC-8.

Because two varieties combine the broken obverse die with each of the No Stems reverse dies, it is important to study all examples of S-131 carefully to be certain they are not actually examples of NC-8.

Census Notes: Bland and Noyes each grade this piece XF40 and second finest known. They both grade the finest known example XF45, and list only one other XF example.

- 2612 1797 Reverse of 1797, No Stems VF25 NGC. S-132, B-28, High R.5. Our EAC Grade VG10. Breen Die State II. In this die state a narrow rim break joins three dentils above IC on the reverse. Breen comments that this variety is "often banged up or even mutilated," so this attractive and rare coin with minimal distractions should fetch a nice premium. This example is struck on a dark-brown, slightly porous planchet. A couple of small obverse pits reveal themselves under a glass, and there is a reverse nick on the leftmost top leaf. The coin is nicely detailed for the grade, with about two-thirds of the obverse dentilation present. The reverse is weak at NE and OF A, but nearly all of the reverse dentilation is visible. An appealing specimen, and another important opportunity for the variety specialist. Del Bland has graded this example Fine 15 and tied for sixth finest known, while Bill Noyes says VG10 and 12th finest known. A significant pedigree adds even more.

- 2613 1797 Reverse of 1797, No Stems — Obverse Scratched — NGC Details. XF. S-133, B-29, R.5. Our EAC Grade VF20. Breen Die State V. The latest die state that Breen recorded, with an obverse die crack from the border to the neck, and another from the border to the lowest hair curl, the latter crack faint. Heavy obverse clash marks are clearly visible, and a narrow reverse rim break affects five dentils over IC. The sharpness of this piece is slightly finer, although the obverse device has several faint scratches that are now toned over and nearly invisible. The reverse has a small rim nick over M in AMERICA and a small greenish spot inside the right branch. Otherwise, it is a pleasing cent with glossy medium brown patina and hints of reddish color in the protected areas. Two of the top three pieces are in the ANS Collection, placing this coin in a tie for second finest in collectors' hands. Bland records the collectible census as: 25-25-20-20-12-12. Noyes ranks the top six collectible pieces as: 30-20-20-20-12-10.

- 2614 1797 Reverse of 1797, Stems VF35 NGC. S-134, B-4, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF30. Breen Die State IV. This coin has a die crack connecting the 9 and last 7 in the date. There is bulging near the date and lower back curls, with die rust present. There is a die chip in the field before Liberty's throat. Two reverse die cracks above (M)E have joined. This lovely example is well-detailed for the grade and struck on a glossy, medium-brown planchet. Examination with a glass shows a light scrape before Liberty's face, with a minute dig above T in LIBERTY. There are no mentionable marks on the hair, face, or neck, and excellent delineation at the demarcation between hairline and forehead. This coin is extremely well centered, with all dentilation showing on the obverse. The reverse dentilation is weak in the lower left quadrant. A lovely and largely problem-free representative of this variety. Noyes grades this piece VF30 and tied for eighth finest known.

- 2615 1797 Reverse of 1797, Stems MS63 Brown NGC. S-135, B-5, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Jules Reiver Collection. Breen Die State II. The present lovely example of the S-135 is well centered, with full dentilation showing on both sides. The coin is a light milk chocolate-brown, with red highlights in the peripheries. The planchet shows light roughness in the center, with some parallel planchet striations on Liberty's neck. The reverse strike is weak at CENT. There are no significant marks or abrasions to quibble about. The planchet is lightly pinched, as made, at the rim above the B in LIBERTY, and oppositely below the 1 in the fraction. Two minute planchet pits in the left obverse field behind the ribbon, as made, will serve as future pedigree markers. A fine opportunity for the variety, date, or type collector to acquire an example of this beautiful and historically significant coin. Borderline Red and Brown

- 2616 1797 Reverse of 1797, Stems MS64 Brown PCGS. S-135, B-5, R.3. Our EAC Grade MS62. Breen Die State IV. Benjamin Goodhue (1748-1814) of Salem, Massachusetts, was a merchant, a U.S. Representative and Senator, and a member of the first Continental Congress who drafted the bill for the formation of the District of Columbia. In December 1797 he bought a bag of as many as 1,000 Mint State cents directly from a bank or the Mint, passing them down to his daughters. In 1863 David Nichols, of Gallows Hill near Salem, disposed of those cents at or near face value, hence the name "Nichols Find" that has attached to the hoard. Virtually all of the Nichols Find cents are of three varieties: the S-119 of 1796 and the S-123 and S-135 of 1797, all rarer in Fine condition than in Mint State. These historic Nichols Find varieties offer collectors the opportunity to acquire Mint State specimens that surely would not otherwise exist in such quantities. They are also a historical record of the first copper planchets bought from the Soho Mint near Birmingham, England, directed by Matthew Boulton.

Satin surfaces exhibit light bluish-brown toning with considerable rich orange mint color, perhaps deserving a Red and Brown designation. The surfaces are mildly reflective. A low area appears on the reverse over ONE.

A blunt strike resulted in considerable central weakness at the back of the head and at the hair ribbons. The lower right branch of the wreath is also indistinct. As a result, this lovely chestnut and olive-brown cent is extremely hard to grade, and may be nicer than our net EAC grade. Noyes grades this piece VF35 and tied for fifth finest known. Double Struck on Brockage

- 2620 1797 Reverse of 1797, Stems — Double Struck with Reverse Brockage — Good 4 NGC. S-137, B-8, R.2. Our EAC Grade AG3. The first strike was an off-center brockage with a full incuse date and part of the drapery visible on the reverse. That “spoiled” cent was then used as a planchet for a proper striking. However, the evidence presented on this piece suggests that an additional strike occurred, as the extra dentils and LIB from an earlier strike appear on the obverse with a different orientation from the incuse image on the reverse. Worthy of close study.

- 2626 1797 Reverse of 1797, Stems — Double Struck Reverse and Partial Brockage Obverse — Fine 12 PCGS. S-140, B-22, R.1. Our EAC Grade VG8. The first strike was uncentered toward 12 o'clock on a slightly oversized and oval-shaped planchet. The second strike was uniface reverse and off center toward 7 o'clock, relative to the reverse. The second strike is partial, only a 20% impression from the reverse die, since a planchet (not included) rested at an angle over the present piece at the time of the second strike. Choice surfaces for the grade with pleasing steel brown color.

Ex: Jules Reiver

- 2652 1798 First Hair Style XF40 NGC. S-158, B-17, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF25. Breen Die State V. The obverse has three long, nearly vertical, straight die cracks in the left field. On the reverse a crack runs from the T in UNITED, through the wreath and the second T in STATES, back to the rim. A nearby crack runs along the top crossbar of the I in UNITED, downward through the adjacent T and joins with the first crack below. In an early stage of this die state, the rim above T has broken and filled downward nearly to cover the top of that letter, but the rim break does not extend all the way back to the I. The area below T has filled downward to where the two cracks meet. A third crack merges the tops of CA with the denominator. This delectable, well defined coin reveals only small abrasions and, under a glass, scattered surface porosity on its medium-brown surfaces. An unusual opportunity to acquire a high-grade example of this very scarce variety.

Condition Census

- 2661 1798 Second Hair Style XF45 NGC. S-165, B-31, R.4. Our EAC Grade VF25. Breen Die State II. Clash marks are evident at the usual locations, although there are no apparent die cracks on this piece. The sharpness is about 10 points finer than our net grade with green verdigris visible only under a loupe. The surfaces are pleasing and glossy; cleaned and retoned to attractive light chocolate and steel-brown. Bland ranks this piece tied for fourth finest with his grade of VF25. Noyes calls it Fine 15 and tied for sixth best.

- 2662 1798 Second Hair Style — Environmental Damage — NGC Details. XF S-166, B-32, R.1. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. Breen Die State V, with the usual heavy reverse die crack. A triangular piece of the reverse of this coin is missing, appearing as a wedge-shaped planchet lamination. That curious feature should be examined closely to determine its cause. Light corrosion is evident on the obverse, with moderate reverse roughness. The surfaces combine tan and olive-brown with bluish-steel on the reverse.

- 2663 1798 Second Hair Style MS62 Brown PCGS. S-166, B-32, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Husak Collection. Breen Die State III. The obverse has several sets of light clash marks. The usual reverse die crack from ED down to the fraction is present, but still light without any associated die chipping.

Del Bland grades this piece MS60 and tied for second finest known. We agree with Bill Noyes, grading this piece as AU55. Noyes places it seventh in his census. Chocolate and steel-brown surfaces with remnants of mint frost on both sides. Traces of lighter tan around the devices represents faded mint red. Some faint maroon and olive color is evident. A pleasing example with most design details sharp, although the bust tip and upper reverse leaves are blunt as usual. Smooth surfaces have a trace of rub on the highpoints.

Double Struck over Brockage

- 2666 1798 Second Hair Style — Double Struck — Fine 15 NGC. S-169, B-28, R.3. Our EAC Grade Fine 12. The first of two strikes was a brockage, with an incuse, mirrored image of the obverse on the reverse side of this piece. The second strike was a normal impression, creating two complete, side-by-side dates on the obverse, and a mirrored and incuse date at the upper left reverse. The medium chocolate-brown surfaces are smooth and attractive. Ex: C. Douglas Smith; Dr. Robert A. Schuman (Superior, 9/2004), lot 382; Dan Holmes (9/2010), lot 393. Lettered Edge Token

- 2668 1798 Second Hair Style — Struck over India 1794 1/48 Rupee — Good 4 NGC. S-170, B-29, R.3. Our EAC Grade Good 4. A lettered edge India 1794 1/48th rupee found its way to the coining press in Philadelphia, likely mixed in with planchets that were shipped from Matthew Boulton, since the Indian pieces were struck at his Soho Mint. This piece is about three millimeters greater diameter than the large cent standard at the time, and weighs about 36 grains over the prevailing large cent standard. This well-worn olive-brown cent has pleasing surfaces with a minor rim bruise left of the date that is obscured by the NGC tab. Low Condition Census

- 2669 1798 Second Hair Style XF45 NGC. S-170, B-29, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF35. Breen Die State II, with light obverse clash marks. Variegated shades of tan and brown colors adorn both sides. The strike is a little uneven with areas of weakness noted on both the obverse and the reverse. There are a few spots on the obverse, and the reverse displays some light, barely perceptible roughness here and there. Still, this is an important coin because, whereas low grade examples of S-170 are not all that rare, high grade survivors are elusive.

Sheldon Obverse Plate
Tied for Third Finest Known

2673 1798 Second Hair Style MS63 Brown PCGS. S-173, B-38, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU58. Reflective fields exhibit full luster with blue-steel and golden-tan surfaces showing considerable iridescence, and retaining faded mint red in the protected areas. A splash of dark greenish corrosion appears over the shoulder. Otherwise, the surfaces of this lovely cent are extraordinary.

Breen Die State III. The obverse has a delicate, barely visible crack through the tops of RTY but no clash marks. The reverse has light clash marks but no trace of the crack through NIT.

Commentary: Del Bland identifies the obverse and reverse of this piece on the plate for Early American Cents and Penny Whimsy. However, we are only able to match the obverse of the Mervis specimen to those references.

Census Notes: Bland grades this piece MS60 and tied for third finest in his census. Bill Noyes calls it AU55 (Mint State sharpness) and fourth finest in his record. The PCGS Population Report shows four pieces graded MS63 Brown, and four finer. This example would be a fifth MS63 Brown if it had been properly identified.

Second Finest Known

- 2677 1798 Second Hair Style MS62 Brown NGC. S-174, B-35, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU55. Breen Die State IV with a short die crack left of the lowest curl, and two sets of clash marks on the rotated reverse. This lovely cent has dappled tan and steel-brown, with similar but more even toning on the reverse. Golden-tan luster is faded from original mint red in the protected areas. Our EAC grade equals the three finest pieces in the Bland census, and it is alone in second place in the Noyes census. This is an extremely important opportunity for the advanced collector.

Sheldon Plate Coin

2686 1798 Second Hair Style XF40 NGC. S-180, B-41, High R.5. Our EAC Grade VF30. Ex: Mervis Collection. Medium olive and darker steel with some lighter reddish-brown on the reverse. This is a pleasing example of the rarity. The obverse has a thin scratch through the date, blended with the surrounding color. A few tiny abrasions are noted around the neck, and a small mark is opposite the third curl in the left obverse field.

Breen Die State V. The terminal die state with two prominent reverse rim breaks, one on the second T in STATES, the other on the U of UNITED. This state is much rarer than the single break.

Commentary: This example is plated in Early American Cents and Penny Whimsy, and the reverse is plated in Noyes. The S-180 is an important rarity in the Sheldon series, known in three distinctive states of the reverse die. That die can be found perfect, with one rim break, or with two rim breaks. Most of the 35 or 40 known pieces have a single rim break over ATE. Few are found from the perfect die, and only a few others have both rim breaks like this example.

Census Notes: Bland and Noyes both grade this piece VF30 and second finest known. The Mervis specimen is one of just four VF pieces at the top of the census listings. The four coins include one example in the ANS Collection.

1799 NC-1, B-1 Cent, AG3
Only Seven Known

2698 1799/8 AG3 NGC. NC-1, B-1, R.7. Our EAC Grade AG3. The two 1799/8 overdate varieties share an obverse die, and their reverse dies are similar. For that reason, one of the eight pieces listed in the Bland and Noyes census lists turned out to be an S-188, and there are only seven examples known. The present piece, which Del Bland grades Good 5, is tied for third finest of the seven. Bill Noyes assigns a lower grade and records this piece in a fifth place tie. Regardless of its grade, this is an important opportunity to acquire an extremely rare variety, with few new discoveries. Three of the seven were first identified between 1947 and 1972, and four others were found in the 1990s.

The present piece is one of the four pieces found in the 1990s, exhibiting light brown on the obverse and darker brown on the reverse, both sides with microscopic roughness. The date and LIBERTY are complete, and the legend is mostly readable. Our EAC grade AG3.

The Eliasberg Specimen

2699 1799/8 VF25 PCGS. S-188, B-2, R.4. Our EAC Grade Fine 15.

Ex: Eliasberg. Breen Die State III, with clash marks, but no trace of the late state obverse die cracks. A wonderfully smooth example with intermingled olive, tan, and steel-brown toning. Few 1799 large cents of any variety have pleasing brown surfaces, as most are dark and rough. The sharpness is about 10 points finer, with scattered circulation marks and minor scratches, none that stand out. Many would assign an EAC grade of VF20 to this example. The 1799 large cents are among the most famous 18th century coins, thanks to the efforts of Joseph Mickley who was born that year.

Rare Off Center Strike

- 2700 1799 Normal Date — Struck 5% Off Center, Damaged — NGC Details. Good. S-189, B-3, R.2. Our EAC Grade AG3. A large C is punched into the obverse of this olive and steel-brown cent, with considerable green corrosion and red patina. However, this intriguing piece has a full date, and most importantly, it is struck about 5 to 10% off-center to 10:30. This is the only off-center 1799 large cent we have seen or heard of.

- 2701 1799 Normal Date — Environmental Damage — NGC Details. VF. S-189, B-3, R.2. Our EAC Grade Fine 15. Breen Die State I, with no evidence of the reverse die chip, and with a weak date and strong LIBERTY. The die state may be slightly later and is difficult to determine because of the slightly rough surfaces. The obverse has intermingled chestnut and olive-brown toning, with olive and dark steel-brown on the reverse.

1799 S-189, B-3 Cent, VF20

- 2702 1799 VF20 PCGS. S-189. B-3, R.2. Our EAC Grade Fine 15. Thanks to 19th century collector Joseph Mickley's quest to find a cent from his birth year, 1799, the issue has gained a sterling reputation as a rarity, even though the nonoverdated 1799 cent is only slightly scarce across all grades. However, midrange representatives such as the present coin can properly be termed rarities. Subtly glossy surfaces have a medium-brown base, leavened with cinnamon on the obverse and reddish-violet on the reverse. The obverse has quality detail and few significant abrasions; an apparent flaw over the lower right part of that side is in the plastic holder and not on the coin itself.

Note: The PCGS number listed on the holder (1444) is associated with Red and Brown color today; our number (1443) corresponds with current usage for Brown.

1800 NC-6, B-4 Cent, Good Details

- 2703 1800 Overdate, First Hair Style — Damaged — NGC Details. Good. NC-6, B-4, High R.6. Our EAC Grade Good 4. Just over half a dozen examples of this NC rarity are known, and nearly all are in low grades. Del Bland's condition census lists the finest known as VF25, and the second finest as VG7. All others grade Good 6 or lower. This example was discovered a little over two years ago by North Texas coin dealer Bobby Sullivan among coins in a large cent lot that he had purchased. The sharpness is VG8 with light corrosion, minor surface marks, and numerous old hairline scratches. However, it is an attractive example for the grade, and the "damage" mentioned by NGC is not immediately obvious. Ex: Bobby Sullivan (Bubba Sully's Pocket Change, 10/2011); Greg Hannigan. - 2706 1800 Overdate, First Hair Style — Burnished — NGC Details. AU. S-191, B-2, R.3. Our EAC Grade XF40. Breen Die State IV. An intermediate state of the reverse cracks and bulges. Steel and dark olive surfaces are accompanied by traces of lighter gray-brown on the highpoints. Both sides have minor roughness with some verdigris on the reverse. The usual light handling marks and faint scratches are evident. This example is clearly a candidate for the traditional Condition Census, but it is not tied for the finest as recorded by Bland. It is probably a legitimate contender for fourth or fifth finest. Ex: Rodney T. Grove; Robert Nofal and Lewis Kling; Cape Kennedy (7/1976), lot 23, $1,200; Dr. Willard J. Carmel (1981); G. Mirror Brockage Impression

- 2709 1800 80 over 79 — Mirror Brockage on Reverse — XF40 NGC. S-194, B-8, R.3. Our EAC Grade Fine 15. Many people misunderstand the terminology for brockage errors. A “Mirror Brockage on Reverse” means that it is an incused, mirrored image of the obverse die that serves as the reverse of the coin. Many collectors would call this an “Obverse Brockage.” Regardless of the name given to this piece, it is a truly spectacular error. The obverse die was used for both S-194 and S-195. In the Holmes catalog, Bob Grellman wrote that the obverse die state of this piece suggested it was S-194. However, die failure at TY of LIBERTY suggests that it might be S-195. The surfaces are pleasing dark chocolate and steel-brown with minimal marks. The two impressions are rotated, meaning the first coin in the press turned before the new planchet was introduced to make this error.

Second Finest Available Example

- 2712 1800 Overdate, Second Hair Style AU50 NGC. S-196, B-10, R.1. Our EAC Grade XF45. Breen Die State III. The latest die state per Breen, with a fine die crack through the E of LIBERTY into the hair, and clash marks near the fraction and right ribbon end. Deep olive surfaces retain lighter tan around the devices. The usual minor handling marks are evident on each side. Just two AU coins are known, including one in the ANS Collection, followed by this example and several other similar pieces. Since the ANS coin is impounded, this example is tied for the second finest available to collectors.

The Finest Known

- 2715 1800 — Burnished — NGC Details. Fine. S-198, B-19, High R.5. Our EAC Grade VG10. Ex: Mervis Collection. The Noyes plate coin. Noyes and Bland both grade this piece VG10 and tied for finest known. Breen Die State III. An intermediate die state. The early state crack along the left side of the 1 in the denominator appears to be constant. With fewer than 30 examples known in all grades, Breen recorded six distinctly different die states!

In addition to its importance as a rare Sheldon number, the low condition census doubles its importance to collectors. Finest known for the variety grades below Fine, and only eight examples are known better than Good. The top six examples in Bland's Census have a combined point value of just 55.

A lovely piece consisting of intermingled medium brown and lighter reddish-brown color. Cleaned and recolored, yet possessing excellent eye appeal. The obverse has a small nick in the hair, another through 80, and a tiny rim bruise at 4 o'clock. The reverse has a small depression at the left top of N in ONE, with other typical abrasions.

Ex: Rasmussen Collection

- 2722 1800 XF40 NGC. S-202, B-18, High R.4. Our EAC Grade VF20. Breen Die State II. Despite the advanced appearance of both dies, this is actually an early die state for this variety. As the fifth and final use of this obverse, the die had taken considerable abuse by the time production of these cents began. This cent is listed as Fine 15 in the Breen Large Cent Encyclopedia, although VF20 seems more in line with the quality. As a Fine 15, it is tied for ninth best in the expanded Census. VF20 would raise the rank to a tie for sixth finest. The surfaces are chestnut-brown with olive overtones. These surfaces are extremely attractive for the grade, with only a few minor blemishes. Minuscule scratches are visible on the obverse with magnification. We graded this piece Fine 15 in the Rasmussen Sale, following the opinion of Bland and Noyes, but today we are inclined toward VF20, equal to a sixth place tie in the Bland census.

- 2728 1800 AU55 PCGS. S-207, B-28, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF35. Ex: Husak Collection. Breen Die State II. Heavy obverse clash marks are visible near LIBERTY, and also in the usual locations on either side of the bust. The triangular reverse rim break below the fraction is a diagnostic of the variety, known on all examples. This is Sheldon's "two glances" variety: "This variety can be recognized in two glances: (1) It always has the triangular rim break under the fraction on the reverse; (2) It of course lacks the horizontal obverse break seen on the preceding obverse."
Both sides of this piece have deep steel toning with considerable maroon patina and minor surface roughness. A few minor hairlines and other abrasions are mostly limited to the obverse, including a minor scrape left of the L in LIBERTY. Although only an R-3 die marriage, the finest known example grades just XF40, according to Bland's Census. This specimen and two others are next in his roster, but the other two VF35 coins are both in the ANS Collection, meaning that this piece stands alone as the second best available to collectors.

2744 1801 MS62 Brown NGC. S-216, B-6, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU50. Breen Die State II, with die failure over LIBERTY, although with little evidence of obverse clash marks. Reddish chocolate-brown surfaces retain considerable cartwheel luster. The reverse toning is slightly deeper than the obverse. Smooth surfaces show minimal marks on this attractive cent. This die pair is quite common, with a number of AU and Mint State pieces known, and it is an ideal candidate for a date or type collection.

High Census Level Specimen

2745 1801 AU50 PCGS. S-217, B-7, High R.6. Our EAC Grade XF40. Ex: Dan Holmes Collection. Glossy steel and dark chocolate-brown surfaces are free of corrosion or verdigris, with only a few scattered marks of no consequence. The majority of those marks are on the obverse, and they are hidden among the clash marks.

Breen Die State III. Extensive clash marks appear along the upper obverse border over LIBERTY, and on both sides of Liberty's head, and they are especially heavy in front of the face and neck. Die sinking appears as prominent bulges on the obverse at the bust, behind the curls, and below the hair ribbon. The obverse swelling translates to reverse strike weakness.

Commentary: Howard Newcomb discovered this distinctive die pairing in the early 20th century, certainly by the 1930s. Three or four were known when Sheldon published Early American Cents, and the population increased to seven known when Penny Whimsy was published in 1958. Today, 17 or 18 examples are known in all grades. The position of LIBERTY is distinctive, and this obverse was combined with two reverse dies, here with a normal layout. Given the recognizable obverse, it is likely that most examples of this rarity have already been discovered in the last eight decades. It is doubtful that the population will increase dramatically with future finds.

Census Notes: Bland and Noyes both agree with our EAC grade of XF40. Bland calls this piece second finest known behind the slightly sharper piece that we sold in the Walter J. Husak Collection. Noyes considers this piece tied for finest known. Following this coin and the Husak specimen, the census drops rapidly, with four VF coins (one in the ANS), and one Fine 15 (also in the ANS). All other examples known grade VG or lower.

Although it is the lowest grade of the four, and the lowest grade on the Sheldon scale, Noyes describes the surfaces as "Choice" and we concur. The other three are called "Average." Both sides have light clash marks, and the reverse has a single die crack through UNI. A splendid piece with bright golden-brown and deeper medium brown surfaces. A small mark is visible just inside the obverse border at 9 o'clock, but otherwise the surfaces are smooth and free of abrasions. The Three Errors reverse is immensely popular, due mostly to its listing in the standard guide books over many years, and to its immediate identification. The Mervis specimen has the oldest pedigree of any S-219, dating back to 1891. The Three Errors was actually known to Frossard in 1879, although he gave it two distinct listings: "1. - 2750 1801 Error Fraction XF40 PCGS. S-220, B-12, R.3. Our EAC Grade VF30. Ex: Dan Holmes Collection. Breen Die State VII. A late die state coin, from very nearly the terminal die state for the variety. The reverse die had numerous die cracks and rim breaks, and was just about ready to fall apart. Although not as severe, the obverse also exhibits die cracks, clash marks, and rim breaks.

The die engravers certainly had their difficulties during the opening years of the 19th century. In 1801 and 1802, a number of large cents were produced with the meaningless fraction 1/000 on the reverse. On other dies, this same fraction was corrected with a digit 1 punched over the first 0. All of these blunders by the engravers created varieties so cherished today. This example has smooth, pleasing surfaces with coffee-brown color and lighter brown and olive highlights. The surfaces have light to moderate abrasions, especially on the obverse. The reverse is rotated about 30 degrees counterclockwise.

The sharpness is VF30 with minor handling marks on each side, including minor obverse hairlines. Glossy surfaces exhibit ebony fields and chestnut-brown devices. Bland grades this piece VF35 and second finest known, while Noyes calls it VF20 and also second finest known. The only finer piece is impounded in the ANS, and the census falls sharply after this example, with the third finest grading just VG10.

Bland's Finest Known

2794 1803 Small Date, Small Fraction MS65 Brown PCGS. S-247, B-5, R.3. Our EAC Grade MS60. Ex: Boyd. Most of the design elements are sharply detailed, with two leaf pairs in the lower part of the left branch indistinct. This splendid golden-tan cent has a few darker olive-brown splashes, with traces of original mint red on the obverse, most noticeable along Liberty's profile. Both sides show reflective fields with only a few trivial marks, including a small planchet chip right of the chin.

Breen Die State I. An early die state with a small lump under Liberty's chin. The reverse has clash marks from dentils through the denominator, extending under both ribbons.

Commentary: The reverse is plated in Penny Whimsy, and both the obverse and reverse are plated in Noyes. Known as the Mumps obverse, so-called for the die chip below the jaw. That die chip appears first in intermediate die states of S-246, and gradually increases in size on S-247, 248, and 249.

Census Notes: Del Bland grades this piece MS60 as we do, and rates it finest known. This is the only example called Mint State in his census. Bill Noyes grades it AU55 with the sharpness of Mint State, and third finest known. The three finest examples in Noyes each carry the AU55 grade, with their ranking based on his interpretation of surface quality.

Small Date, Small Fraction

- 2805 1803 Small Date, Small Fraction MS63 Brown NGC. S-254, B-13, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS61. Ex: Mervis Collection. Breen Die State IV. The heavy die crack through the drapery is now failing and appears as a retained cud above the drapery. This fully lustrous and glossy olive-brown cent exhibits blue-steel toning that is especially attractive on the reverse. Faded mint red is evident at the top of the obverse, and both sides show a few insignificant carbon spots. The S-254 die pair is plentiful in all grades, with many Mint State pieces known, giving date and type collectors an excellent opportunity to acquire an attractive example. Census Level

- 2806 1803 Small Date, Small Fraction AU58 PCGS. S-255, B-14, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU55. Ex: Husak Collection. Breen Die State III. The reverse has a crack at the top of ST. Intermingled olive and tan with hints of faded red on the reverse. The obverse has dark stains near the border at 2 o'clock and on the drapery at 5 o'clock. A small nick on Liberty's neck is just left of the center of the neckline. This example is unlisted in Bland's abbreviated census, although called fifth finest by Noyes. Bland lists four Mint State coins and five AU55 pieces in his roster of nine coins. Our EAC grade would place it in a tie for fifth finest known in Bland's list, exactly where it is recorded in the Noyes census. S-255 ranks among the four most plentiful 1803 varieties, making it an excellent candidate for a date or type collector.

Intermediate Die State

- 2810 1803 Small Date, Large Fraction MS64 Brown NGC. S-258, B-17, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU58. Breen Die State III. The obverse has a fine arcing die crack through the 1 and lower hair details to the border at 9 o'clock. Both sides have faded clash marks. There is no evidence of the obverse die bulge that develops in State IV. Lustrous chocolate-brown and olive on the obverse, with reddish-brown and steel on the reverse. Both sides show wisps of iridescent toning. The impression is sharp and nicely centered, with few imperfections. The reverse has a tiny surface pit midway between the D and S, just inside the border. Although Breen mentions a small hoard in his Large Cent Encyclopedia, he gives no further clues. Today, true Mint State survivors are elusive.

Finest Known per Noyes

- 2813 1803 Small Date, Large Fraction MS63 Brown PCGS. S-260, B-19, R.1. Our EAC Grade MS60. Breen Die State II, the dies appearing perfect with a strong 3 that was reworked from the first die state. This lovely cent has lovely golden-brown surfaces with splashes of blue-steel, and faded mint red in the protected areas. In the Helfenstein catalog, Lester Merkin wrote: "Obverse has lighter and darker areas, pleasingly mottled, with touches of rainbow opalescence. Reverse especially beautiful."

Del Bland grades this piece MS60, and tied for second finest known. The finest example in his census is a single point finer. Bill Noyes also grades this piece MS60, and it is the only Mint State example recorded in his 2005 census. Earlier, in his 1991 reference, Noyes called four pieces MS60, and all tied for finest known.

Double Struck Reverse

- 2814 1803 Small Date, Large Fraction — Double Struck with Reverse Rotation — XF40 NGC. S-261, B-20, R.2. Our EAC Grade VF20. Breen Die State IV, with buckling behind the low curls. This double struck example has the obverse slightly flattened, and rotation between the two reverse impressions, suggesting that the coin was struck once and remained in the press, turning slightly, when another planchet was introduced on top of the struck coin. Mostly olive-brown with hints of steel and splashes of maroon on the reverse.

Bland's Finest Known

- 2815 1803 Small Date, Large Fraction MS64 Brown PCGS. S-261, B-20, R.2. Our EAC Grade MS61. Bland grades this exceptional piece MS61 and lists it first in his census, while Bill Noyes gives a conservative grade of AU50, and records it as tied for third finest. Without doubt it is a census level specimen and may retain its finest known status.

This variety is distinguished by the 3 imbedded in the drapery and the die crack that begins at the lower obverse rim and continues upward between the 8 and 0 in the date. On the reverse the leaf covers about half of the base of the T in CENT. Both sides are quite well-struck for the type, although minor weakness shows on some of the reverse peripheral devices. A planchet flaw appears near the lower reverse rim, just southeast of the second 0 in 100, and minor die clash marks are evident in the obverse fields. The predominant chocolate-brown color is mitigated on each side by cobalt-blue undertones, and there are few surface disruptions overall.

Terminal Die State

Extensively Pedigreed Census Specimen

- 2819 1803 Small Date, Small Fraction MS61 Brown NGC. S-263, B-22, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Mervis Collection. The obverse and reverse are illustrated in Newcomb, Early American Cents, Penny Whimsy, Noyes, and Breen's Large Cent Encyclopedia. Bland considers this piece full MS60 and finest known, while Noyes ranks it third finest with a grade of AU50. Breen Die State VII. The terminal die state with a rim break below the date, and evidence of a retained cud forming above the crack at STA.

Although not a rarity, the S-263 variety is seldom encountered in nice condition. This piece, called Mint State and finest known in the Bland Census, represents an important opportunity for the advanced cent collector. Both sides have deep steel-brown and pale green toning, enhanced by pale blue overtones, with sharp design details and smooth surfaces. Only the slightest trace of corrosion is evident. Considerable luster is still present on the obverse and the reverse.

A retained cud on the reverse obliterates STA and weakens the second T in STATES, with advanced die cracks. We have only seen a few similar late die state pieces. The sharpness of this specimen is virtually identical to that of the Breen plate coin, which Del Bland grades VF25. Both sides have light olive surfaces with maroon on the obverse and coppery orange on the reverse. The coin was cleaned a long time ago, and has since reacquired an attractive, natural tone. While not perfectly smooth, the surfaces are far finer than usual.

The best pick-up-points are the letters of LIBERTY, nose, upper lip, and chin on the obverse, and the lower wreath, ribbon, and stems on the reverse. NGC made no mention of the triple strike, although they describe the coin as tooled, likely due to the bluish discoloration at the lower obverse. Late Die State

- 2826 1804 — Obverse Graffiti — NGC Details. Unc. S-266c, B-1, R.2. Our EAC Grade VF35. Ex: Mervis Collection. Del Bland grades this piece VF35 with the sharpness of XF45, and Bill Noyes says VF30 with the sharpness of XF45. We agree with Bland's assessment. This piece has smooth olive-brown surfaces with a few splashes of slightly deep brown patina. Faint pin scratches behind the lower hair curls appear loosely as the letters JT, as noted by Bland.

The 1804 is one of the three key dates in the early series along with 1793 and 1799. Examples are always in demand and high grade survivors are almost impossible to locate. For that reason, even coins with minor imperfections remain highly desirable.

Early American Cents Plate Coin
The Finest Available Example

- 2841 1807 Large Fraction MS62 Brown PCGS. S-275, B-5, R.3. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Naftzger Collection. Breen Die State I with obverse clash marks and a small reverse bulge between OF and AMERICA. This piece has the sharpness of a Mint State example with two shallow dents on the obverse, one in the field below the hair ribbon, and the other on the neck. Exceptional eye appeal with glossy chocolate and golden-brown surfaces, showing light tan in the protected areas that have faded from original red.

Bland records this piece as second finest known with a grade of AU50. The only finer piece is impounded in the Ashmolean Museum in England, so this example is the finest available to collectors. Noyes also grades it AU50 with Mint State sharpness, and tied with the Ashmolean specimen for finest known. This example is plated in Sheldon's Early American Cents, and in Noyes. Ex: C.T. - 2845 1807 Large Fraction MS63 Brown PCGS. S-276, B-6, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU58. Ex: Dan Holmes Collection. Breen Die State IV, with light bulges near the low curls. The reverse is rotated nearly 180 degrees. This lovely Mint State piece has golden-brown luster with olive-brown and steel, and retains traces of red mint color in the protected areas, mostly on the obverse. This piece is extremely close to Mint State, and might well be graded MS60. Bland and Noyes both grade it AU55 and tied for fourth finest known.

1808 S-277, B-1 Cent, MS64 Brown
Tied for Second Finest Known

- 2846 1808 MS64 Brown PCGS. S-277, B-1, R.2. Our EAC Grade MS61. Breen Die State VI, with a reverse die crack from the border to the D in UNITED, continuing to the wreath and ON, with a branch arcing up to the final S in STATES. The arcing die crack causes weakness at STAT, and weakens the first star on the obverse that now shows only its three outer points.

Both sides are toned in overlapping tan and medium brown shades with some tinges of reddish color in the more protected areas over the lower obverse. With the exception of those features that are typically weak for the variety, this coin displays bold definition. The surfaces are glossy in texture and free of outwardly distracting blemishes, although a well concealed reverse spot over the E in UNITED should serve as a useful pedigree marker.

Del Bland grades this piece MS61 and tied for second finest known. The Noyes census confuses us, as he lists this coin in both the third and fifth spots. In both cases he grades the coin MS60, once with Average Plus surfaces and the other time with Average surfaces.

1808 S-278, B-2, Cent VF25

- 2847 1808 VF25 NGC. S-278, B-2, R.3. Our EAC Grade Fine 15. The uneven strike suggests misaligned dies or a tapered planchet. The obverse is extremely weak from 6 to 10 o'clock, and the reverse is similarly weak from 8 to 12 o'clock. There are many surface marks at those locations that were not struck out and remain from the planchet. The balance of this pleasing olive-brown cent shows trivial, scattered marks that are consistent with the grade.

1808 S-278, B-2 Cent, MS66 Brown
Tied for Fourth Finest in Bland's Census

2849 1808 MS66 Brown NGC. S-278, B-2, R.3. Our EAC Grade MS62. Ex: Mervis Collection. Typical of the die pair, this example has bold central detail with considerable peripheral weakness. Highly lustrous surfaces golden-tan, apple-green, and light brown on both sides. The left obverse border shows dentilation with a bold outer rim, and the right obverse falls off to the edge. The reverse is similar. Myriad dark toning freckles are evident on both sides of this lovely cent.

Breen Die State III. An early intermediate die state with misaligned dies, showing heavy flowlines on both sides. The imperfect centering does not permit an exact die state analysis.

Commentary: The 1808 large cents are the first examples of John Reich's new design for copper coins, appearing on half cents in 1809. The design is known today as the Classic Head, and at one time was known as the Turban Head.

Census Notes: Del Bland calls this piece MS62 and tied for fourth finest known, while Bill Noyes grades the coin AU55 and records its rank as tied for 10th finest known.

Among the 16 Mint State 1808 large cents that NGC has certified, only one piece is finer than this example. NGC has graded two submissions as MS66 Brown, and one as MS67 Brown. The other 13 examples grade between MS61 Brown and MS65 Red and Brown.

Tab Double Strike

- 2852 1810/09 — Double Struck, Second Strike 95% Off Center — Fine 12 PCGS. S-281, B-1, R.2. Our EAC Grade VG10. The second strike is 95% off-center, created a small tab at 11:30. This early die state has no flowlines, and the stars and letters are all well-formed. The chocolate and olive-brown surfaces are pleasing with nothing more than grade-consistent handling marks. - 2853 1810/09 MS63 Brown PCGS. S-281, B-1, R.1. Our EAC Grade AU58. Breen Die State IV, or later, with heavy flowlines and a raised ridge over STATES, but no evidence of clash marks on either side, probably lapped off the die. This is the popular and once controversial overdate variety, although there seems to be little question of its status today. In the past it was known either as 1810 over 09, or 1810 over 08. The surfaces are frosty with full cartwheel luster and dark brown patina with splashes of deeper steel toning and subtle traces of original mint red. A faint, old scratch is visible from the back hair curls to the rim just left of star 8. Tied for seventh finest in Del Bland's Census and 10th finest in Bill Noyes' Census. Ex: Dr. Juan XII Suros Collection (Superior, 2/1999), lot 17; Robert C. Clark (Bowers and Merena, 8/2000), lot 327; Denis W. Breen Plate Coin

- 2855 1810 MS62 Brown NGC. S-282, B-3, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU50. Ex: Mervis Collection. Plated in Walter Breen's Large Cent Encyclopedia. A beautiful and lustrous piece. The upper obverse has dark brown color, with frosty tan faded from original red below. The reverse has similar colors intermingled upon the surfaces. The reverse has a minor planchet lamination near the border at CA. Each side has a few microscopic surface marks, noticeable only in the left obverse field and below the ribbon bow on the reverse. Bland and Noyes each grade this piece AU50. Bland ranks the piece tied for ninth finest, while Noyes suggests that it is tied for fifth finest known.

Breen Die State III. An extremely faint crack (Breen Die State II) joins the inner points of stars 10 and 11, and another joins the outer points of stars 2, 3, and 4. Breen incorrectly described these cracks as extensions from each star to the rim. Heavy flowlines have diminished the appearance of clash marks on each side. The raised ridge along the dentil tips above TES OF extends left over STA, and right nearly to the first A. Extremely heavy flowlines extend up from the tops of TES OF and actually cut through the raised ridge. There is no evidence of the obverse bulge that appears in later die states.

Tied for Fifth Finest in Noyes

2858 1810 MS64 Brown PCGS. S-285, B-2, R.2. Our EAC Grade AU55. Glossy olive and chocolate-brown surfaces exhibit trivial splashes of darker toning. Otherwise, the surfaces are nearly free of marks. The strike is excellent and nicely though imperfectly centered. Full Mint State sharpness with a short hairline scratch in the left obverse field.

Breen Die State III. The obverse is cracked through the bottom of 10 and continues to connect every star at the right. Blurry clash marks are visible inside the right side of the wreath. The stars and letters are lightly pulled to the border.

Commentary: The S-285 cent is elusive in higher grades, despite its low rarity rating. This variety proved to be difficult when photos were selected to illustrate the Breen Large Cent Encyclopedia. Breen noted in that reference that survivors are normally dark and that Mint State specimens are from a tiny hoard discovered early in the 20th century. The hoard must have been extremely small as Bland only records seven Mint State piece in his census.

Census Notes: Del Bland grades this piece AU55 and records it in eighth place, with one other similarly graded example. Bill Noyes also grades it AU55, and tied for fifth finest known. PCGS has certified two dozen Mint State 1810 large cents, including five submissions graded MS64 Brown, and five finer pieces.

This Auction is presented by Heritage Auctions, a d/b/a/ of Heritage Auctioneers & Galleries, Inc., or Heritage Auctions, Inc., or Heritage Numismatic Auctions, Inc., or Heritage Vintage Sports Auctions, Inc., or Currency Auctions of America, Inc., as identified with the applicable licensing information on the title page of the catalog or on the HA.com Internet site (the "Auctioneer"). The Auction is conducted under these Terms and Conditions of Auction and applicable state and local law. Announcements and corrections from the podium and those made through the Terms and Conditions of Auctions appearing on the Internet at HA.com supersede those in the printed catalog.

Buyer's Premium:

2. All bids are subject to a Buyer's Premium which is in addition to the placed successful bid:
- Seventeen and one-half percent (17.5%) on Currency, US Coin, and World & Ancient Coin Auction lots, except for Gallery Auction lots as noted below;
 - Nineteen and one-half percent (19.5%) on Comic, Movie Poster, Sports Collectibles, and Gallery Auction (sealed bid auctions of mostly bulk numismatic material) lots;
 - Twenty-two percent (22%) on Wine Auction lots;
 - For lots in all other categories not listed above, the Buyer's Premium per lot is twenty-five percent (25%) on the first $100,000 (minimum $14), plus twenty percent (20%) of any amount between $100,000 and $1,000,000, plus twelve percent (12%) of any amount over $1,000,000.

Auction Venues:

3. The following Auctions are conducted solely on the Internet: Heritage Weekly Internet Auctions (Coin, Currency, Comics, Rare Books, Jewelry & Watches, Guitars & Musical Instruments, and Vintage Movie Posters); Heritage Monthly Internet Auctions (Sports, World Coins and Rare Wine). Signature® Auctions and Grand Format Auctions accept bids from the Internet, telephone, fax, or mail first, followed by a floor bidding session; HeritageLive! and real-time telephone bidding are available to registered clients during these auctions.

Bidders:

4. Any person participating or registering for the Auction agrees to be bound by and accepts these Terms and Conditions of Auction ("Bidder(s)").
5. All Bidders must meet Auctioneer's qualifications to bid. Any Bidder who is not a client in good standing of the Auctioneer may be disqualified at Auctioneer's sole option and will not be awarded lots. Such determination may be made by Auctioneer in its sole and unlimited discretion, at any time prior to, during, or even after the close of the Auction. Auctioneer reserves the right to exclude any person from the auction.
6. If an entity places a bid, then the person executing the bid on behalf of the entity agrees to personally guarantee payment for any successful bid.

Credit:

7. In order to place bids, Bidders who have not established credit with the Auctioneer must either furnish satisfactory credit information (including two collectibles-related business references) or supply valid credit card information along with a social security number, well in advance of the Auction. Bids placed through our Interactive Internet program will only be accepted from pre-registered Bidders. Bidders who are not members of HA.com or affiliates should preregister at least 48 hours before the start of the first session (exclusive of holidays or weekends) to allow adequate time to contact references. Credit will be granted at the discretion of Auctioneer. Additionally Bidders who have not previously established credit or who wish to bid in excess of their established credit history may be required to provide their social security number or the last four digits thereof so a credit check may be performed prior to Auctioneer's acceptance of a bid. Check writing privileges and immediate delivery of merchandise may also be determined by pre-approval of credit based on a combination of criteria: HA.com history, related industry references, bank verification, a credit bureau report and/or a personal guarantee for a corporate or partnership entity in advance of the auction venue.

Bidding Options:

8. Bids in Signature, Auctions or Grand Format Auctions may be placed as set forth in the printed catalog section entitled "Choose your bidding method." For auctions held solely on the Internet, see the alternatives on HA.com. Review at HA.com/common/howtobid.php.
9. Presentment of Bids: Non-Internet bids (including but not limited to podium, fax, phone and mail bids) are treated similar to floor bids in that they must be on-increment or at a half increment (called a cut bid). Any podium, fax, phone, or mail bids that do not conform to a full or half increment will be rounded up or down to the nearest full or half increment and this revised amount will be considered your high bid.
10. Auctioneer's Execution of Certain Bids. Auctioneer cannot be responsible for your errors in bidding, so carefully check that every bid is entered correctly. When identical mail or FAX bids are submitted, preference is given to the first received. To ensure the greatest accuracy, your written bids should be entered on the standard printed bid sheet and be received at Auctioneer's place of business at least two business days before the Auction start. Auctioneer is not responsible for executing mail bids or FAX bids received on or after the day the first lot is sold, nor Internet bids submitted after the published closing time; nor is Auctioneer responsible for proper execution of bids submitted by telephone, mail, FAX, e-mail, Internet, or in person once the Auction begins. Bids placed electronically via the internet may not be withdrawn until your written request is received and acknowledged by Auctioneer (FAX: 214-443-8425); such requests must state the reason, and may constitute grounds for withdrawal of bidding privileges. Lots won by mail Bidders will not be delivered at the Auction unless prearranged.
11. Caveat as to Bid Increments. Bid increments (over the current bid level) determine the lowest amount you may bid on a particular lot. Bids greater than one increment over the current bid can be any whole dollar amount. It is possible under several circumstances for winning bids to be between increments, sometimes only $1 above the previous increment. Please see: "How can I lose by less than an increment?" on our website. Bids will be accepted in whole dollar amounts only. No "buy" or "unlimited" bids will be accepted.

The following chart governs current bidding increments for Signature auctions; Internet-only auction bidding increments are approximately half of these amounts (see HA.com/c/ref/web-tips.zx#guidelines-increments).

>$10,000,000	$500,000

12. If Auctioneer calls for a full increment, a bidder may request Auctioneer to accept a bid at half of the increment ("Cut Bid") only once per lot. After offering a Cut Bid, bidders may continue to participate only at full increments. Off-increment bids may be accepted by the Auctioneer at Signature® Auctions and Grand Format Auctions. If the Auctioneer solicits bids other than the expected increment, these bids will not be considered Cut Bids.

Conducting the Auction:

13. Notice of the consignor's liberty to place bids on his lots in the Auction is hereby made in accordance with Article 2 of the Texas Business and Commercial Code. A "Minimum Bid" is an amount below which the lot will not sell. THE CONSIGNOR OF PROPERTY MAY PLACE WRITTEN "Minimum Bids" ON HIS LOTS IN ADVANCE OF THE AUCTION; ON SUCH LOTS, IF THE HAMMER PRICE DOES NOT MEET THE "Minimum Bid", THE CONSIGNOR MAY PAY A REDUCED COMMISSION ON THOSE LOTS. "Minimum Bids" are generally posted online several days prior to the Auction closing. For any successful bid placed by a consignor on his Property on the Auction floor, or by any means during the live session, or after the "Minimum Bid" for an Auction have been posted, we will require the consignor to pay full Buyer's Premium and Seller's Commissions on such lot.

14. The highest qualified Bidder recognized by the Auctioneer shall be the Buyer. In the event of a tie bid, the earliest bid received or recognized wins. In the event of any dispute between any Bidders at an Auction, Auctioneer may at his sole discretion reoffer the lot. Auctioneer's decision and declaration of the winning Bidder shall be final and binding upon all Bidders. Bids properly offered, whether by floor Bidder or other means of bidding, may on occasion be missed or go unrecognized; in such cases, the Auctioneer may declare the recognized bid accepted as the winning bid, regardless of whether a competing bid may have been higher. Auctioneer reserves the right after the hammer fall to accept bids and reopen bidding for bids placed through the Internet or otherwise.
15. Auctioneer reserves the right to refuse to honor any bid or to limit the amount of any bid, in its sole discretion. A bid is considered not made in "Good Faith" when made by an insolvent or irresponsible person, a person under the age of eighteen, or is not supported by satisfactory credit, collectibles references, or otherwise. Regardless of the disclosure of his identity, any bid by a consignor or his agent on a lot consigned by him is deemed to be made in "Good Faith." Any person apparently appearing on the OFAC list is not eligible to bid.
16. Nominal Bids. The Auctioneer in its sole discretion may reject nominal bids, small opening bids, or very nominal advances. If a lot bearing estimates fails to open for 40-60% of the low estimate, the Auctioneer may pass the item or may place a protective bid on behalf of the consignor.
17. Lots bearing bidding estimates shall open at Auctioneer's discretion (approximately 50%-60% of the low estimate). In the event that no bid meets or exceeds that opening amount, the lot shall pass as unsold.
18. All items are to be purchased per lot as numerically indicated and no lots will be broken. Auctioneer reserves the right to withdraw, prior to the close, any lots from the Auction.
19. Auctioneer reserves the right to rescind the sale in the event of nonpayment, breach of a warranty, disputed ownership, auctioneer's clerical error or omission in exercising bids and reserves, or for any other reason and in Auctioneer's sole discretion. In cases of nonpayment, Auctioneer's election to void a sale does not relieve the Bidder from their obligation to pay Auctioneer its fees (seller's and buyer's premium) and any other damages or expenses pertaining to the lot.
20. Auctioneer occasionally experiences Internet and/or Server service outages, and Auctioneer periodically schedules system downtime for maintenance and other purposes, during which Bidders cannot participate or place bids. If such outages occur, we may at our discretion extend bidding for the Auction. Bidders unable to place their Bids through the Internet are directed to contact Client Services at 877-HERITAGE (437-4824).
21. The Auctioneer, its affiliates, or their employees consign items to be sold in the Auction, and may bid on those lots or any other lots. Auctioneer or affiliates expressly reserve the right to modify any such bids at any time prior to the hammer based upon data made known to the Auctioneer or its affiliates. The Auctioneer may extend advances, guarantees, or loans to certain consignors.
22. The Auctioneer has the right to sell certain unsold items after the close of the Auction. Such lots shall be considered sold during the Auction and all these Terms and Conditions shall apply to such sales including but not limited to the Buyer's Premium, return rights, and disclaimers.

Payment:

23. All sales are strictly for cash in United States dollars (including U.S. currency, bank wire, cashier checks, travelers checks, eChecks, and bank money orders, and are subject to all reporting requirements). All deliveries are subject to good funds; funds being received in Auctioneer's account before delivery of the Purchases; and all payments are subject to a clearing period. Auctioneer reserves the right to determine if a check constitutes "good funds": checks drawn on a U.S. bank are subject to a ten business day hold, and thirty days when drawn on an international bank. Clients with pre-arranged credit status may receive immediate credit for payments via eCheck, personal or corporate checks. All others will be subject to a hold of 5 days, or more, for the funds to clear prior to releasing merchandise. (ref. T&C item 7 Credit for additional information.) Payments can be made 24-48 hours post auction from the My Orders page of the HA.com website.
24. Payment is due upon closing of the Auction session, or upon presentment of an invoice. Auctioneer reserves the right to void an invoice if payment in full is not received within 7 days after the close of the Auction. In cases of nonpayment, Auctioneer's election to void a sale does not relieve the Bidder from their obligation to pay Auctioneer its fees (seller's and buyer's premium) on the lot and any other damages pertaining to the lot.
25. Lots delivered to you, or your representative in the States of Texas, California, New York, or other states where the Auction may be held, are subject to all applicable state and local taxes, unless appropriate permits are on file with Auctioneer. (Note: Coins are only subject to sales tax in California on invoices under $1500 and there is no sales tax on coins in Texas) Bidder agrees to pay Auctioneer the actual amount of tax due in the event that sales tax is not properly collected due to: 1) an expired, inaccurate, inappropriate tax certificate or declaration, 2) an incorrect interpretation of the applicable statute, 3) or any other reason. The appropriate form or certificate must be on file at and verified by Auctioneer five days prior to Auction or tax must be paid; only if such form or certificate is received by Auctioneer within 4 days after the Auction can a refund of tax paid be made. Lots from different Auctions may not be aggregated for sales tax purposes..
26. In the event that a Bidder's payment is dishonored upon presentment(s), Bidder shall pay the maximum statutory processing fee set by applicable state law. If you attempt to pay via eCheck and your financial institution denies this transfer from your bank account, or the payment cannot be completed using the selected funding source, you agree to complete payment using your credit card on file.
27. If any Auction invoice submitted by Auctioneer is not paid in full when due, the unpaid balance will bear interest at the highest rate permitted by law from the date of invoice until paid. Any invoice not paid when due will bear a three percent (3%) late fee on the invoice amount or three percent (3%) of any installment that is past due. If the Auctioneer refers any invoice to an attorney for collection, the buyer agrees to pay attorney's fees, court costs, and other collection costs incurred by Auctioneer. If Auctioneer assigns collection to its in-house legal staff, such attorney's time expended on the matter shall be compensated at a rate comparable to the hourly rate of independent attorneys.
28. In the event a successful Bidder fails to pay any amounts due, Auctioneer reserves the right to sell the lot(s) securing the invoice to any underbidders in the Auction that the lot(s) appeared, or at subsequent private or public sale, or relist the lot(s) in a future auction conducted by Auctioneer. A defaulting Bidder agrees to pay for the reasonable costs of resale (including a 10% seller's commission, if assigned to an auction conducted by Auctioneer). The defaulting Bidder is liable to pay any difference between his total original invoice for the lot(s), plus any applicable interest, and the net proceeds for the lot(s) if sold at private sale or the subsequent hammer price of the lot(s) less the 10% seller's commissions, if sold at an Auctioneer's auction.
29. Auctioneer reserves the right to require payment in full in good funds before delivery of the merchandise.
30. Auctioneer shall have a lien against the merchandise purchased by the buyer to secure payment of the Auction invoice. Auctioneer is further granted a lien and the right to retain possession of any other property of the buyer then held by the Auctioneer or its affiliates to secure payment of any Auction invoice or any other amounts due the Auctioneer or affiliates from the buyer. With respect to these lien rights, Auctioneer shall have all the rights of a secured creditor

Terms and Conditions of Auction

- under Article 9 of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code, including but not limited to the right of sale. In addition, with respect to payment of the Auction invoice(s), the buyer waives any and all rights of offset he might otherwise have against the Auctioneer and the consignor of the merchandise included on the invoice. If a Bidder owes Auctioneer or its affiliates on any account, Auctioneer and its affiliates shall have the right to offset such unpaid account by any credit balance due Bidder, and it may secure by possessory lien any unpaid amount by any of the Bidder's property in their possession.
31. Title shall not pass to the successful Bidder until all invoices are paid in full. It is the responsibility of the buyer to provide adequate insurance coverage for the items once they have been delivered to a common carrier or third-party shipper.

Delivery; Shipping; and Handling Charges:

32. Buyer is liable for shipping and handling. Please refer to Auctioneer's website www.HA.com/common/shipping.php for the latest charges or call Auctioneer. Auctioneer is unable to combine purchases from other auctions or affiliates into one package for shipping purposes. Lots won will be shipped in a commercially reasonable time after payment in good funds for the merchandise and the shipping fees is received or credit extended, except when third-party shipment occurs. Buyer agrees that Service and Handling charges related to shipping items which are not pre-paid may be charged to the credit card on file with Auctioneer.
33. Successful international Bidders shall provide written shipping instructions, including specified customs declarations, to the Auctioneer for any lots to be delivered outside of the United States. NOTE: Declaration value shall be the item(s) hammer price together with its buyer's premium and Auctioneer shall use the correct harmonized code for the lot. Domestic Buyers on lots designated for third-party shipment must designate the common carrier, accept risk of loss, and prepay shipping costs.
34. All shipping charges will be borne by the successful Bidder. On all domestic shipments, any risk of loss during shipment will be borne by Heritage until the shipping carrier's confirmation of delivery to the address of record in Auctioneer's file (carrier's confirmation is conclusive to prove delivery to Bidder; if the client has a Signature release on file with the carrier, the package is considered delivered without Signature) or delivery by Heritage to Bidder's selected third-party shipper. On all foreign shipments, any risk of loss during shipment will be borne by the Bidder following Auctioneer's delivery to the Bidder's designated common carrier or third-party shipper.
35. Due to the nature of some items sold, it shall be the responsibility for the successful Bidder to arrange pick-up and shipping through third-parties; as to such items Auctioneer shall have no liability. Failure to pick-up or arrange shipping in a timely fashion (within ten days) shall subject Lots to storage and moving charges, including a $100 administration fee plus $10 daily storage for larger items and $5.00 daily for smaller items (storage fee per item) after 35 days. In the event the Lot is not removed within ninety days, the Lot may be offered for sale to recover any past due storage or moving fees, including a 10% Seller's Commission.
- 36A. The laws of various countries regulate the import or export of certain plant and animal properties, including (but not limited to) items made of (or including) ivory, whalebone, turtle shell, coral, crocodile, or other wildlife. Transport of such lots may require special licenses for export, import, or both. Bidder is responsible for: 1) obtaining all information on such restricted items for both export and import; 2) obtaining all such licenses and/or permits. Delay or failure to obtain any such license or permit does not relieve the buyer of timely compliance with standard payment terms. For further information, please contact Ron Brackemyre at 800- 872-6467 ext. 1312.
- 36B. Auctioneer shall not be liable for any loss caused by or resulting from:
- a. Seizure or destruction under quarantine or Customs regulation, or confiscation by order of any Government or public authority, or risks of contraband or illegal transportation of trade, or
 - b. Breakage of statuary, marble, glassware, bric-a-brac, porcelains, jewelry, and similar fragile articles
37. Any request for shipping verification for undelivered packages must be made within 30 days of shipment by Auctioneer.

Cataloging, Warranties and Disclaimers:

38. NO WARRANTY, WHETHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, IS MADE WITH RESPECT TO ANY DESCRIPTION CONTAINED IN THIS AUCTION OR ANY SECOND OPINE. Any description of the items or second opine contained in this Auction is for the sole purpose of identifying the items for those Bidders who do not have the opportunity to view the lots prior to bidding, and no description of items has been made part of the basis of the bargain or has created any express warranty that the goods would conform to any description made by Auctioneer. Color variations can be expected in any electronic or printed imaging, and are not grounds for the return of any lot. NOTE: Auctioneer, in specified auction venues, for example, Fine Art, may have express written warranties and you are referred to those specific terms and conditions. .
39. Auctioneer is selling only such right or title to the items being sold as Auctioneer may have by virtue of consignment agreements on the date of auction and disclaims any warranty of title to the Property. Auctioneer disclaims any warranty of merchantability or fitness for any particular purposes. All images, descriptions, sales data, and archival records are the exclusive property of Auctioneer, and may be used by Auctioneer for advertising, promotion, archival records, and any other uses deemed appropriate.
40. Translations of foreign language documents may be provided as a convenience to interested parties. Auctioneer makes no representation as to the accuracy of those translations and will not be held responsible for errors in bidding arising from inaccuracies in translation.
41. Auctioneer disclaims all liability for damages, consequential or otherwise, arising out of or in connection with the sale of any Property by Auctioneer to Bidder. No third party may rely on any benefit of these Terms and Conditions and any rights, if any, established hereunder are personal to the Bidder and may not be assigned. Any statement made by the Auctioneer is an opinion and does not constitute a warranty or representation. No employee of Auctioneer may alter these Terms and Conditions, and, unless signed by a principal of Auctioneer, any such alteration is null and void.
42. Auctioneer shall not be liable for breakage of glass or damage to frames (patent or latent); such defects, in any event, shall not be a basis for any claim for return or reduction in purchase price.

Release:

43. In consideration of participation in the Auction and the placing of a bid, Bidder expressly releases Auctioneer, its officers, directors and employees, its affiliates, and its outside experts that provide second opinions, from any and all claims, cause of action, chose of action, whether at law or equity or any arbitration or mediation rights existing under the rules of any professional society or affiliation based upon the assigned description, or a derivative theory, breach of warranty express or implied, representation or other matter set forth within these Terms and Conditions of Auction or otherwise. In the event of a claim, Bidder agrees that such rights and privileges conferred therein are strictly construed as specifically declared herein; e.g., authenticity, typographical error, etc. and are the exclusive remedy. Bidder, by non-compliance to these express terms of a granted remedy, shall waive any claim against Auctioneer.
44. Notice: Some Property sold by Auctioneer are inherently dangerous e.g. firearms, cannons, and small items that may be swallowed or ingested or may have latent defects all of which may cause harm to a person. Purchaser accepts all risk of loss or damage from its purchase of these items and Auctioneer disclaims any liability whether under contract or tort for damages and losses, direct or consequential, and expressly disclaims any warranty as to safety or usage of any lot sold.

Dispute Resolution and Arbitration Provision:

45. By placing a bid or otherwise participating in the auction, Bidder accepts these Terms and Conditions of Auction, and specifically agrees to the dispute resolution provided herein. Consumer disputes shall be resolved through court litigation which has an exclusive Dallas, Texas venue clause and jury waiver. Non-consumer dispute shall be determined in binding arbitration which arbitration replaces the right to go to court, including the right to a jury trial.

46. Auctioneer in no event shall be responsible for consequential damages, incidental damages, compensatory damages, or any other damages arising or claimed to be arising from the auction of any lot. In the event that Auctioneer cannot deliver the lot or subsequently it is established that the lot lacks title, or other transfer or condition issue is claimed, in such cases the sole remedy shall be limited to rescission of sale and refund of the amount paid by Bidder; in no case shall Auctioneer's maximum liability exceed the high bid on that lot, which bid shall be deemed for all purposes the value of the lot. After one year has elapsed, Auctioneer's maximum liability shall be limited to any commissions and fees Auctioneer earned on that lot.
47. In the event of an attribution error, Auctioneer may at its sole discretion, correct the error on the Internet, or, if discovered at a later date, to refund the buyer's purchase price without further obligation.
48. Exclusive Dispute Resolution Process: All claims, disputes, or controversies in connection with, relating to and /or arising out of your Participation in the Auction or purchase of any lot, any interpretation of the Terms and Conditions of Sale or any amendments thereto, any description of any lot or condition report, any damage to any lot, any alleged verbal modification of any term of sale or condition report or description and/or any purported settlement whether asserted in contract, tort, under Federal or State statute or regulation or any claim made by you of a lot or your Participation in the auction involving the auction or a specific lot involving a warranty or representation of a consignor or other person or entity including Auctioneer { which claim you consent to be made a party} (collectively, "Claim") shall be exclusively heard by, and the claimant (or respondent as the case may be) and Heritage each consent to the Claim being presented in a confidential binding arbitration before a single arbitrator administrated by and conducted under the rules of, the American Arbitration Association. The locale for all such arbitrations shall be Dallas, Texas. The arbitrator's award may be enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction. If a Claim involves a consumer, exclusive subject matter jurisdiction for the Claim is in the State District Courts of Dallas County, Texas and the consumer consents to subject matter and in personam jurisdiction; further CONSUMER EXPRESSLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY. A consumer may elect arbitration as specified above. Any claim involving the purchase or sale of numismatic or related items may be submitted through binding PNG arbitration. Any Claim must be brought within two (2) years of the alleged breach, default or misrepresentation or the Claim is waived. Exemplary or punitive damages are not permitted and are waived. A Claim is not subject to class certification. Nothing herein shall be construed to extend the time of return or conditions and restrictions for return. This Agreement and any Claim shall be determined and construed under Texas law. The prevailing party (a party that is awarded substantial and material relief on its damage claim based on damages sought vs. awarded or the successful defense of a Claim based on damages sought vs. awarded) may be awarded its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.
49. No claims of any kind can be considered after the settlements have been made with the consignors. Any dispute after the settlement date is strictly between the Bidder and consignor without involvement or responsibility of the Auctioneer.
50. In consideration of their participation in or application for the Auction, a person or entity (whether the successful Bidder, a Bidder, a purchaser and/or other Auction participant or registrant) agrees that all disputes in any way relating to, arising under, connected with, or incidental to these Terms and Conditions and purchases, or default in payment thereof, shall be arbitrated pursuant to the arbitration provision. In the event that any matter including actions to compel arbitration, construe the agreement, actions in aid or arbitration or otherwise needs to be litigated, such litigation shall be exclusively in the Courts of the State of Texas, in Dallas County, Texas, and if necessary the corresponding appellate courts. For such actions, the successful Bidder, purchaser, or Auction participant also expressly submits himself to the personal jurisdiction of the State of Texas.
51. These Terms & Conditions provide specific remedies for occurrences in the auction and delivery process. Where such remedies are afforded, they shall be interpreted strictly. Bidder agrees that any claim shall utilize such remedies; Bidder making a claim in excess of those remedies provided in these Terms and Conditions agrees that in no case whatsoever shall Auctioneer's maximum liability exceed the high bid on that lot, which bid shall be deemed for all purposes the value of the lot.

Miscellaneous:

52. Agreements between Bidders and consignors to effectuate a non-sale of an item at Auction, inhibit bidding on a consigned item to enter into a private sale agreement for said item, or to utilize the Auctioneer's Auction to obtain sales for non-selling consigned items subsequent to the Auction, are strictly prohibited. If a subsequent sale of a previously consigned item occurs in violation of this provision, Auctioneer reserves the right to charge Bidder the applicable Buyer's Premium and consignor a Seller's Commission as determined for each auction venue and by the terms of the seller's agreement.
53. Acceptance of these Terms and Conditions qualifies Bidder as a client who has consented to be contacted by Heritage in the future. In conformity with "do-not-call" regulations promulgated by the Federal or State regulatory agencies, participation by the Bidder is affirmative consent to being contacted at the phone number shown in his application and this consent shall remain in effect until it is revoked in writing. Heritage may from time to time contact Bidder concerning sale, purchase, and auction opportunities available through Heritage and its affiliates and subsidiaries.
54. Rules of Construction: Auctioneer presents properties in a number of collectible fields, and as such, specific venues have promulgated supplemental Terms and Conditions. Nothing herein shall be construed to waive the general Terms and Conditions of Auction by these additional rules and shall be construed to give force and effect to the rules in their entirety.

State Notices:

Notice as to an Auction in California. Auctioneer has in compliance with Title 2.95 of the California Civil Code as amended October 11, 1993 Sec. 1812.600, posted with the California Secretary of State its bonds for it and its employees, and the auction is being conducted in compliance with Sec. 2338 of the Commercial Code and Sec. 535 of the Penal Code.

Terms and Conditions of Auction

Additional Terms & Conditions:

COINS & CURRENCY

COINS and CURRENCY TERM A: Signature. Auctions are not on approval. No certified material may be returned because of possible differences of opinion with respect to the grade offered by any third-party organization, dealer, or service. No guarantee of grade is offered for uncertified Property sold and subsequently submitted to a third-party grading service. There are absolutely no exceptions to this policy. Under extremely limited circumstances, (e.g. gross cataloging error) a purchaser, who did not bid from the floor, may request Auctioneer to evaluate voiding a sale: such request must be made in writing detailing the alleged gross error; submission of the lot to the Auctioneer must be pre-approved by the Auctioneer; and bidder must notify Ron Brackemyre (1-800-8726467 Ext. 1312) in writing of such request within three (3) days of the non-floor bidder's receipt of the lot. Any lot that is to be evaluated must be in our offices within 30 days after Auction. Grading or method of manufacture do not qualify for this evaluation process nor do such complaints constitute a basis to challenge the authenticity of a lot. AFTER THAT 30-DAY PERIOD, NO LOTS MAY BE RETURNED FOR REASONS OTHER THAN AUTHENTICITY. Lots returned must be housed intact in their original holder. No lots purchased by floor Bidders may be returned (including those Bidders acting as agents for others) except for authenticity. Late remittance for purchases may be considered just cause to revoke all return privileges.

COINS and CURRENCY TERM B: Auctions conducted solely on the Internet THREE (3) DAY RETURN POLICY: Certified Coin and Uncertified and Certified Currency lots paid for within seven days of the Auction closing are sold with a three (3) day return privilege unless otherwise noted in the description as "Sold As Is, No Return Lot". You may return lots under the following conditions: Within three days of receipt of the lot, you must first notify Auctioneer by contacting Client Service by phone (877-HERITAGE (437-4824)) or e-mail (Bid@HA.com), and immediately ship the lot(s) fully insured to the attention of Returns, Heritage, 3500 Maple Avenue, 17th Floor, Dallas TX 75219-3941. Lots must be housed intact in their original holder and condition. You are responsible for the insured, safe delivery of any lots. A non-negotiable return fee of 5% of the purchase price ($10 per lot minimum) will be deducted from the refund for each returned lot or billed directly. Postage and handling fees are not refunded. After the three-day period (from receipt), no items may be returned for any reason. Late remittance for purchases revokes these Return privileges.

COINS and CURRENCY TERM C: Bidders who have inspected the lots prior to any Auction, or attended the Auction, or bid through an Agent, will not be granted any return privileges, except for reasons of authenticity.

COINS and CURRENCY TERM D: Coins sold referencing a third-party grading service are sold "as is" without any express or implied warranty, except for a guarantee by Auctioneer that they are genuine. Certain warranties may be available from the grading services and the Bidder is referred to them for further details: Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC), P.O. Box 4776, Sarasota, FL 34230, <http://www.ngccoin.com/services/writtenguarantee.asp>; Professional Coin Grading Service (PCGS), PO Box 9458, Newport Beach, CA 92658, <http://www.pcg.com/guarantee.html>; ANACS, 6555 S. Kenton St. Ste. 303, Englewood, CO 80111; and Independent Coin Grading Co. (ICG), 7901 East Bellevue Ave., Suite 50, Englewood, CO 80111.

COINS and CURRENCY TERM E: Notes sold referencing a third-party grading service are sold "as is" without any express or implied warranty, except for guarantee by Auctioneer that they are genuine. Grading, condition or other attributes of any lot may have a material effect on its value, and the opinion of others, including third-party grading services such as PCGS Currency, PMG, and CGA may differ with that of Auctioneer. Auctioneer shall not be bound by any prior or subsequent opinion, determination, or certification by any grading service. Bidder specifically waives any claim to right of return of any item because of the opinion, determination, or certification, or lack thereof, by any grading service. Certain warranties may be available from the grading services and the Bidder is referred to them for further details: Paper Money Guaranty (PMG), PO Box 4711, Sarasota FL 34230; PCGS Currency, PO Box 9458, Newport Beach, CA 92658; Currency Grading & Authentication (CGA), PO Box 418, Three Bridges, NJ 08887. Third party graded notes are not returnable for any reason whatsoever.

COINS and CURRENCY TERM F: Since we cannot examine encapsulated coins or notes, they are sold "as is" without our grading opinion, and may not be returned for any reason. Auctioneer shall not be liable for any patent or latent defect or controversy pertaining to or arising from any encapsulated collectible. In any such instance, purchaser's remedy, if any, shall be solely against the service certifying the collectible.

COINS and CURRENCY TERM G: Due to changing grading standards over time, differing interpretations, and to possible mishandling of items by subsequent owners, Auctioneer reserves the right to grade items differently than shown on certificates from any grading service that accompany the items. Auctioneer also reserves the right to grade items differently than the grades shown in the prior catalog should such items be reclassified to any future auction.

COINS and CURRENCY TERM H: Although consensus grading is employed by most grading services, it should be noted as aforesaid that grading is not an exact science. In fact, it is entirely possible that if a lot is broken out of a plastic holder and resubmitted to another grading service or even to the same service, the lot could come back with a different grade assigned.

COINS and CURRENCY TERM I: Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. The degree of liquidity for certified coins and collectibles will vary according to general market conditions and the particular lot involved. For some lots there may be no active market at all at certain points in time.

COINS and CURRENCY TERM J: All non-certified coins and currency are guaranteed genuine, but are not guaranteed as to grade, since grading is a matter of opinion, an art and not a science, and therefore the opinion rendered by the Auctioneer or any third party grading service may not agree with the opinion of others (including trained experts), and the same expert may not grade the same item with the same grade at two different times. Auctioneer has graded the non-certified numismatic items, in the Auctioneer's opinion, to their current interpretation of the American Numismatic Association's standards as of the date the catalog was prepared. There is no guarantee or warranty implied or expressed that the grading standards utilized by the Auctioneer will meet the standards of any grading service at any time in the future.

COINS and CURRENCY TERM K: Storage of purchased coins and currency: Purchasers are advised that certain types of plastic may react with a coin's metal or transfer plasticizer to notes and may cause damage. Caution should be used to avoid storage in materials that are not inert.

COINS and CURRENCY TERM L: NOTE: Purchasers of rare coins or currency through Heritage have available the option of arbitration by the Professional Numismatists Guild (PNG); if an election is not made within ten (10) days of an unresolved dispute, Auctioneer may elect either PNG or A.A.A. Arbitration.

COINS and CURRENCY TERM M: For more information regarding Canadian lots attributed to the Charlton reference guides, please contact: Charlton International, PO Box 820, Station Willowdale B, North York, Ontario M2K 2R1 Canada.

COINS and CURRENCY TERM N: Some of the lots offered herein have been assigned to 1031 Services, Inc. for the purpose of consignor's tax deferred exchange.

New York State Auctions Only

Notice as to an Auction in New York City. These Terms and Conditions of Sale are designed to conform to the applicable sections of the New York City Department of Consumer Affairs Rules and Regulations as Amended. This sale is a Public Auction Sale conducted by Heritage Auctioneers & Galleries, Inc. # 41513036. The New York City licensed auctioneers are: Sam Foose, #095260; Kathleen Guzman, #0762165; Nicholas Dawes, #1304724; Ed Beardsley, #1183220; Scott Peterson, #1306933; Andrea Voss, #1320558; Michael J. Sadler, # 1304630, who will conduct the Sale on behalf of itself and Heritage Numismatic Auctions, Inc. (for Coins) and Currency Auctions of America, Inc. (for currency). All lots are subject to: the consignor's rights to bid thereon in accord with these Terms and Conditions of Sale, consignor's option to receive advances on their consignments, and Auctioneer, in its sole discretion, may offer limited extended financing to registered bidders, in accord with Auctioneer's internal credit standards. A registered bidder may inquire whether a lot is subject to an advance or a reserve. Auctioneer has made advances to various consignors in this sale. On lots bearing an estimate, the term refers to a value range placed on an item by the Auctioneer in its sole opinion but the final price is determined by the bidders. Rev 11-19-12
